Moses' Students Hold Music Meeting

The studio of Mrs. Joy Turner Moses on North Capitol street was the scene of a meeting of her student piano and violin club Saturday night. Maxine Case was elected president of the Dunning club; Gaynell Courney was named vice president; and Susanna Hawkins, secretary-treasurer.

A group of the students participated in a program, after which games and musical contests were enjoyed. Spring flowers were arranged about the studio and when luncheon was served at the St. Patrick motif was carried out in the refreshments and table appointments.

In naming the most composers alphabetically, Susanna Hawkins and Maxine Case tied for high honors and in the music appreciation class, Mary Lou Elliott won the contest. Roy Morihoro won the dynamic contest. Following are the club members: Donald Lewis, Georgia Ann Hull, Macycle Woodruff, Bennie Colbath, Virginia Case, Winifred Brisey, Viola Mills, Lou Jane Ringo, Roy Morihoro, Mary Lou Elliott, Marie Johnson, Clifford Kaminska, Maxine Case, Gaynell Courney, Dorothy Ferguson, Ruth Seelye, Rita Guild, Irene B. Seelye, Susanna Hawkins, Louise Urub, Bonita Walker and the counsellor, Mrs. Moses.

District Conference At Roseburg

Members of the local Business and Professional Women's club have received invitations to attend the Coos Bay district conference at Roseburg Sunday. Sessions will be held at the Elks temple with a luncheon at the Umpqua hotel.

Mrs. Leda Parker, state president, will be one of the distinguished speakers. Outstanding events of Business Women's week which is now being observed will be told in one-minute talks by club presidents. Reservations for the luncheon should be sent to Mrs. Minnie Clark, president of the Roseburg club.

Silverton—A children's party was the feature of this week's meeting of the Junior Women's club. Members and guests all came dressed as children and St. Patrick's decorations were carried out. Instead of cards, children's games were played. Hostesses were Celia Hannan, Ethel Wigle and Valda Davis.

GARDEN ADVISERS TO HELP FAMILIES

The 24 men who will serve as advisers to relief families in raising subsistence gardens this spring and summer in Marion county met for the first time yesterday with T. R. Hobart, rural rehabilitation supervisor, Assistant Supervisor Victor Madsen, Professor A. G. Bouquet of Oregon State college and County Agent Harry L. Riches to discuss their undertaking.

All of these gardening advisers have been appointed from the relief rolls, according to Hobart, and will be on the same basis as other relief workers. Nine will serve the Salem district and 15 the rural areas and towns.

The advisers first will conduct a survey of garden lands to ascertain the amount available to relief families and the soil qualities. Thereafter they will advise the various families how to prepare the ground, plant and care for the gardens. Believing and curing sufficient garden plots for all relief families would be one of his major problems, Hobart asked that anyone who has a vacant lot suitable for gardening

Tulip Beds Are Injured; Woman Said Drunk Jail

Driving a car through a wire fence and across some choice tulip beds in Silverton was the offense charged against Evelyn Whitney, 23, in justice court in that city. She was held to have been drunk while driving the car.

Justice of the Peace Alfred yesterday decided 60 days in jail would give the young woman ample time to reflect on her offense. For good measure Alfred added a
