

GUEST NIGHT IS GREAT SUCCESS

Improvement Club at Gates Ends Season Activity at Gala Affair

GATES, April 5.—Guest night for the Improvement Club was a decided success as to numbers present and from the standpoint of entertainment. This affair, a suitable ending to a busy club year, was given at the club room Wednesday night with members of the Lyon's Women's club and husbands, Mill City senior and junior clubs and husbands as guests as well as local club members with husbands and friends. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Art Kirkham of Portland, Mrs. A. L. Stricklin of Aurora and Mrs. Neva McKenzie of Hubbard.

Art Kirkham of radio station KOIN was the speaker of the evening and gave an interesting address on "The Inside of Radio," showing the humorous as well as heart-breaking side of the mike. He stressed the fact that the radio programs are arranged with serious effort to please all types of listeners.

Mrs. A. L. Stricklin, president of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs, gave a short talk on plans and program for the county meeting soon at Willard. Other program numbers were: vocal solo, Miss Gwen Johnson with Miss Elsie Rose at the piano; musical reading, Miss Rose, with Miss Margery O'Dell at the piano; violin solo, Mrs. Russell Lake, with Mrs. Albert Milsap at the piano. The local club presented Mr. Kirkham with a large cake.

About 100 guests partook of the refreshments served at the large candle lighted tables where Mrs. Gerald Heath, Mrs. Wes Houghton, Mrs. C. D. Johnson and Mrs. A. D. Scott presided at the coffee urns. Others serving were Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Ferd Jones, Mrs. Ruby Winters, Mrs. W. E. Biever, Mrs. Arnold Peterson and several assistants. Roc decorations consisted of bowls of gay daffodils and ferns and low bowls of greenery. Mrs. Lincoln Hennes had charge of decorations.

Basketball Teams at Dayton High Honored

DAYTON, April 5.—Twenty Dayton union high school students who have been members of the boys' and girls' basketball teams enjoyed a delightful party at the Dayton Women's Civic clubroom Wednesday night. Games were played and refreshments served.

CLAIM LOST DOG

ZENA, April 5.—Many will be interested to know that Wednesday, the day an item in the Zena news told of a lost Alfrede which had been at Zena all winter, a man and his wife came from Independence and claimed the dog, "Pal," who had disappeared from their home last summer.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, April 5.—Three of the members including Mayor Newgent were absent from the regular monthly meeting of the city council held Monday in the city hall. Fred Gibson presided and William L. LaDue reported that there was a 900-foot ditch for drainage purposes fit for SERA work, which was referred to the relief committee; and that 100 yards of soil from a basement was available free to the city. It will be distributed over the dumped trash at Sixth and Gerth.

A communication from county officials pertaining to collection of dog license fees explained a misunderstanding and it was voted that the company take charge of fee collections entirely. A complaint was heard in regard to the erection of too many shacks within the city and a motion prevailed that all building permits be referred to the city engineer or the council. It was voted to purchase two lots on the river front that are to be sold for taxes, the city attorney to investigate and report.

Fred Kuhn is making a business and pleasure trip this week to Bigleton, Wn.

Wednesday evening dinner guests at a farewell party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn L. Davenport were the R. E. Shalers and the Orril Davenport, relatives that are going away from this area.

The Ladies Aid society gathered at the home of Mrs. J. I. Miller Wednesday afternoon for the monthly business meeting. The nominating committee, Mrs. Dorel T. Bradford, W. D. Phillips and Phil Hathaway, will report for the coming annual election of officers to be held soon. All women are invited to attend the Aid district rally to be held in Dallas, April 25. Mrs. Davenport will open her home to the group for the next business meeting. In a fortnight, a silver tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Kimball K. Clark with hostesses including Mesdames Eugene Krebs, Dorel T. Bradford, W. D. Phillips, C. A. Guderian, J. B. Bedford, Warren B. Baker and K. K. Clark.

