Rev. George H. Swift, rector of St. Paul's church, was elected president of the senior high school parent-teachers association at the annual meeting last night. Other new officers are: Vice-president, Cain Paroled to annual meeting last night. Other C. A. Lee; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Selander; and treasurer, F. O.

Bradshaw, senior high teacher. The elections followed the suggestions submitted by the nominating committee: Mrs. Walter Minier, Mrs. Claude Glenn, Mrs. S. B. Laughlin, Miss Adah Ross and Mrs. Ralph Scott. Dr. Bruce Baxter, Willamette university president, addressed the group, urging the necessity for the first year university student being taught a knowledge of the social sciences.

Ralph Gustafson, Willamette university student, sang two solos, accompanied by Lawrence Cox. The association will meet with other units May 3 to consider the move to form a P. T. A. council

New officers will be installed at the next meeting. Mrs. C. A. Kells is retiring president.

A formal order which places the state's investigation of the California-Oregon Power company in cold storage for an indefinite period, was issued here yesterday by Frank C. McColloch, public utilities commissioner. "It is the opinion of the commissioner that a continuance of this investigation and the expenditure of large sums of money, under present economic conditions, are against the public interests," the order set out. McColloch said the investigation to date had subjected the company to unwarranted expense. The order followed McColloch's recent announcement that his department would concentrate on pending court actions growing out of recent rate investigations and the completion of investigations which are nearly complete.

Chemeketans have planned Sunday trip to Rock House, which route traverses part of the trip made recently to La Creole Creek. A variety of wild flowers are expected to be in bloom at Rock House, as trilliums were in profusion there three weeks ago. The hike will begin at Ellenand lead to Rock House, an in-distance is 18 miles, with easy climbing on the route up and the return being an abrupt descent for a mile or two, then on back by the Rickreall creek routs to Ellendale.

Otto Bowman will be leader and the hikers will leave Sunday morning at 7:15 o'clock. The transportation fee is 40 cents, with 10 cent trail fee.

Decorators for I.O.O.F. Camp Undertake Job

Preparations for decorating Salem appropriately for the coming Odd Fellows grand lodge encampment here May 19 to 23 got under way yesterday with the arrival of S. A. Glenn and F. L. Allingham of the Fisk Flag and Decorating company, official decorators for the occasion. The convention committee and chamber of commerce here have entered into an agreement with the Fisk concern to deck out the city's streets and also to do such decorating as home and store owners may desire.

This company, local Odd Fellows pointed out, has for 10 years been official decorator for the state fair. It also had charge of this work when the sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows con-vened at Portland in 1925.
