Stock Gain Substantial

QUIET ADVANCE IS GENERAL FOR LIST

NEW YORK, April 4.—(AP)—A quiet, broad advance today gave the securities markets the most substantial gains in more than a week.

Utilities, oils, rails, merchandising issues, coppers, sugars, and miscellaneous industrials crept almost steadily higher in the stock market, which closed with numerous advances of fractions to 2 points.

The Associated Press price average of 60 selected stocks rose .5 to 36.6, but the turnover in the stock exchange was only 553,040 shares, a little above yesterday's.

A few utilities actually came up to new highs for 1935, notably Pacific Lighting up more than a point to 24⅝, and Pacific Gas up a small fraction to 18. Pacific Telephone rose 1¼ to 83, a new top for the year. American Telephone rallied 1¼ to 103½. Fractional gains appeared throughout the utility list.

American Can jumped 1¾ to 116¼, and Union Pacific rose 1½ to 87. Miscellaneous issues up about a point to nearly 5 points included Air Reduction, Amerada, American Chrystal Sugar preferred, Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, Bethlehem Steel, Phelps Dodge, Seabord Oil, Sloss Sheffield, Underwood Elliott, United Corp., preferred, Western Union, and others. Motors moved narrowly.

CORN LEADS GRAIN IN UPWARD FLIGHT

CHICAGO, April 4.—(AP)—Soaring almost 3 cents a bushel today in a new upward flight, corn aroused buying fever throughout the entire list of grains.

Urgent speculative demand for corn accompanied evidence of persistent likelihood of difficulties in obtaining sufficient readily available corn to fulfill future delivery contracts, especially in May, a situation involving possibility of a big squeeze in prices.

Reports were current that numerous domestic rural holders of corn had canceled offerings, and were expecting higher prices. It was also stressed that no shipments of Argentine corn were indicated today as being made to come to the United States.

Corn closed buoyant at nearly the day's top level 2¼-2½ cents above yesterday's finish, May 85⅝-¾, wheat ⅝-1½ up, May 95⅞-96, oats ⅞-2⅛ advanced, and provisions at 10 to 17 cents gain.

Today's closing quotations:
Wheat — May 95⅞-96; July 92½-⅝; September 92¼-⅜.
Corn — May 85⅝-¾; July 78¾-⅞; September 73¾-⅞.
Oats — May 40⅝-¾; July 40⅞-41; September 38½-⅝.

Gardeners' and Ranchers' Mart

PORTLAND, Ore., April 4.—(AP)—Today's early session of the gardeners' and ranchers' market was very quiet, with only a few small changes in produce prices. The supplies were fair, but the sales turnover remained small throughout the session.

The quotations on cauliflower advanced a trifle over those of the previous session. The price on the No. 1 grade went up to $1.35 and the No. 2's were being held at $1.15 until the end of the session. Both of the gdades of cauliflower were of excellent quality, but the demand was light through the period.

Local cabbage has shown a steady lessening in supply over the past week and at yesterday's session was extremely short. A slight increase in the number of buyers sent the price to a range of $5 for the poorer grade and $6 for the better qualities.

Rutabagas were staging a comeback with a small increase in both the quality and the supply. During the earlier part of the session, the demand was fairly brisk, and rutabagas were generally quoted at $3 per hundred.

Rhubarb continued the downward swing that it started several days ago. With a noticeably better amount being offered, the price fell to 85 and 90 cents per dozen for the salable qualities.

Spring radishes also showed a downward trend. The supplies that were on the market were bigger and of much better quality than they have been since the new spring radishes appeared, but the price fell off a few cents to a general quotation of 60 cents per dozen bunches.

Ohio and Similar Wools in Demand

BOSTON, April 4.—(AP)— (U. S. Dept. Agr.)—A few Ohio and similar fleece wools received some demand. Fine Ohio Delaine brought 26-27 cents in the grease. Prices on strictly combing 48s, 50s, 1-4 blood Ohio wool were mostly 23-23½ cents. Sizable quantities of Texas wool were moving. Good average twelve months wools were bringing 60-63 cents scoured basis, while eight months Texas lines were selling at 55-58 cents.

TOP SCORE BUTTER HALF CENT HIGHER

PORTLAND, Ore., April 4.—(AP)—Butter offerings at the produce exchange today were light and extras sold ½ cent higher at 28 cents. Other grades were unchanged.

Butterfat advanced one cent to 30 cents. Eggs were firm and unchanged.

Excellent demand for top grade eggs continued here and the market was fully steady. Undergrades have been in oversupply but the breakers were active and absorbing a considerable portion of the supply.

Cheese market was about steady at unchanged prices.

Most classes of poultry were about steady with prices generally unchanged.

Local Brussels sprouts were virtually absent from the market. Demand continued here but must be filled mostly from the outside.

Rhubarb market continued firm especially on choice local which was quotable at $1.40 on 15-lb. boxes. Some Washington stocks have been received and are quoted to $1.80 for extra fancy.

Receipts of lettuce have been ample for the trade and the market was inclined to be a shade weaker but quotable to $3.75 on 6's.

Retail demand for cauliflower has been slow and the market was slightly weaker. The trade quoted No. 1 down to around $1.15.

Another bad turn of the weather has delayed work on the produce farms in Oregon, further setting back dates when local products will supplant those from the south in an already late season.
