Wheat Climbs to Dollar

CHICAGO, April 12.-(P)-Front page display of Dun - Bradstreet trade reports forecasting the sharpest business rise in 25 years went hand in hand today with dollar wheat.

Following the publication of newspaper editions giving unusual prominence to asserted likelihood of forthcoming big mercantile expansion, speculative trading in grain, especially wheat 3 1/2 cents and rivaling yesterday's sensational gain.

Not only was the old-time rural ideal of dollar a bushel for wheat attained but the market today surpassed that price, and in the final minute of trading reached $1.00 % for May con-tracts and $1.00 % for September, the latter a new high price record for the season so far as that delivery is concerned. Further sensational crop damage reports from drought and dust regions of domestic wheat territory southwest added momentum to the buying stampede. Steep fresh upturns of quotations on silver were also given much attention among grain traders. Wheat closed buoyant 2%-34 cents above yesterday's finish, May $1.00%-%, corn 1 cent to 1% up, May 88%-%, oats 1%-% up, and provisions unchanged to 7 cents down. Today's closing quotations: Wheat: May 1.00 %-1/4; July, 9%-%; September, 1.00-1.00%. Corn: May, 88% - 1/2; July, 83 1/2-1/8; September, 78 1/4-1/4. Oats: May, 49 1/4; July, 43 %; September, 4014.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 12.-(A)-Following the tendencies of the past week, sales volumes at today's session of the Gardeners' and Ranchers' market continued to move upward. Supplies approached a shortage in the later part of the session but were adequate enough to satisfy a brisk demand. Prices remained fairly stable.

Apple quotations, steady for a number of sessions, surprised the buyers with a good advance. On the other hand, celery hearts showed a decline from a price that has been steady for the past two weeks. Quantities offered were small, and purchases fairly active as the price dropped to $1.40 per dozen bunches. Dry onions have also been relatively firm during the recent activity. Supplies of the No. 2 price has remained steadily at $7 for the better qualities. Brussels sprouts are also disappearing rapidly from the market. A few crates, offered at the session, made little stir among the