At the meeting of the Townsend club held Monday it was voted to send for a charter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Harry Wiedmaier moved this week into Salem to make their home in South Salem. Mr. Wiedmaier has been leader of the West Salem Boy Scouts for the past two years and a new leader will have to be selected for the group. Recent guests of Miss Daisy Hunt were two brothers, W. W. Hunt and Henry Clay Hunt and her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George May all of Dayton. They came to attend the funeral of their father, Joseph Taylor Hunt, 83, which was held Sunday. Born in Tennessee Mr. Hunt at seven years and in 1851 moved to Missouri, then after the Civil war moved to Illinois where he learned the blacksmith trade, working for three years for his board, clothes and $100.00. He was married to Mary Johnson and came to Oregon in 1875 and to them were born Daisy and Walter Hunt, and in 1881 the wife died. In 1883 he was married to Miss Josephine Johnson of Zena and to this union was born a son, Lloyd, now residing in Idaho. He worked at his trade, blacksmithing until his health failed, when he went onto a farm and lived for a number of years. His second wife died in 1905 he was married to Mrs. Rebecca Skinner and they resided in West Salem for many years, taking active interest parts in civic affairs.

Cast is Selected for Junior-Senior Play at Jefferson

JEFFERSON, April 5.—The junior-senior play cast for "Silas Smidge From Turnip Ridge," has been chosen, to include: Lucille Barnes, Geraldine Jones, Lee Wright, Frances Weddie, Doris Roland, Bob Gulvin, Maurice Mangis, Calista Pratt, Della Stephenson, Leonard Marcum, Bob Boggs, Emerson McClain, Georgia Gilmour. The play will be given May 3, and is being directed by Miss McClimmon.

The Christian church sponsored a program tonight at the Masonic hall. Maude Pratt Lewis of the staff of KOAC will present "Ann of Green Gables." Mrs. Lewis is a talented reader and her presentation of this popular story has received much favorable comment.

A group from the local Christian church will furnish entertainment at the meeting of the Santiam Central Farmers' Union at the Riverview schoolhouse on Tuesday evening, April 8. They will present a play, "Mud and Vapor Baths."

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE IS BROUGHT TO END

AUMSVILLE, April 5.—The Christian Sunday school which has been sponsoring a membership campaign, closed its contest Sunday, and preparations are now under way for a program and dinner to be given at the church Easter Sunday in honor of the winning side.

Mrs. A. J. Mountain who has been visiting at the home of her son near Eugene for the past three weeks, returned to her home here Wednesday.

Virginia Garbe is absent from high school on account of an attack of chicken pox.

Wednesday afternoon, April 10, is the date set for the next meeting of the study club, to be held at the school house. A graduate nurse's talk on what to do in emergencies, in sickness, will be given by Mrs. John Smith. All women are invited.

County Nurse Will Speak at Parents, Teachers Session

FALLS CITY, April 5.—The April meeting of the Parent Teachers' association will be held Monday night in the high school auditorium at 7:30 o'clock. A program of interest to all will be given with a talk by the county health nurse, Miss Margaret Gillis, as a special feature.

Miss Thelma Lewis and Wilbur Howell were united in marriage by Rev. Bertha Peterson at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Noble. The young folks were graduated from the local high school a few years ago.

Entente Envoy

Nicholas Titulescu

Traveling as president and official spokesman for Little Entente nations, Nicholas Titulescu, foreign minister of Roumania, is making a tour of the capitals of Europe, interpreted as move to ring Germany with nations supporting France.

SPECIAL PROGRAM SLATED AT PRINGLE

PRINGLE, April 4.—A community program will be held at the Pringle schoolhouse Sunday, starting at 10 a. m., when Leonard Harms, former student of the Los Angeles Bible institute, will give an illustrated address. Group singing will be led by Mrs. Harms of Salem.

Music will be furnished by the Salem gospel jubilee quartet, Henry Quiring, Harry Beier, Abe Doerkson and Levi Doerkson, and other special numbers are planned. The quartet has been on the air.

Missionary J. J. Ray of the American Sunday school union is visiting the community this week and will be present Sunday.

George Spicer, 88, is Laid to Rest at Shelburn Cemetery

NORTH SANTIAM, April 5.—George Spicer, 88, at one time a resident here, died Sunday at the home of his son, Walter, in Willamina. Death was due to pneumonia. He was a friend of all who knew him and his passing was a shock to his many friends and relatives.

Mr. Spicer spent 30 years of his life on a farm here, but moved to Willamina eight years ago where Mrs. Spicer passed away about four years ago. He is survived by four children, Georgia and Walter of Willamina, Mrs. Laura Ra Sell, Silverton, and Ralph, of West Stayton.

