Salem Fans to Honor "Bill" Reinhart on Friday Cronin Thinks Each Team

Parade, Ceremonies Planned in Honor of Former Salem High Coach

"Bill" Reinhart, who will end up a dozen years of coaching basketball and baseball at the University of Oregon following the present season, will receive tribute from the home town folk, many of whom knew him when he was a boy in knee pants. Friday afternoon when Willamette's baseball team meets Reinhart's University of Oregon team in the last game a Reinhart-coached nine will play in Salem.

In honor of Reinhart the opening day of Willamette's home baseball season is to be officially known as "Bill Reinhart day". A parade, ceremonies and all the trimmings of a big league opening will be the features that will give the former Salem boy a big send-off before he leaves after the present season to coach at George Washington university in Washington, D. C.

Made Sports Record At Salem High

"Bill" Reinhart graduated from Salem high school in 1915 after making an admirable record in all sports. One of his team-mates in football, basketball and baseball was Roy "Spec" Keene, coach all sorts of praise for him.

When he first came to high school Reinhart was an awkward ning tally after Norbert had sin- youth but he had athletic sense gled to score Powers and tie up and a great competitive spirit. He would look bad in practice,

As an interim period in his colout good teams in all sports. J. C. Nelson, who was principal then at Salem high said of him:

"Bill was never a spectacular sort. He didn't beat a big drum. He never had much to say for knew he was on earth was by the quiet way he had. He didn't appear to be putting forth a great deal of effort but he always got results. He didn't have much of the dramatic about him and never tried to get the center of the stage, a quality to be admired in

After coaching at Salem high in 1920 Reinhart went back to Oregon and graduated in 1922. The next year he began coaching at Oregon and has produced fine teams in baseball and basketball there for 12 years. Last year his baseball team won the northern division championship and this year's team, mostly composed of veterans, is expected to finish high in the conference standings. A northern division basketball championship is also chalked up to his credit.

Astorians to weep at joy of Webfeet; Finns' stock to fall, predicted, with Warren's de-

By CAUSTIC

Astoria should weep today

and weep salt tears as basketball loving Finns read that Honest John Warren will no longer coach Astoria high basketball teams into state championships. Honest John was announced last night as the new freshman coach of the University of Oregon, a position he merited. Yet we are afraid that the basketball stock of Astoria will drop rapidly with the loss of Warren. In his seven years as coach at Astoria Warren has turned out four state champion basketball teams as well as winning teams in all other sports. Before his coming Astoria had never won the championship although it was runner up in 1923.

He will do Oregon a lot of good as freshman coach for although he has gained fame as a basketball coach he is as fine a football mentor. If he instills the same fighting, speeding spirit into his reshman teams at Oregon as he has done at Astoria the Frosh will be a power to be feared, even as has Astoria these seven years. The training Warren gives to freshman athletes will also make the Webfoot stocks in all sports rise, we predict. He will also be a great drawing card for prospective students, athletically inclined, to matriculate at Oregon.

The appointment of Howard Hobson as head basketball and baseball coach to succeed Bill Reinhart was no surprise. That he would be the man selected for the job has been practically conceded since Reinhart announced he was resigning and Hobson wired he was seeking the job. Certainly, with the record of his Benson Tech and Southern Oregon Normal teams to back him up, there is no other man who is so logically the choice.
