

Local News Briefs

Housecleaning Planned—Completion of alterations to the city hall basement, where records will be stored, may be a big task for the SERRA laborers employed on the project but it also will mean a big task for the city recorder's staff. As soon as the new record rooms are ready for use, City Recorder A. Warren Jones and his two assistants, Alfred Mundt, deputy, and Carol Braden, stenographer, will take up the job of cleaning out the years' accumulation of records and "junk" in the first floor vault, transferring old records to the basement and carefully cataloging those kept upstairs, Jones said yesterday. He expects then to set up a master index system for all city records.

Cash for Furniture, Phone 5110.—Benefit Tea Today — Today from 3 to 5:30, Chresto Cottage on the Willamette campus will be the scene of a benefit tea, art exhibit, and program in behalf of the Little Theatre Guild and the Pain Spots, campus art club. Dean Olive M. Dahl and Miss Constance Fowler have been instrumental in arranging the affair. Reproduction of masterpieces as well as creditable original work will be on exhibition. A nominal admission fee of 10 cents will be made.

Hats Remodeled, The Fashionette.—Claims Title — In an answer filed yesterday in circuit court, Leonard C. Mahoney claims the use of 10 acres of beaver dam land for which Grace M. Moses has brought suit to establish title. He claims he has cultivated the land and prepared to plant a crop, all with the plaintiff's knowledge. Other defendants named to the suit are M. W. Mahoney and Caroline Mahoney.

Big A. O. U. W. Meeting, Pythian hall, N. Com'l St., Wed. night, April 24. Free dance, 10 o'clock. Public invited. Come! —Bernhardt Speaker—Clayton V. Bernhardt, manager of the Associated Press bureau here, was the guest speaker last night at a Sigma Delta Chi dinner at Oregon State college. He spoke on the press and its viewpoint of the last legislative session. John Hanlon, secretary of the public utilities department, and Willis Dunaway, manager of the United Press bureau here, accompanied him to Corvallis for the dinner.

Hunt Files Account—Final account in the estate of the late Abel Gilbert was filed in probate court here yesterday by John P. Hunt who served as executor. Hunt reported income of $7720 with $4415 in cash left for distribution to the heirs after all claims against the estate are paid. Some real property also remains for distribution.

Special—Linseed oil, 95c gal. Ray L. Farmer Hdw. Co. —Railroad Sues.—The Oregon Electric railroad filed suit yesterday in circuit court seeking to collect $202 in freight allegedly due from Paulus Brothers Packing company. Plaintiff asserts that it is owed the money since it undercharged the carrying firm on three carloads of cherries shipped in June, 1933, from Grandview, Wash., to Salem.

$15,305 in Warrants Called—Monday's call of city warrants represented $15,305.23 principal and $742.11 interest, a total cash outlay of $16,047.34. City Treasurer C. O. Rice announced yesterday. All warrants to and including number 92-031 were called in for redemption.

Complete line of broadcloth shirts plain and fancy colors, $1.00. G. W. Johnson Co. —More Hops Sold—An additional 75 bales of hops were sold here yesterday, bringing the total for the first two days of the week to 355 bales. The sales yesterday were in several small lots, at prices from 10 to 11 cents per pound. Purchases were made by Bishop at Ray.

Fruit Peelings Useful—Every time you toss away the skin of an orange or a lemon, you destroy one of the tastiest parts, according to Julia Lee Wright, who tells of new ways to use oranges, lemons and grapefruit in the April 26 issue of the Family Circle magazine to be distributed Friday by Pay'n Takit stores in Salem. Grated peelings are a splendid addition in the preparation of puddings, sauces, cakes and icings, Mrs. Wright says, when they are candied and flavored with cinnamon or mint. Grapefruit and orange skins make nice containers for fruit or seafood and can be used as individual dishes for baked carrots.

All trousers reduced one-third. Including slippers and pleated frocks, high dark colors. G. W. Johnson Co. —Need More Rooms — Registrations for rooms for use of the delegates expected here May 19 to 23 for the grand lodge of the O. O. F. are being received at the chamber of commerce, telephone 5738. The local hotels do not have accommodations sufficient to handle the flock of delegates expected, so residents are asked to file with the chamber available rooms for rental of the lodge visitors.

To Train Minds—First of a series of talks on mind training is to be given tonight at the city council chambers, city hall, by R. K. Jubb of Portland who conducted seven similar lectures recently before members of the Portland police department. Members of the Salem police department and of the state police organization here have been especially invited but the public also is welcomed without charge. Jubb resides in Portland and has made a specialty of studying practical methods for the individual's mind development.

Special—Fuller's paint, $1.95 per gallon. Ray L. Farmer Hdw. Co. —All "Cops" Blue Now — When Louis Burgess, night city emergency policeman, arrived at headquarters early last night dressed in a new, blue uniform, he figuratively sang the swan song for olive drab. He was the last member of the city force to don the blue which Chief Frank A. Minto has made the regulation garb. As each officer buys his own uniform, the chief has allowed each man first to wear out his old outfit, the olive drab, before joining the blue suit ranks.

