Knight Memorial to be Scene of Marriage On Saturday

MISS EVELYN RUTHERFORD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Rutherford, was a charming bride last night when she became the wife of Melvin G. Propp, son of Mrs. L. M. Propp, at the Knight Memorial church, 8:45 o'clock.

Rev. H. C. Stover read the double ring service before an altar banked with calla lilies, palms and fern. Mr. Rutherford gave his daughter in marriage. Kenneth Abbott sang "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning", accompanied by Donald Allison, who also played the wedding marches. There were 150 guests. The bride wore a white satin gown with a train, long sleeves and three-quarter length veil fitted to her head with a cap effect and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of pink rosebuds and lilies-of-the-valley.

Many Attendants
Miss Lola Schulz was maid of honor. She wore pink net made with a short jacket and full skirt. Bridesmaids were Miss Loretta Kaler, Miss Lucile Rolow, Miss Colene Mennis, and Miss Evelyn Propp. All wore taffeta frocks trimmed with ruffles running from the waist to the hem. Miss Kaler was in yellow, Miss Rolow in pink, Miss Mennis in green and Miss Propp in blue. All the attendants carried bouquets of pastel sweet peas and snapdragons.

Little Darline Dixon and Ramona Rice were flower girls. Their bouquets were embellished with frills and were of white and pink respectively. They carried baskets of rose petals.

Tim White served as best man for Mr. Propp and ushers were Donald Dixon, John Propp, Doyle Carter and George Jackson.

Seventy invited to the reception which followed in the church parlors. Miss Mary Burgess greeted guests at the door. Daffodils were in profusion about the rooms and on the serving table. Mrs. Donald Dixon cut the cake and Mrs. George Schulz the loaves.

Assisting with the serving were Miss Jeanette Wilson, Miss Evangelina Johns and Miss June Johns. Mrs. A. R. O'Connell was in charge of the dining room.

For traveling Mrs. Propp selected a blue crepe dress with grey accessories. After a short trip north, the couple will reside at 1599 State street. Both young people attended local schools and are well known to the younger contingent.

Eteri Class Gathers for Dinner

Seventy-six members and guests of the Eteri class of the First Baptist church gathered at the Argo hotel Friday night for the third annual Easter banquet.

Four tables were laid with centerpieces of daffodils and fern flanked by tall white and yellow tapers. Favors were small yellow Easter baskets. Carl Ramseyer presided as toastmaster.

V. L. Walser appeared in a violin solo. Miss Vera Patton, the class quartet, Mrs. Marvin Roth and little Doris Walser sang. Marvin Roth gave the scripture reading. Mrs. Marion Curry presented a reading and Rev. Eritton Ross was the principal speaker.

Mrs. Schmidt Will Give Dinner

MISS DOROTHY BELL and Miss Maxine Glover are two of the most popular bride-elects in the city and entertaining continues to center about them.

April 15, Mrs. O. E. Schmidt will preside at a beautifully arranged dinner party complimenting Miss Bell and Miss Glover. Covers will be placed for 14.

Next Saturday Mrs. Carl Butte will be hostess for a crystal shower feting Miss Glover and last Wednesday Mrs. William M. Hamilton invited a group in for a bridge and a miscellaneous shower in honor of the fiancée of William Hammond.

High scores for the evening went to Mrs. Graham Sharkey and Mrs. Kate G. Bell. Mrs. Hamilton was assisted by Mrs. Carl Butte at the supper hour. A yellow and white motif was used.

National President on Way to Oregon

Word has just been received that the national president of the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. Albin C. Carlson (Tess Carlson) will pay her official visit to Oregon April 15 and 16.

Every member of the American Legion auxiliary in Oregon is invited to participate in Oregon's reception for Mrs. Carlson. She will visit Oregon hospitals at Roseburg and Portland. Auxiliary members are also invited to visit the Roseburg and Portland hospitals and the Northwest Soldiers' home at Roseburg. She will be in Roseburg Monday, April 15.

The program in Portland Tuesday, April 16, includes a visit to the hospital at 10:30 a. m., a 12 o'clock luncheon at the Town club, and a 6 p. m. dinner at the Multnomah hotel. Mrs. Charles Gunn, department president for Oregon, will preside at both luncheon and dinner.

All Legionnaires are invited to attend the dinner at the Multnomah hotel. If possible, an afternoon reception will be held at which time everyone can meet Mrs. Carlson personally. Announcement of reception will be made at the luncheon. Mrs. Carlson will speak at both the luncheon and dinner. Reservations are to be made with the local unit president, Mrs. Glenn Porter, by Friday, April 12. Call 5576.

Helen Johnson Bride Of Neal Carter at Church Wedding

IN the fireplace room of the First Presbyterian church at 8:30 o'clock last night, Miss Helen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Johnson, became the bride of Neal Carter of Monmouth, son of Mrs. J. F. Carter of Salem. Vows were exchanged before an improvised altar of palms and calla lilies flanked by tall white candles in candelabra.

Rev. Grover C. Birtch officiated. Miss Helen Stutz played the wedding marches with obligato passages by Miss Hortense Taylor, violinist. Miss Mildred Mulkey sang "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony.

Bride in White
The bride was attired in white moire fashioned with a short train, high collar at back and V-neck in front and long shirred sleeves. Her veil was waist-length and she carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Margaret Johnson attended her sister as maid of honor. Her frock was of blue organdie and she wore a matching picture hat. Her bouquet was made up of roses and sweet peas. Bruce McIntosh of Dallas was best man for Mr. Carter and ushers were Wallace George and Ralph Eyrre.

Reception followed at the Johnson residence. The serving table was lovely with a lace cloth and centered with the tiered wedding cake guarded by tall white tapers. Daffodils and greenery added the floral touch.

Mrs. E. J. Ross and Mrs. W. A. Burns poured and assisting with the serving were Miss Josephine Cornoyer, Miss Virginia Wassam, Miss Nellie Carter, Miss Helen Putnam, Miss Cathryn Eaton and Miss Lucy Klein.

Live at Monmouth
For going away Mrs. Carter chose a navy blue and white suit with blue accessories. After a short trip north, the couple will reside at Monmouth where Mr. Carter is in business.

Both young people attended Willamette university where Mr. Carter was affiliated with Sigma Tau fraternity.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sergeant, Mrs. C. H. and Mrs. E. J. Nix of Tacoma, and Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Lane and family from Castle Rock, Wash.

Swimming Party is Held at Y

Members of the young set of the Rosedale Friends church enjoyed a jolly swimming party at the "Y" pool last week. Marshmallows were toasted in the den, after which the following entered the pool:

Miss Esther Cammack, Miss Helen Beckley, Miss Ena Pearson, Miss Velleda Trick, Miss Hulda Beckley, Robert Ladd, Glenn Pearson, Harold Thurman, Dewey Thurman, Virgil Trick, Chester Tucker, Lloyd Brown, Arthur Bing, Milton Bing, Wilbur Pearson and Don Duffield.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo C. Ross were patrons for the affair.
