

EASTER CELEBRATED AT WOODBURN

Two Masses at St. Luke's; Cantata at Methodist Church in Evening

WOODBURN, April 20.—Special Easter services will be held by the various churches of Woodburn Sunday. Sunrise services will be held at the Church of Christ, in the church, beginning at 5:15.

At St. Luke's Catholic church Father James Kessel will celebrate mass at 10 a. m. Father Rubis, the regular pastor, will celebrate mass at 8 a. m. Father Kessel will invoke the benediction after the second mass. St. Luke's major choir will sing at both masses. A children's Easter program will be presented to everyone attending the service. At the Methodist Episcopal church an Easter concert will be given Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the church auditorium. The service will begin with a candle-light procession, followed by an anthem by the choir, a male quartet number, tenor solo and violin selections. Guest soloists for the evening will be Joseph Saffarik, violinist of Canby, and Francis Thomas, tenor, from the Indian school at Chemawa. A cantata entitled "Seven Last Words of Christ" will be a feature of the service.

An early morning Easter service is to be held at St. Mary's Episcopal mission. This will be at 8:45 a. m. Rev. G. Herbert Swift of St. Paul's church, Salem, will be present. At the Foursquare Gospel church there will be a wedding at 9 a. m. on Easter Sunday. Miss Ruth DeLois Ingalls of Hubbard will become the bride of Royal Hastie of Woodburn. Other churches having special services are the Congregational church of Monitor which has arranged to present a pageant, "The Challenge of the Cross," in the evening. It will be given by the young people of the church and the public is invited.

Old-Time Dance Set For Easter Monday

WOODBURN, April 20.—The young people of St. Luke's parish are sponsoring an old-time dance to be given at St. Luke community hall Easter Monday. Music will be by Cecil Deener and his old-time 6-piece orchestra. Fred Hecker will be manager.

The Woodburn Harmony club will present an Easter program at their regular meeting to be held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dickenson on South Front street. The program will begin at 8 o'clock with Miss Virginia Van Allen as leader. There will be special musical numbers and readings in keeping with the Easter season. Mrs. Lester Walling entertained the members of the Roundup bridge club at her home on Arthur street Wednesday afternoon. Prize for high score was won by Mrs. J. V. McAllister. Luncheon was served to Mrs. W. P. Lessard, Mrs. Frank Butterfield, Mrs. E. E. Piper, Mrs. Harold Steele, Mrs. Frederiek Moshberger, Mrs. Norman K. Richards, Mrs. Clark Jackson and the hostess, Mrs. Walling.

Granger's News Column

CHEMAWA, April 20.—At the regular business and social meeting, which will be held this week Thursday evening at 8 p. m. in the MWA hall, the Chemawa grange will observe its fourth birthday. The grange was organized April 15, 1931, by S. H. Edwards, then state deputy master, and the following were charter members:

R. G. Henderson, Martin Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris, S. A. Harris, S. A. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Delphine Harris, E. L. Rogers, Addison Page, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Beatty, Harry S. Keefe, Fred S. McColl, C. A. Pool, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Girod, Mr. and Mrs. John Zielinski, Harvey Girod, H. W. Bowden, Theo. Maddock, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harold. During the past four years the Chemawa grange has made a steady growth in all its activities but the most outstanding accomplishment felt they have made is a deeper and more sincere feeling of understanding and friendship among the neighbors and friends who have become better acquainted through this medium. Death has taken three—Chas. B. Titus, J. C. Ackman and Theo. Maddock.

During the lecturer's hour roll call will be either "Friendship" or "Brotherhood" and may be responded to by a poem, a quotation or song. The HEC will serve refreshments.

It is hoped that all charter members will be present as well as those who were initiated later.

SCIO JUNIORS GIVE 'HEN PECKED HERO'

SCIO, April 20.—A good crowd witnessed the presentation of the junior play, "A Hen-Pecked Hero," which was presented at the J. C. B. J. Hall, Wednesday evening, April 17. Frances Schwindt, Bruce Quarry, and Joe Madarus handled the more difficult roles in the play well, as Mrs. Holden, the mother-in-law, Prof. William Brown, the hen-pecked husband, and Botsky, respectively. Jesse Myers, as Bud Cedman, who disguised himself as a countess, provided many laughs. Noreme Sims, as Halem Hallmark, and Ruby Rospraka, as Doris Darlett, were very real college seniors; Don MacDonald was Ted Slocum, the football coach. Other parts included: Charles Gentry, as Barker, the detective; Arlene Barby, as Mrs. Brown, the romantic bride; Opal Long, as Lily, and Emily Nadvornik, as Countess Kolmanoff.

Cecil Elder, class adviser, and Roger Cain coached the play. A dress making contest is being held in the first year sewing class in conjunction with a pattern company through the Home Maker Educational service. Judges will be chosen and judging will be on the basis of materials used; design and color; workmanship; and general appearance. Dresses will probably be modelled at the Girls' league tea for mothers.

Go to Funeral At McMinnville

SHELBURN, April 20.—A number of relatives from this neighborhood were in McMinnville Thursday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Lorraine Fletcher Hussey. Mrs. Hussey's mother was reared in this community, being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex McDonald.

J. W. Nichols has a job plowing thirteen miles of the railroad right of way. This is done each spring to lessen the fire hazard. Richard Quarry, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quarry, has enlisted in a CCC camp in southern Oregon, and left Wednesday for his work.

Monmouth Student Has Teaching Post

KINGWOOD, April 20.—Miss Margaret Smart, now a student at Monmouth Normal, has been engaged to teach the primary grades next year at Perrydale.

