

REHEARSALS START FOR SENIOR DRAMA

WOODBURN, March 28.—Rehearsal for the senior class play, "Tiger House", has been started under the direction of Miss Helen Allen. The play is a three-act mystery comedy by Robert B. Clark, and has been given with great success in other schools. It will be given here April 26. The cast follows: Erna Lowrie, Jean Freerberg; Aunt Sophie, Maria Bred; Peggy Van Ess, Ann Gearin; the mystery woman, Marjory Jones; Mrs. Murdoch, Hazel Carothers; Macintosh, Robert Koenig; Yam, George Little; Arthur Hale, Toriel Nelson; Oswald, Reed Coyne, and Thompson, Robert Barton.

The business and production staff includes Robert Jackson, Henry Paterek, Glenn Barstad, Bill Robert, Lloyd Clark, Carl Reiling, Lyle Gustafson, Wayne Liveness, May Bred, Georgia Cole, Monte Keitel, Clair Nelson, Vernon Simmons, Geraldine Reiling, Mildred Coleman, Wilma Doss, Irene Lamery, Ruth Heusser and Grace Jones.

St. Mary's Episcopal Guild met at the George Miller farm home Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Nona Yergen as hostess. Mrs. E. H. Cowles presided and the devotions were led by Mrs. Frank Wolfe. After a short business session a social hour was enjoyed and the birthdays of four members whose birthday anniversaries occur in March, were remembered by each one being presented with a gift. They were Mrs. H. L. Gill, Mrs. Susan Livesly, Mrs. S. R. Kallak and Mrs. Frank Wolfe.

GOOD FISHING THIS WEEKEND FORECAST

PORTLAND, Ore., March 28.—(AP)—Angling will be fair this weekend in Tillamook county, but poor in Lincoln county, the state game department predicted today. Salmon fishing has been good in the streams of Columbia and Baker counties this week. Angling in Grant county should be fair. Several steelhead have been caught in Rock Creek and Chinook salmon were reported running well in the Willamette slough in Columbia county. Lincoln county streams were high and muddy. Although the steelhead fishing is nearly over, some steelheads are running in the Siletz and Salmon rivers. Several bass have been caught in Devil's lake.

Unless further rains come, coast streams were expected to be clear enough this weekend for better steelhead fishing.

INDIANS WIN IN TENTH MOBILE, Ala., March 28.—(AP)—After finding Carl Hubbell a problem in the early innings, the Cleveland Indians finished strong today at the expense of Adolfo Luque and Frank Gabriel to defeat the New York Giants 5 to 4 in 10 innings.

600 Athletes Lined up For Meet Tonight

PORTLAND, March 28.—(AP)—College and high school stars of the Pacific northwest will compete here tomorrow night in Hill Military academy's colorful relay carnival which brings together one of the largest indoor track entries in the nation.

More than 600 athletes were scheduled to strain and lean on the banked dirt saucer or compete in the other events. Coach Jack Wahl, director of the meet, announced. Thirty-eight schools will be represented.

This is the first time in the annual running of the meet that the turns have been banked, and Director Wahl predicted numerous meet records would fall.

High schools have been grouped in divisions according to enrollment, with first, second and third awards offered in all events. Northwest conference colleges will compete in one group, other independent colleges in another section. University of Oregon will run a special handicap mile relay against its freshman team. The frosh will be given a full lap advantage on the 12-lap mile course.

College of Puget Sound, Pacific university, Willamette university and Linfield college have entered the Northwest conference section are Pacific college, Reed college, Reed club, Salem "Y" and Oregon Normal.

SALEM HIGH SENDS 18 MEN TO RELAYS

Salem high will enter an 18 man team in the Hill Military relay carnival at Portland tonight. Salem will compete in four relay events and two special events. Coach Vern Gilmore announced last night that he will take the following team to Portland: Fifty yard dash, John Osland; 60 yard high hurdle, Jim Fowler; shot put relay, Jack Ogleby, Welton Albright, Darryl Hasbrook, Carval Ledington; mile relay, Dean Ellis, Wilbur Curry, Ted Smith, Charles Coleman; distance medley, George Davis, Harold Forrest, Bob Brown, Earl Warren; sprint medley, Howard Damon, Louis May, Marshall Peters, Merrill Ames or Clyde Randall.

SENIORS CHAMPIONS STAYTON, March 28.—The senior boys' basketball team defeated the sophomore team to win the championship of the interclass games by a score of 8-6. The freshmen finished third and the juniors fourth.

WOMEN DO SEWING FOR FARM CHILDREN

WACONDA, March 28.—Mrs. Edward Miller entertained recently at her home in Mission Bottom for members of the Waconda community club. A large number of members were present and four visitors attended. This was an all-day session. Garments were cut for the Children's Farm Home, quilt pieces were cut and sewed, and another group was busy with quilting.