31 Boys and Girls In Cooking Club do Work 100 Per Cent

GATES, April 5.—The first and second division of the Mix-up-up 4-H cooking clubs recently completed the project 100 per cent which is considered excellent for a club with so large a membership as 31 boys and girls. Lloyd Girod, club leader, states that an Achievement day will be held before long with exhibits and other interesting features in connection and parents and friends as guests. Winnifred Brown is president of the club and Neva Donnell, secretary.

Silverton Cannery May Reopen, Rumor

SILVERTON, April 5.—Rumors are that the Silverton Food Products company will reopen in time for the spring pack of vegetables and fruits at Silverton. It is said that the cannery will open as a private concern. For years it was run cooperatively.

Quigley, Shilling Finish Wood Deal with John Ransom

SHELBURN, April 5.—Lester Quigley and Ralph Shilling have finished their wood contract with John Ransom. The wood was cut on the Oliver Beard farm, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Miller.

Lloyd Wall, a student at Cole school, sustained a fractured right ankle a few days ago. Charles A. Bates has rented his farm to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Studnick. Mrs. Studnick has the Munkers school for next year. The farm is known as the old Lloyd Tindall farm.

POLLY AND HER PALS

French Leave

By CLIFF STERRETT

THIS CONCLUDES THE DAILY FRENCH LESSON, TUNE IN AT THE SAME TIME TOMORROW.

By WALT DISNEY

MICKY MOUSE

"Should Auld Acquaintance Be Forgot?"

By SEGAR

PEG-LEG PETE!

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

Now Showing—"Out of Noah's Ark"

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

The Oceana Role

By BRANDON WALSH

TOOTS AND CASPER

Fair Weather Friends

By JIMMY MURPHY

FOOY!

By JIMMY MURPHY

FOOY!

By JIMMY MURPHY

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14					15				16
17					18				19
20				21	22				23
24				25	26				27
28				29	30				31	32	33
34	35	36							37			38
39					40				41	42
43				44	45				46
47				48	49				50	51	52	53
54	55	56	57	58	59				60	61	62	63
64					65				66	67	68	69
70					71				72

- HORIZONTAL
- 1—slices
  - 2—the dill
  - 3—musical instrument
  - 4—collar
  - 5—turned down and falling over the shoulders
  - 6—not one
  - 7—level
  - 8—titled land
  - 9—of some quality
  - 10—cell
  - 11—canare
  - 12—twelve
  - 13—dozen
  - 14—tears
  - 15—ascend
  - 16—three
  - 17—native metal
  - 18—wild ox
  - 19—counselors
  - 20—gazed
  - 21—dine
  - 22—whetstone
  - 23—contend
  - 24—parts of the body
  - 25—galle of Tibet
  - 26—a fruit
  - 27—handicraft
  - 28—snare
  - 29—stripped off the skin
  - 30—buildings for beasts
  - 31—system of signals
  - 32—permit
- VERTICAL
- 1—concede
  - 2—more uncommon
  - 3—diminish
  - 4—unfavorable
  - 5—male of the deer
  - 6—variety of cat
  - 7—a loop
  - 8—son of Seth
  - 9—spread hay
  - 10—return
  - 11—beating chamber
  - 12—care for
  - 13—finishes through
  - 14—crucifix
  - 15—follow suit
  - 16—length—measure
  - 17—inclose
  - 18—cuddles up
  - 19—extinct bird
  - 20—egg-shaped
  - 21—mature
  - 22—propagative portion of a plant
  - 23—sheep of northern India (pl.)
  - 24—sour
  - 25—plaster
  - 26—jump
  - 27—seriform fluid
  - 28—ridge of group rocks
  - 29—to soak flax
  - 30—minute opening
  - 31—mingles
  - 32—cause to lean
  - 33—adible seaweed
  - 34—bequeath
  - 35—variety of iris
  - 36—green herbage
  - 37—disembark
  - 38—sloth
  - 39—ripped
  - 40—fruit of the pine
  - 41—in blasting, to plug a drilled hole with sand
  - 42—sense
  - 43—blemish
- Herewith is the solution to yesterday's puzzle.
- SPARE DARE HARE
MORAR ANAIALIVE
KARAV NITRIGAL
MARKSILLICE
ROVERHASAGAIN
OVLREHASAGAIN
WANDRIPCOINED
OFTHADDICESTIRA
SILVADRETTICLASSI
SILVADRETTICLASSI
SILVADRETTICLASSI