Two Weddings on Social Slate Tonight

TWO church weddings will take place tonight, uniting prominent couples of the younger continent. Miss Helen Johnson will become the bride of Neal Carter of Monmouth in the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. Grover C. Birchett will officiate. A reception will follow at the home of the bride's parents after which the newlyweds will depart for a short trip. They will make their home in Monmouth.

Miss Evelyn Rutherford and Melvin G. Propp will be married tonight at 8:45 o'clock in the Knight Memorial church.

Miss Lola Schulz will be maid of honor and bridesmaids will be Miss Loretta Kaler, Miss Lucile Rolow, Miss Colene Mennis and Miss Evelyn Propp. Tim White is serving as best man.

Both bride-elects have been extensively feted since the announcements of their betrothals. Wednesday night Miss Lucile Rolow was hostess for a miscellaneous shower honoring Miss Rutherford. Bridge occupied the evening. Mrs. J. F. Rolow assisted her daughter at the supper hour.

Those invited were Miss Rutherford, Miss Colene Mennis, Miss Gladys Hanson, Miss Daisy Varley, Miss Dorothy Borrego, Miss Bea Kelson, Miss Alice Delefs, Miss Thelma Strand, Miss Mildred Clark, Miss Esther Cook, Miss Sue Shelley, Mrs. Don Woodry, Mrs. Floyd McCarroll, Mrs. Robert Kitchen, Mrs. Charles L. Taylor, Mrs. Warren Kenney, Mrs. Bill Walp, Mrs. Rollin Graber, Mrs. Kenneth Barker and Mrs. Alvin Pruitt.

Miss Mayes to Play Recital Tonight

Music circles will want to attend the benefit recital to be given tonight at the Roberts studio by Miss Bethel Mayes, pianist of Portland. The concert begins at 8:30 p. m.

Miss Mayes was the state and district winner of the recent Federated Music clubs' contests held in Portland and will go shortly to Philadelphia to engage in national competition. She has many friends at Willamette university and in church circles of the city.

In the Valley Social Realm

Zena. — The Spring Valley Home Missionary society was entertained with a dessert luncheon Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. M. Purvine in Salem, with Mrs. V. A. Stratton and Mrs. L. Frank Matthews as assistant hostesses. Mrs. S. D. Crawford assisted in serving.

Mrs. Frank Matthews reported that the sewing for the Albertina Kerr Nursery was completed. Other reports were by Mrs. Charles McCarter and Mrs. W. D. Henry. Mrs. McCarter reported the Brush College Helpers would like to change their election date from May to October, and the missionary society voted to do the same.

Miss Grace Allen, primary teacher at the Highland grade, gave an interesting talk, "Reminiscences from Abroad." Miss Allen went around the world in 101 days last summer and while on shipboard with her group visited the Chinese kitchen where two entirely different types of meals have to be prepared for two classes of Chinese. Miss Allen said that throughout the trip she had a feeling of pity for suffering humanity, as beggars were plentiful in all places visited except Italy, where they were not in evidence. In Japan she saw a long hair rope which weighed 40 tons and was made from hair donated by Japanese women to host beams for the temple.

Woodburn. — The Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Hall Wednesday afternoon, April 3. The county officers were guests of the club. Those attending were Mrs. A. L. Strickland of Aurora, Mrs. Nova McKenzie of Hubbard and Mrs. C. W. Stray. A national music week, May 5 to 12, committee was chosen which consists of Miss Mary Scollard, Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo and Mrs. Howard Miller. Mrs. Walter Miller and Mrs. Sam Yoder were voted into the club. These delegates were elected to attend the county convention at Willard April 26: Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. B. W. Dunn, Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo, Mrs. E. T. Sims, and Mrs. F. W. Settlemier. Alternates are Mrs. A. E. Austin, Mrs. Arista Nendel, Mrs. Paul Pemberton, Mrs. Ethel K. Riley and Mrs. George C. Beechler.