Mrs. Ed. Finley has received news of the death April 15 of her sister, Mrs. Mamie Campbell at Santa Rosa, Calif., in a hospital there after a lingering illness. She visited there three years ago and had formerly lived in Salem and in Rickreall.

CHARTER MEMBER GETS 55-YR. JEWEL

Lyons Odd Fellow Receives 50-Year Pin at Stayton Lodge

STAYTON, April 20.—There was an exceptionally large gathering at the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday night to honor H. B. Condit of West Stayton, a charter member of the lodge, who was presented with his 55-year jewel, and William Edler of Lyons, who was presented with his 50-year jewel.

The speaker for the evening was Roy Gibbs, grand warden of the grand lodge. At the close of his address, Mr. Gibbs presented the jewels. They were also presented with birthday cakes made by a member of the Rebekahs. Mr. Condit had already received a 50-year jewel and this had been changed to exemplify his 55-year membership.

Andy Sigmund of Gervais and William P. Mulkey of Mehama spoke briefly of their many years' association with Stayton lodge, and a musical program was given.

Heavier Wool is Reported on Sheep, Coyotes Give Trouble

LYONS, April 20.—Clyde Rogers of Scio has been shearing sheep and goats in the Lyons vicinity this week. Several flocks are reported as shearing heavier this year than usual. The Coyotes are giving considerable trouble nearer Mill City. Floyd Shephard of Lyons route 1, has lost several ewes and lambs by coyotes this week.

Mrs. G. F. Jonston left Salem with a party of relatives for Lyle, Wash., where the group will spend Easter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Jonston.

Visitors Call On Sick Mother

SCOTTS MILLS, April 20.—Dr. and Mrs. John Brougher of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. C. E. Mulvihill and daughter, Ruby Harriet, of Portland, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brougher. Mrs. Brougher has been confined to her bed for some time but is reported improving.

Mrs. J. N. Amundson has arrived home from a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Grace Ahlers, in San Francisco. Another sister, Mrs. Bessie White, accompanied her home where she will visit for a while before returning to her home in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Benton of Toledo, Wash., visited recently with Mrs. Benton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kent.

A family by the name of W. O. Newell from Molalla, but who came from South Dakota last fall, have moved in the Charles Johnson house. Mr. Newell is working at the Orem and Beason mill on Butte creek.

Easter Program On Sunday Night

LABISH CENTER, April 20.—The local Sunday school's Easter program will be given Sunday night at the schoolhouse at 7:45 p. m. Florence S. Burr and Myrtle R. Louvre have been in charge of arrangements. Included in the evening's service is a pageant, "The Living Christ," by Lehman Bernadene Daugherty, Erma Hornschuch, Annabelle Bennett, Nathan Kurth, Florence Pugh, Lorene and Marjorie Wanless, Eva Dow, Willard Aker, Elmer McClaughey, and Valmer Klampe are in the cast. Incidental music will be by the male quartet of Messrs. E. Klampe, Kurth, Pugh and Boehm.

Both Mrs. John Bisanz of Meridian, and Mrs. Clayton Jones of Salem Heights, have been reelected by the school board and have signed contracts for next year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate are doing considerable work in remodeling their home. Mr. Frank Lambert of Linn county, is doing the work for them.

A picnic and Easter egg hunt was enjoyed by the Union Hill school children Friday, on the Roy King hill near the school house.

The declamatory contest given by the school children of the Union Hill school, will be given at the school house on the night of April 26.

FIELD WORK KEEPS GRANGE MEN HOME

MONMOUTH, April 20.—The April meeting of Monmouth grange was fairly well attended, but many men members were detained at home to do field work.

Arthur Moore, divisional director of the Townsend clubs of Polk, Yamhill and Benton counties, was the chief speaker, and he presented an informative discussion of the plan, with figures to show costs of government expense and interest on indebtedness, and assertions to indicate how and why the Townsend plan could rid the country of depression without increasing the national debt. His talk received close attention, and he answered numerous questions at his close.

Mrs. C. H. Parker and G. A. Peterson gave readings. P. O. Powell sang a solo, and W. J. Stockholm presented an entertaining original skit.

Miss Maggie Butler was elected a director to replace the late T. J. Edwards, and the grange charter was draped in memory of Mr. Edwards.

The grange decided to enter a float in the Goodwill Carnival, May 27. This committee was appointed to further details: Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stockholm and Mrs. C. O. Allen.

Merrill Fox, farmer of the Elkins section, is receiving treatment at a Salem hospital for a badly injured left forearm. Fox and his brother were operating a woodsaw last week when his arm was cut, nearly severing the bone below the elbow, by an unguarded saw.

FORD V-8

Thirty million miles of Ford Economy

MORE MILES. Faster miles. Greater economy... that is the story of the Ford V-8. There are conclusive figures from owners to show that it is the most economical Ford car ever built.

A particularly interesting and complete report of costs comes from a national fleet owner who has owned 854 Ford cars which were run more than thirty million miles in business use.

175 were Model T Fords which were run 5,017,075 miles. 599 were Model A Ford cars which were run 24,041,632 miles. 80 are Ford V-8 cars which have been run 2,982,886 miles.

This owner's cost records show that Ford V-8 cars cost 12% less to operate than the Model A Fords and 31% less than the Model T Fords. And they covered more miles per month! The monthly average for the Model T Fords was 1509 miles. For the Model A Fords, 1866 miles. . . And 2571 miles for the Ford V-8.

Each year the Ford car gives you more in value and performance and costs you less to operate. The Ford V-8 was an economical car in 1934. This year it gives you still greater reliability and economy, new beauty, new safety, new ease of control and remarkable new riding comfort.

Actual Figures Show the Ford V-8 is 12% more economical than the Model A. and 31% more economical than the famous Model T.
