

LIVING CONFERENCE SCHEDULED APRIL 9

"Recent economic conditions have made careful planning of the family food supply a necessity in many homes," says Miss Lucy A. Case, who will appear on the program for the Marion county conference on family living, an all-day program starting at 9:45 a. m. April 9, at the Salem Woman's club. Miss Case will speak on

"Modernizing the Home Vegetable Garden" and will give suggestions from recent research on the value of various garden products, and will discuss the amount of each to plant, can and store for a year-round supply.

"These home grown vegetable products," says Miss Case, "are important not only as a measure of economy in feeding the family, but are being demonstrated each year to be indispensable essentials for maintenance of health, vigor and extension of length of life." Many exhibits will add great interest to the day, and it is expected that a large attendance will be attracted to the conference in this county. Similar conferences are being held in 24 other counties of the state. Mrs. Coble de Lespinaze of Hubbard will preside at the morning session, Mrs. Tom Bump of Brooks at the luncheon program, and Mrs. W. R. Dallas of Salem will preside at the afternoon session.

Ray's Stock Entering Anti-FDR Rivalry

SCIO, April 4.—The anti-depression hen on the Ross Ray farm near Scio which recently produced a 4-ounce egg has been welcomed by a 14-months Jersey heifer on the same farm which gave birth to a calf that is well and frisky, like its mother.

METHODISTS ELECT LAYMAN DELEGATES

MOLALLA, April 4.—Sibyl Tucker, director of religious education for the Portland district, and Dr. J. C. Harrison, superintendent of the district, both of Portland, will be guest speakers at the Methodist church here Sunday. Miss Tucker will speak at the morning church hour, and Dr. Harrison will conduct the annual business meeting of the church at 12:15 p. m. Miss Tucker will also speak at Clark's at 9:45 a. m. and at Carus at 8 p. m. Mrs. Ethel Campton, superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school, has been elected delegate to represent the local church at the Oregon Conference of the Methodist church in Salem in June. Phillip Steinger was elected alternate delegate.

At the Methodist church the work of laying a new floor in the basement is almost completed. The kitchen has also been enlarged and remodeled. Labor and much of the material for the work were donated.