Mrs. Frank Thompson presided at the business session when plans were made to sponsor a benefit card party Saturday night, March 30, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Larkins, in Salem.

At the dinner hour, a beautiful birthday cake centered the table honoring birthdays of Mrs. Fern Runcorn and Mrs. Bert Jones. The next club meeting will be held April 3 at the home of Mrs. Fern Runcorn.

Ray Griffin And Moye to Battle Here

Ray Griffin, 126 pound Salem sinner pure boxer, will fight Roy Moye of Milwaukee high school in the feature event of the Y. M. C. A.'s benefit boxing and wrestling card on the "Y" gym Saturday night.

Proceeds of the event will go to paying transportation of the Salem Y. M. C. A. wrestling team to the Northwest A. A. U. meet at Portland next week and to the Northwest Y. M. C. A. tournament at Tacoma later in the same week.

Griffin has established himself as one of the scrappiest amateurs ever to fight for the local association and throws leather too fast to count his punches. Moye is also a top-notch in the amateur ratings.

Dean Thompson of Salem will meet Earl Knox of Milwaukee in the 112 pound class. Stanley Nelson, 120 pounds, Salem, will fight Neal Meyers, Milwaukee. There will be two other bouts.

Salem wrestlers will be matched with Portland Y. M. C. A. grapplers in the wrestling part of the show. Most of the Portland "Y" wrestlers are also members of the Benson high wrestling team and several of them hold past or present state titles.

BROWNS STILL WINNING FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., March 28.—(AP)—After a slow start, the St. Louis Browns piled up runs in the seventh and eighth innings today to defeat Buffalo of the International league, 7 to 3. It was the American leaguer's tenth victory in 12 spring training games.

APPENDIX TROUBLE NOW STAYTON, March 28.—Miss Agnes Kirsch who contracted scarlet fever while nursing Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gardner, Jr., who have been ill with this disease, now has appendicitis. Miss Kirsch is still at the Gardner home.

INEZ MILLER TALKS TO TOWNSEND GROUP

MONMOUTH, March 28.—The Townsend club of Monmouth met Tuesday night in Legion hall. A capacity crowd attended. Mrs. Inez Miller, Monmouth, presented a concise and informative resume of the Townsend plan's progress to date. She said in part that all great movements have three definite stages: (1) Ridicule; which is probably about over; (2) Opposition, and everything that can be done to oppose the measure is, apparently, being done, or has been done; (3) Compromise, which stage the Townsdenites may be approaching, hence every member of the organization should stand definitely, now, in defense of the plan.

Mrs. Miller quoted Judge Terrell as saying that "we the people of the United States are the government, and what we want we can have." She urged every member to feel no discouragement if senators and representatives are not supporting the plan.

A program of entertainment, appealing to young people, included these numbers: Tap dance in dark costume by Donnie Smith, accompanied at piano by June Craven; piano duet, Susan and a Rutschman and Eida Herr; tap dance by Martha Mae Blair and Edna June Yarnall, accompanied at piano by Miss Rutschman; comedy skit by Virginia Craven and Kenneth Mukey featuring a Townsend phase of humor; old-fashioned music on piano and violin by Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Whitaker, and vocal numbers with ukelele accompaniment by Mr. and Mrs. Bruce DeLapp.

Dust and Snow Found on Trip to Redmond

STAYTON, March 28.—Mrs. Willis Brown and son, Val Deady accompanied by her father, Albert Frank, motored to Redmond the last of the week. While there they encountered the dust storm which hit that section of the country. There was so much snow on the Wapinitia cut-off that they were obliged to make the trip home via The Dalles. Mrs. Brown recently purchased a garage and service station at Redmond and a residence as well. Mrs. Brown expects to join him some time in April.

BOARD MAY CHOOSE TEACHERS MONDAY

SCIO, March 28.—A meeting of the Scio school board has been scheduled for Monday night, April 1. Consideration of teachers' applications will be among the business to be taken up.

J. F. Sanders, who has been critically ill of heart attack, was reported Wednesday in a somewhat improved condition, although still confined to his bed. A brother and a sister from Salem have been with him part of the time, and a daughter from Longview, Wash., is at the home now.

Mr. and Mrs. Boone Brown are said to have recently purchased the George Klings farm of 140 acres, situated near the Tom Small place. The new owners will take possession next fall.

While returning to their farm home a short distance southwest of Scio Monday evening, four of the J. A. Hrudka children were involved in a slight car accident opposite the J. F. Kukacka farm. One of the boys was bruised and scratched but not seriously injured. The car struck a telephone pole anchor and went into the ditch at the curve.

OLD STUDENT VISITS

HUBBARD, March 28.—Captain P. V. Rexford of the traffic department of Multnomah county recently gave a safety talk in the Hubbard gymnasium. His police dog did some tricks, some of them referring to safety. Captain Rexford went to school at Hubbard 20 years ago in the old school building.
