France, Great Britain and Italy pledged themselves to unite in opposing "by all practical means the repudiation of any treaties which may endanger the peace of Europe" when Mussolini, premier of Italy; Ramsay MacDonald, British prime minister, and Pierre Laval, French premier, met at Stresa, Italy. Their action, directed against Germany's declaration that she would no longer abide by the armament limitations of the Versailles treaty, was followed by a formal protest to the League of Nations against the Nazi move.

HARRY SMITH BUYS HALLS FERRY FARM

Ladies' Home Club Starts Beautification for School Ground

HALLS FERRY, April 23.—Harry Smith and family of Keizer Bottom have purchased the Sherman Brown 7-acre truck farm of E. M. Croshaw. They moved onto the place last week.

The Halls Ferry orchestra composed of Oscar Purcell and daughters, Dorothy and Elinor, Kenneth Strawn and Hugh Schuebel, furnished music for the Hayesville community club Saturday night.

Clarence Reere and J. L. Strawn went to North Bend Saturday to complete the iron work on the new bridge.

Harve Schuebel was home Sunday from Newport where he is carpentering on the coast bridge.

The Ladies' Home club met at the schoolhouse Friday afternoon and beautified the school yard by planting ornamental shrubs and flowers. They also furnished a treat for the children by bringing baskets filled with Easter eggs and gave the children a surprise egg hunt. Jimmie Hendrickson won first prize by finding the most eggs and Willie Brown was winner in the egg rolling contest. After the games the pupils and visitors marched to the home of Mrs. Joe Finden where a delicious lunch was served.
