Salem Choruses To Present Opera

Coming as a climax to an active and successful musical season for Salem will be the production of the costume opera, "Olaf Trygvasson" by Grieg, which will be presented by the Civic Male chorus and the Madrigal club under the direction of Prof. E. W. Hobson at the Armory Friday night, May 3, at 8:30 o'clock. The sponsors include friends and patrons of music and the arts and many others who are familiar with the work of these organizations. Very gratifying response is reported from outside towns, Silverton and Aurora. As the production draws on history of Norway it is attracting much attention among the Lutherans who are quite numerous at Silverton. Mrs. Otto Paulus, stage production manager, is endeavoring to produce some interesting sets of three levels which are being built especially for the armory. Huge gray stone figures depicting the Great God Odin, Friga, the Earth Mother and Thor, the Great hammer thrower, and five large stone altars are also under construction. Lighting effects to reproduce the massing and blending of colors reflecting the spirit and mood of the opera are an interesting part of the work now being worked out. Mr. R. J. Jennings will be responsible for the painting and actual construction of the sets and Mrs. William Blumberg will handle the making of the costumes, which are also being designed by Mrs. Paulus. Musical rehearsals for this production have been under way for the past year and a half with intensive training for the past few weeks. As prelude to the opera itself the male chorus will sing the stirring "Land Sighting" by Grieg. The members of this chorus are: Ronald Craven, G. E. Hollowell, A. A. Schram, James Shear, Dan Schroeder, O. K. De Witt, Frank DeWitt, Marville Pettys, Leslie Carson, E. Hole, H. L. Worthington, H. C. Stover, R. H. Hugg, R. D. Barton, Everett Craven, Herbert Hobson, Frank de Lespinasse, Don Barnard, W. F. Van der Bosch, Everett Lisle, Stanley Maves, L. C. Maves, Ernest Kruse, D. V. Robinson, Robert Carper, L. W. Gleason, Dan Schiltman, C. D. Reese, S. Gaiser.