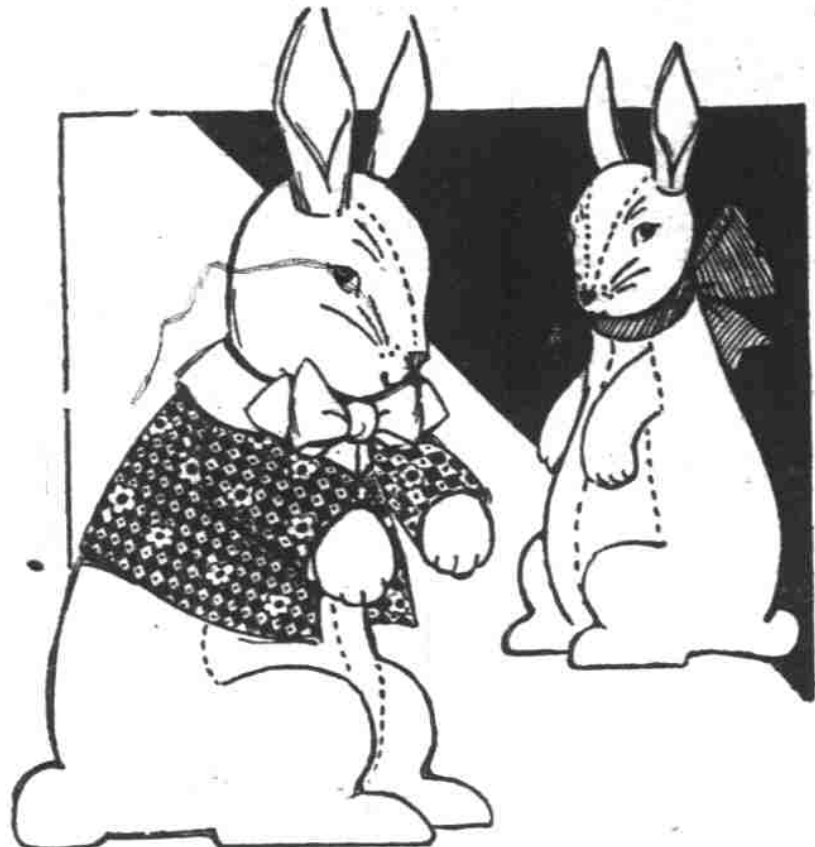

A program in charge of Mrs. W. J. Wilson consisted of a vocal selection by Mrs. Riley, accompanied by Miss Wilma Morrison after which Mrs. Wilson introduced Dr. Kate W. Jackson, dean of girls of Oregon State college, who spoke on "Why We Should Educate Our Girls." Hostesses were Mrs. J. J. Hall, Mrs. Paul Mills, Mrs. Dean Ray and Miss Emily Hindman.

Lincoln. — D. R. Ruble was given a delightful surprise when a group of relatives, whom Mrs. Ruble had invited, gathered at their home for a dinner honoring his birthday anniversary Sunday. Dinner was served to the honor guest and Mr. and Mrs. Joshua W. Ruble and daughter Tessie, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble and daughter Laura Emily, all of Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. John Ruble, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. William Viet and daughter Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ruble, Portland; Theodore Zosel, Astoria; Mrs. D. R. Ruble and Russell Ruble.

Will Delight Some Youngster

BUNNY

Easter is just around the corner! Prepare for it in time by starting to make this delightful rabbit now. He is a very cute, cuddly toy; his long ears will intrigue the youngsters. He is equally fetching with or without the jacket which is made to be removable. And what is more fascinating to a tot than to dress and undress toys? You can make the bunny in a plain or figured material and let the jacket be of contrasting material. He is about 10 inches high when finished. Pattern 576 comes to you with the pattern of the bunny and the jacket, and full directions and yardages for making them. Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to The Statesman.

Castilian Will Be Scene of Ball Monday

THE Monday Night club will entertain at Castilian hall Monday night with a gay formal dance. Several smart affairs are being arranged before and after the ball.

A no-host dinner is planned at the J. E. Godfrey residence. Covers will be laid for Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Plasecke, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Glaser, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fulham, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crider and Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Starbuck, the last three couples of Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Butte.

Miss Smith Appears in Magazine

National distinction has come to one of Salem's prominent professional women. She is Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith, assistant attorney-general for the state of Oregon.

An article written by Miss Smith entitled "What Price Equality?" appears in the April issue of the National Altruist, official publication of the National Association of Altruist clubs. Miss Smith is a member of the Salem branch. A short biographical sketch and picture accompany the article.

Oregon's first and only woman assistant attorney-general received her education in Iowa, Kansas and Oregon and was graduated from the College of Law at Willamette university and admitted to the bar in Oregon. She took over her high position in 1921.

Her many club activities include affiliation with Altruist, American Bar Association, A. A. U. W., P. E. O., Phi Delta Delta, B. and P. W. club, Salem Arts League and the Modern Writers' club.

Independence. — The Wednesday Bridge club members were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. Charboneau April 3. High score was won by Mrs. S. B. Walker. The next and last meeting of the club for the year will be April 17 at the home of Mrs. Paul Robinson.

500 Party Gay Event of Week

The Entree Nous club was entertained at the clubhouse Wednesday night with an evening of 500. High scores went to Mrs. Paul Thommlitz, Mrs. H. A. Smart, H. C. Hummel and W. T. Krueger.

Liberty. — The Liberty Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Lon Shuttleworth Thursday afternoon. Business in connection with the Girl Scout troop recently formed was transacted. Delegates to the county federation to be held at Willard April 26 were appointed: Mrs. Ed Jory, Mrs. S. B. Davidson, Mrs. Vera Shatuck and Mrs. Victor Ballantyne. The president, Mrs. John Daesh, will also attend.

The nominating committee for the May election is Mrs. W. J. Fair, Mrs. Harold Lane and Mrs. W. Westenhause.

The study program consisted of a book review on "Ramona" by Helen Hunt Jackson, given by Mrs. J. P. Bucureanu, Mrs. R. E. Miller from the Bethel Dorcas society, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Schulist and Mrs. O. E. Brooks.

West Stayton. — The Birthday club held its meeting in the McClellan hall Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ida Clark and Mrs. Cora Sills as joint hostesses. Mrs. Mabel Royse won first prize in the contest.

Oriental Dinner Held at Scott Home

The oriental atmosphere of the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Vinton Scott added to the charm of a Chinese dinner given by the Young Business Women of the First Evangelical church Wednesday night. Small tables placed about the spacious living room were covered with Chinese linen and laid with Chinese dishes and chopsticks.

Adding to the pleasure of the evening were a violin duet by Vernon and Vinton Scott, and a clever pantomime by Miss Esther Hillmer and Miss Elva Ault depicting an oriental love affair. Mrs. Scott presented a lovely bit of Chinese embroidery to Miss Ruth Stover for modeling the best Chinese child.

The evening closed with a talk on Chinese customs by Dr. Scott. Members of the class and their guests who were present were Dr. and Mrs. Scott, Dr. E. W. Pettit, Mrs. Ethel Poling Phelps, Mrs. Viola Aaserude, Miss Esther Anderson, Miss Elva Ault, Miss Helen Austin, Mrs. Helen Buselle, Miss Clarice Buselle, Miss Maurine Carmichael, Miss Florence Cauthorn, Miss Gertrude Cheney, Miss Susanne Esau, Miss Vurty Grant, Miss Effie Grimes.
