Philharmonic is in Final Concert Tonight

WITH Miss Frances Brockman of Eugene as featured guest soloist and Jacques Gershakovitch as conductor, the Salem Philharmonic orchestra will conclude this year's series of concerts tonight at the armory, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Brockman will play the beautiful Bruch concerto for violin and orchestra in three movements. The final number by the orchestra, "Caucasian Sketches" by Ippolitoff-Ivanoff, features a quaint duet between the viola and English horn, with Charles Nadvorak and Vernon Wiscarson carrying the solo parts.

Following is the program:
 Schubert—Overture
 "Rosamunde"
 Bruch—Concerto for violin and orchestra
 Strauss—Blue Danube Waltz
 Ippolitoff-Ivanoff
 "Caucasian Sketches"
 "In the Village"
 Larghetto-Allegretto-Grazioso
 "Procession of the Sardar"
 Allegro Moderato

Birth Party Given for Young Folk

Wednesday afternoon Miss Barbara Brundige, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Brundige, celebrated her ninth birthday with a party for some of her young friends at her home on Brya avenue.

Games and refreshments with an Easter motif were enjoyed. A large Easter basket centered the table. Miss Brundige received many beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Brundige was assisted by Mrs. Ed Satter and Miss LaVon Brundige.

Those present were Miss Jean Myers, Miss Janice Myers, Miss Carolyn Bates, Miss Delphine Riney, Miss Betty Jean Stobb, Miss Gertrude Borrego, Miss Donna Satter, Dickie Eckley, Emerson Hopes, Darrel Satter and Bobbie Brundige.

Sewing Club Holds Meeting

The V. F. W. auxiliary sewing club met with Miss Elsie Lewis Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Baker. Work was done on quilts and dresser scarfs.

A late luncheon was served to 20. The club meets again with Mrs. Margaret Lewis for a dessert luncheon April 11.

The auxiliary will sponsor a series of four afternoon and evening bridge and 500 parties, the first to be given next Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edith Mudd, 275 Hood street. Other hostesses will be announced later.

Prizes will be awarded at each party and a grand prize at the conclusion of the series. Mrs. Clara Reeves is in charge assisted by Mrs. Bell Nadon. The public is invited to the benefits.

Winning Beauties at Tourney

Here are the four finalists in the beauty contest held in connection with the national A. A. girl's basketball tournament at Wichita, Kas. Billie Ruth Turnbull, Choctaw Indian maid, at the top, was the winner, and the three other finalists, left to right, were Elizabeth Wilde, Kansas City, Kas.; Hazel Boen, Shreveport, La.; and Blanch Howe, Topeka, Kas.

Salem Matrons Attend Flax Luncheon

A number of prominent club women from Salem will attend the flax rally luncheon Saturday afternoon to be held at the Portland hotel under the joint auspices of the Portland chamber of commerce and the State Federation of Women's clubs. The luncheon is the culmination of Oregon's flax week.

Mrs. Charles H. Martin and wives of past governors of Oregon will be guests of honor in recognition of the pioneer work in Oregon flax development performed by Mrs. Julia Lord, wife of Governor Lord, who, in 1896, organized a committee for promotion of Oregon flax.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop of Salem, Mrs. A. E. Rockey and Mrs. J. B. Montgomery of Portland, charter members of the group, will be introduced. Mrs. Bishop will give a short history of the Oregon Women's Flax Fiber association which was incorporated in the early '90's.

Others going up from Salem besides Mrs. Bishop are Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead, Mrs. Clifton Mudd and Mrs. Ida Babcock.

Portland Marriage of Interest Here

News of the approaching marriage of Miss Ursula Louise Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Schneider to Mr. Donald Secord McAfee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McAfee was announced last week at the Portland home of the bride-elect during a dessert-luncheon.

The ceremony will be solemnized at half past 8 o'clock the evening of June 1st at St. Michaels and All Angels Episcopal church, the Reverend Richard Flags Ayres officiating. Miss Schneider is the granddaughter of Mrs. Hattie B. Cameron, prominent Salem matron who is an active member of several women's organizations in Salem.

 Anne Adams
 By ANNE ADAMS
 That little girl of yours has very definite ideas about "looking pretty!" That's why Anne Adams puts a cool perky little flared ruffle over her shoulder in place of a sleeve—and adds a few rows of dainty shirring to the front and back panel! But mother has her own ideas about simplicity and neatness! And that's why Anne Adams designed such an easy-to-make model and included bloomers top. A dainty printed lawn or dimity with six little colored pearl buttons on the shoulders would be adorable! If it's for her Sunday best, use a pastel crepe de chine or organdy.

Pattern 2104 is available in sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6 takes 2 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (color preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plain name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Get the Anne Adams Spring Pattern Book! Make for yourself the clothes that are smart, practical and becoming. Choose from the 40 pages of this beautifully illustrated book which includes also exclusive fashions for tots and children, especially designed dresses for the mature figure. Inquiries and orders of other interesting features. Each garment illustrated is easy to make with an Anne Adams pattern. Send for your copy today! Price of book 15 cents. Dues and pattern together, 25 cents. Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to. Orders are filled within four days from the time received by The Statesman.
