SOCIAL NIGHT FOR SISTERS SUCCESS

Pythians Looking Forward To District Meeting Early in May

SILVERTON, March 20.—Social night at the Pythian Sisters' Tuesday meeting was largely attended and an enthusiastic meeting held. A communication was read from Grand Chief Barbara Graves of Portland, congratulating the Home Temple No. 21 upon its renewed interest in temple affairs and on its interesting plans for future meetings.

All the temples of this district will attend the convention at Dallas, the second Saturday in May. Grand Chief Barbara Graves will be present at this convention. The district includes Salem, Silverton, Dallas, Independence, Lebanon, Scio, Corvallis and Eugene.

The organization of an Altruistic club was reported. The club was formed recently at the home of Miss Rosa Specht and will meet the second and fourth Thursday afternoons. It is open to all Pythian sisters and no dues are collected. The club members will work for the benefit of the temple, particularly stressing children's work.

The invitational card party, for the benefit of the temple, was announced for March 26. The Knights have invited the Sisters to be their guests and help with the entertainment of visiting Knights and their wives March 28. Guests will be from Salem, Independence, Hubbard, Aurora and Dallas. A committee to introduce the visitors, is composed of Minnie Fishwood, Elizabeth Cooley and Nada Grinde. Following the regular business of the Temple a program and supper was given. In charge of the program was the membership contest division headed by Elsie Nelson. Mrs. Carl Specht acted as chairman of the program. Numbers included a recitation by Lee Grinde, vocal selections by Mrs. Harry Riches; reading and dance numbers by Darrel Koina with Marvel Grinde at the piano; piano solos by Marvel Grinde. In charge of the decorations were Lillian Heald, Nettie Custer, Elizabeth Gottenberg and Attie Lee.

NEWCOMERS SEEK SUNNYSIDE HOMES

SUNNYSIDE, March 21.—Farm activities are stirring with the tractor salesmen out to sell new equipment to the farmer. Many tractors will be used in this district.

The surveyors are out again, cutting through the good farms which would change the geography of the district. This is causing much adverse criticism.

Many new families have come into the neighborhood but no houses are available and they have had to look elsewhere. Some have stayed and purchased farms. Sunnyside Booster club held its postponed meeting Tuesday morning when these new officers were elected: President, Frank Renner; vice-president, Lyle Brown; secretary, Vannie Van Meter. The new president appointed these committees: Flag, Joseph Renner; basketball, Francis Barry; indoor ball and bats, Frank Renner; little rooms boards, Norman Alexander; big rooms boards, Lyle Brown.

POSTOFFICE TO BE AT OLD BANK SITE

STAYTON, March 21.—The Stayton postoffice will be moved from Ida street into the Bank of Stayton building early next month, Mrs. Grace Neibert, postmistress, announced yesterday. The new postoffice quarters will be in the north half of the building, or that section used as the main banking room of the former bank. This will give the postoffice both front and alley entrances.

Earlier this week, announcement was made that the two local mail routes would be consolidated, with Fred C. Crabtree to handle all rural delivery out of this office. Leo Rock is transferred to Salem.

Landscaping Class Will be Started at Clear Lake Tuesday

CLEAR LAKE, March 21.—The SEEA landscape gardening course to be given at the Clear Lake schoolhouse will have its first meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m., March 26. The course of twelve lectures is free to all adults whether residents of Clear Lake community or not.

Plant propagation, care of shrubs and trees, and many other subjects of especial interest to rural people, will be taught. The course will be conducted by Earl Littwiller. All interested are urged to attend.

ROBERT SMITH HURT WOODBURN, March 21.—Robert Smith, truck driver for the Elkan dairy, fell asleep while driving on the Pacific highway just north of Hardcastle avenue, Monday night about 12 o'clock, and received cuts about the face and head, when his truck went into the ditch and he found himself covered with empty milk bottles. He was able to drive his route Tuesday but the truck was badly damaged and is being repaired.

Senior Class Will Present Drama at Silverton Tonight

SILVERTON, March 21.—A great deal of interest is being displayed in the senior class play to be presented Friday night. "Growing Pains" the three act comedy by Aurania Rouverol, is the play selected. Guy DeLay is director.

Lester Rue and Evelyn Stewart play the leads and others in the cast are: Evelyn Rankin, Lynn Johnson, Marguerite Chalfan, John Coomler, Lyle Krug, Caroline Bump, Merle Terry, Grace Wigle, Anna Larson, Loraine Zolner, Jane Ogdon, Charlotte Goplerud, Marion Palmer, Oscar Specht, and Lewis Paulson. Geraldine Gates is stage director.

LAST SERVICE HELD FOR SARAH E. GIVEN

TURNER, March 20.—The funeral service for Mrs. Sarah E. Given was held Wednesday afternoon in Salem at the Rigdon Mortuary, with Rev. W. C. Kantner officiating. Interment was made in City View cemetery. Pallbearers were H. R. Peetz, Carl Williams, W. J. Denham, Bill Ramsdon, Mr. Micklehany, and Jack Balles.

Mrs. Given was born in the Waldo Hills, the daughter of Abraham and Rebecca Jacobs, March 30, 1861. She was married to John Given in 1880, who was deceased in 1928. The family moved to Salem in 1907. Mrs. Given made her home the past two years with her son Pearl and wife at Turner. After a lingering illness she passed away March 18, 1935.

Seven children survive: George Given, of Washington; Pearl, Turner; Edwards, Silverton; Roy, California; Harry, Salem, Gentry and Mrs. Bessie Dahlen of Portland; sisters, Mrs. Jane Breeding Eugene, and Mrs. Sophie Youngs, Idaho; one brother, John Jacobs, of Vancouver, Wash.