Doe in Again—The omnipresent Mr. John Doe returned to the city hall yesterday, drunk again. His only competitor in frequent appearances at police headquarters is Richard Roe, who shows up there only when Doe has already arrived. Arrest of the unidentified man yesterday on a charge of being drunk was the only item on the police blotter. When he sobers up, his correct name will be typed in place of "John Doe."

Big furniture auction tonight, 7:30, at the Swapare, 474 S. Commercial.

Metcall to Return—D. G. "Don" Metcall, who has been on leave from the position of SERRA placement director for Marion county, expects to return late this week. He has advised R. F. Patton, acting director. The letter, written from LaGrande, said Metcall planned to visit Enterprise and The Dalles before he came back to Salem. He was sent to eastern Oregon late last month to audit records of the SERRA placement bureaus in 12 counties.

Seeks Licenses—Two couples applied yesterday for marriage licenses at the county clerk's office here. Robert R. Bain, 20, Newport, a laborer, asked to wed Lucille Marie Walters, 18, Newport, a housekeeper; William Moyer, 20, 1533 Center street, Salem, a mill worker, asked permission to wed Hattie Fry, 20, 980 Tamarack street, Salem, a student.

Special—Fuller's paint, $1.95 per gallon. Ray L. Farmer Hdw. Co.

Mrs. Hoblitt Sues—In an amended complaint filed yesterday in circuit court against Lowell Hoblitt of Silverton, Mrs. Caroline Hoblitt asks that she be granted a divorce and $12.50 a month for the support of their four-year-old son. Plaintiff says the defendant struck her, used vile language in speaking to her, associated with other women and left her at home alone repeatedly.

New Men on Board—John W. Reynolds and R. R. Ellinger were appointed by the state supreme court as members of the state board of bar examiners. Reynolds will succeed Roscoe C. Nelson while Bullivant will succeed B. A. Green. The next state bar examinations will be held in Salem in July.

Rand "Best Liar"—Justice John Rand of the state supreme court displayed to the Salem Kiwanis club Tuesday noon the "liar's belt" which he won at McMinville last week in an inter-club contest. The belt becomes the club's property. The justice retold his winning story to the club members.

City Court Quiet—Municipal Judge Jones spent a dull day yesterday as far as cases were concerned. All told he collected four $1 fines for as many violations of parking ordinances. No other cases were brought before him.

Granted Judgment—A judgment totalling $374 to which interest and costs are to be added was granted in circuit court yesterday in behalf of Otto K. Paulus and against F. W. Morley.

Felton Appointed—Joseph B. Felton was named guardian of the estate of Waldo A. Nees, incompetent, yesterday in an order issued in probate court. Property owned by Nees totals $1400.

EDUCATIONAL MEET SET FOR SATURDAY

Monmouth Mecca of Groups From Wide Area; Noted Speakers Engaged

MONMOUTH, April 24.—Educational workers from all parts of western and central Oregon are expected here next Saturday, April 27, for the annual educational conference at the Oregon Normal school. The conference program will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon and will continue throughout the day.

Assembly speakers on the program are President Wolf Clemens of Whitman college, Walls, Walla, Wash., and Dr. W. W. Wait of the State Teachers' college at Greeley, Colorado. Both men are young, vigorous leaders in the western education world.

Other speakers at the various sessions will include State Superintendent C. A. Howard, Salem; Miss Kessie Casebolt, Teachers' college, San Francisco; Miss E. Wilma Treat, Teachers' college, Bellingham; Miss Louise Woodruff, Ashland Southern Oregon Normal school; Miss Marie Ring, Lake Grove schools, Lake Grove; Joseph Holaday, University High school, Eugene; Professor F. L. Stetson, University of Oregon.

The general theme of the conference this weekend will be "Education for Social Service."

A number of special features have been arranged for the conference. A book exhibit will be shown in the normal school library. A pottery exhibit in the art rooms will demonstrate the use of the potter's wheel as handled by students and faculty artists. The elementary school exhibit in the training school will show products of grade school children. The psychology department has on display equipment for use in demonstrations of the methods of teaching psychology.

The dramatic organization of the Oregon Normal school will present a one-act play at the opening of the afternoon assembly session. Musical numbers for the opening of the conference will be given by the Normal school orchestra and choir. Luncheons have been arranged at noon for visiting primary school teachers in the I. O. F. hall. The joint banquet of the Phi Delta Kappa and Pi Lambda Theta organizations will be held in Jessica Todd hall at 6 p. m. with Dr. F. F. Powers, district representative of Phi Delta Kappa, and Dr. W. W. Wait as speakers.

