A Message

TO understand and fully appreciate the Easter message of joy, we ought to walk with those early visitors to the tomb of Jesus, and to see what they saw, and to hear what they heard from the lips of the holy angels: who speak in glad triumph: "Be not amazed; Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which hath been crucified: He is risen; He is not here. Behold the place where they laid Him."

The audacious attempt of evil to destroy the Son of God by death on a cross, seems unbelievable. . . . This portrays the hour of darkness and the power of evil.

But this terrible fact was made to conform to the purpose of God, as it was written: "For the transgression of my people was he stricken, and it pleased God to bruise him and to make his soul an offering for sin."

. . . . We need again to hear that Jesus lives and is able to impart spiritual life to all who would follow Him. Go out on this glad Easter morning and proclaim to a hopeless world that Christ is its only hope. He is still the great physician to minister to all its ills.

REV. P. W. ERIKSEN, American Lutheran Church.
