

County Clubs Federation Meets

WALDO HILLS.—The Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs held a spring session Friday at the Waldo Hills clubhouse with the local Willard Woman's club and the Bethel-Dorcas society as joint hostesses. The club rooms were beautifully decorated with purple and white lilacs.

Special recognition was given to Mrs. Helen Southwick, aged 87, who is an active club member from Salem and a director of the federation. And to Mrs. C. C. de Lespinaise of Hubbard, author of "Pellis of Helmus." Mrs. de Lespinaise read the forward of this book. Mrs. R. J. Janz of the Willard club and Mrs. A. C. Spangler of the Bethel club welcomed the delegates. Mrs. Mary McCallister of Salem responded.

Chairman Report
Mrs. C. W. Stacey of Liberty, federation vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. A. L. Strickland of Hubbard. Each chairman was allowed five minutes to present her department.

The Junior Woman's club of Salem through their recording secretary, Mrs. Estill Brunk, presented their application for membership in the federation. Mrs. Mark McCallister accepted them as the latest addition to the federation.

The nominating committee named Mrs. D. D. Bower, Union Hill; Mrs. John Dasch, Liberty; Mrs. Robert Schroeder, Mill City; Mrs. John Frause, Hubbard; Mrs. Hannah Martin spoke on "Legislation From the Session Just Past."

Miss Nye Speaker
Luncheon was served at noon. At the afternoon session Miss Charibel Nye of O.S.C. was given the courtesy of the floor. She spoke on adult education and extension work. Two minute reports from club presidents were given.

Miss Violet Herigstad of Silverton played a piano solo. Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar gave the address of the day taking as her subject, "Economic Security." She reviewed her attendance at the Federal Congress of Federated Clubs. She deplored the fear of insecurity but suggested there was need to fear.

She gave four ways to gain security, namely: 1. Insurance. 2. Pensions to aged. 3. Definite aid to families. 4. Medical and nursing care.

She urged women's clubs to back a state program in order to match federal aid that is a part of the program of appropriations to be in effect in June or July.

Officers elected were: President, Mrs. C. W. Stacey of Liberty; vice-president, Miss Vera Ottaway of Willard; secretary, Mrs. Milo Rasmussen of Salem; treasurer, Mrs. James G. Lauderback of Bethel; auditor, Mrs. Floyd Fox of Silver Cliff; directors, Mrs. Nava McKenzie and Mrs. Alice Edmundson. There were 146 present.

Missionary Society at Mill City

Mill City.—For the April meeting of the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church Mrs. Harold Clow extended the hospitality of her home Wednesday afternoon. Twenty-five women were present. The topic was "American Indians." A paper on the work being accomplished by the church among the Indians and the reaction of the Indians to this work was read by Mrs. Richards.

Plans for a covered dish supper to be given at the church Monday night were made.

The hostesses for the year have been appointed as well as the flower committees and leaders and topics. The "Dials" have been ordered and will probably be ready for distribution at the May meeting which will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Grimes with Mrs. Lee Morris as hostess. This year two will serve as hostesses. Mrs. Bert Jewell will be leader for the May meeting with the topic on Spanish speaking peoples. Mrs. C. L. Atwood and Mrs. Justin Jones are the flower committee.

For June Mrs. Herbert Schroeder will lead on "The West Indies" with Mrs. Atwood and Mrs. Jones as hostesses and Mrs. Bert Jewell and Mrs. W. W. Mason on the floral committee.