Dr. A. S. Jensen of the Oregon Normal school faculty heads the committee arranging the conference.

Case Settled—Suit of Amelia Schalen against T. A. Livesley & Co., was settled out of court and dropped yesterday according to papers filed in the county clerk's office. Plaintiff asked for damages for injuries allegedly sustained in a hop yard last September.

Granted Real Property—Real property left by the late John Harris of Jefferson is free from execution according to an order filed yesterday in probate court here. Mary Harris is serving as administratrix of the property.

Cases Sent Up—Suit of Joseph W. LaFollette against T. M. Miles, because it involved title to property, has been transferred from justice court here to the circuit court.

Guest Speaker

Dr. W. W. Wait of the State Teachers' college at Greeley, Colorado, who will be an assembly speaker next Saturday at the annual educational conference at Oregon Normal school.

EAGLES STAGE LATE PARADE, SILVERTON

SILVERTON, April 23.—The Fraternal Order of Eagles delegation composed of Salem Eagles, Kiltie band, Oregon City auxiliary and men's drill teams, Salem auxiliary and men's drill teams, didn't arrive in time for the Townsend parade Saturday night at 7 o'clock, but held an Eagles parade at 8 o'clock. The Eagles parade was headed by the Dallas Eagle orchestra.

After the parade the visiting members and orchestra, Kiltie band and drill teams were treated to ice cream and cake furnished by George Manolis and Richard Fish.

The Eagle dance was held Saturday night at the armory and at 11 o'clock the Salem mixed drill team gave an exhibition before a crowd of over 600 people. The Dallas Eagle orchestra also played at the Townsend rally.

E. R. Ekman, president of the Abiqua Aerie, F. O. E., of Silverton, outlined the Saturday program for the visiting Eagles. Over 150 visiting Eagles were at Silverton during the day.

RELIEF FOOD PRICE LIST IS ANNOUNCED

Some Commodities Up Since Previous Announcement; Rules are Outlined

A revised price list upon which Marion county grocers may base their charges to relief family patrons was issued yesterday. Glenn C. Niles, county relief administrator, announced. This list, giving maximum charges which the relief administration will pay, is compiled at irregular intervals by a price committee consisting of a wholesale grocer, a retail grocer and a member of the county relief committee.

Chief changes in the new list, Niles said, are increases in the prices of lard, compound, oleomargarine, milk and bacon. The prices may be lowered but not increased by any merchant. Instructions accompanying the list state, "If your regular price is lower, you should charge that."

The merchants are advised that relief persons may purchase 25 cents worth of tobacco on each $4 order. All of the purchases for which the list is compiled are by requisition issued by the relief case workers.

The list allows the merchant 3 cents above cost per dozen eggs and per pound of butter, and for merchants outside of Salem, additional charges for freight on flour and sugar. Other items are priced as follows:
Rolled oats, 9-pound sack, 48 cents; corn meal, nine pounds, 36 cents; macaroni, paste, 8 cents; No. 2 flour, $1.70 sack; broken rice, 4 1/2 cents pound, whole 6 1/2 cents; beans 7 1/2 cents pound; prunes 7 cents pound; peas, No. 2 cans, 13 cents; tomatoes, No. 2 1/2 cans, 12 cents; string beans, corn, No. 2, 12 1/2 cents; sugar, 6 cents pound; molasses, No. 2 1/2 black, 22 cents.
Milk, 7 1/2 cents quart; dark corn syrup, 5 pounds, 40 cents; salmon, No. 1 pink, 11 cents; boiling beef, 10 cents pound; raisins, 3 pounds 23 cents; lamb, 16 cents pound; mutton, 13 cents pound; bacon, 32 cents pound; peanut butter, 19 cents pound.

Oleomargarine, 17 cents pound; lard, 19 cents, compound, 17 cents pound; coffee, 21 cents pound; tea, 23 cents half pound; baking powder, 25 cents pound; baking soda, 8 cents; matches, 5 cents box; laundry soap, 4 cents, toilet soap 5 cents bar; salt, 3 pounds, 9 cents; kerosene, 13 cents gallon; yeast, 10 cents package.

Revising House Journal Ended; Costs Compiled

It cost the state of Oregon $1645 to revise the house journal and calendar of the 1935 legislative session, according to claims filed in the state department yesterday.

The work required 35 days and was completed Monday under the direction of John E. Cooter, speaker, and Fred Drager, chief clerk.

Claims audited by the state department included Fred Drager, chief clerk, $280; Edward M. Duffy, assistant chief clerk, $210; James Vernon, reading clerk, $210; Kenneth S. Perry, calendar clerk, $210; John E. Cooter, speaker, $280; Mrs. Cora Cooter, stenographer, $110; Claribelle Buff, stenographer, $65, and Mrs. Hannah Martin, $280. Mrs. Martin was a member of the 1935 legislature.
