

DAUGHTERS RECEIVE 35 NEW CANDIDATES

Astoria Next Meeting Place for Catholic Women of Oregon

MT. ANGEL, April 30. — The state convention of the Catholic Daughters of America, held here Saturday and Sunday, closed with a banquet at 6 o'clock Sunday evening. About 150 attended the banquet.

The reception of the 35 new candidates Sunday was witnessed by 200 members of the organization. Nine of these were from Mt. Angel and included: Dolores Schwab, Dorothy Ebner, Mary Frouger, Gertrude Hauth, Catherine Hauth, Therese Harris and Anna Meyers. The Multnomah Court, Portland, contributed one candidate, Bertha McGowan. Three were from Court Oregon, Eugene: Rose Rohen, Margaret Maxwell and Evelyn Humber. From Court Capital City, Salem: Elizabeth Schott, Mary Sandberg, Julia Higgins, Mary Mahula, Kathryn Kissance, Georgia Spencer, Frances Burrell, Frances P. Kupper and Anna C. Henricks. Court St. Ann, Oregon City, supplied the largest number. They included: Patricia Jewell, Esther Natch, Theresa Mary Kent, Virginia Ruby, Ruby M. Moshan, Kathleen Brady, Catherine Elledge, Katherine Niclot, Rose Gerkman, Mary E. McMahon, Agnes Larsen, Cecilia Lorenz and Maye Serres.

Mrs. Mary LeDoux of the Mt. Angel court acted as toastmistress at the banquet. The address of welcome was delivered by Mrs. Valerie Begin, grand regent of the local court. Other speakers were Right Rev. Msgr. Arthur Lane of Portland; Rev. Fr. Boyle and Rev. Fr. Clancy, both of the University of Portland; Miss Anna Dunn, past state regent; Mrs. Rose Appleby, vice state regent; Rev. Alcuin Heibel, pastor of St. Mary's church, Mt. Angel, and Rev. Vincent Koppert, rector of Mt. Angel college.

The next state convention will be held in Astoria the last Saturday in April, 1936.

Novelist Writes Of Latest Volume To Old Instructor

SILVERTON, April 30. — Mrs. F. M. Powell received an interesting letter from Dr. Allan Hart, author of "Dr. Mallory," telling of his writing of the novel and of the new novel which he is now working on. Dr. Hart expresses the hope that the new one will be done in a "more workmanlike manner" than was the first novel, "Dr. Mallory," a story of the Oregon coast, is, however, according to librarians, meeting with considerable success.

Mrs. Powell taught in the Albany schools while Dr. Hart attended there as a pupil.

Odd Fellows and Rebeksahs Observe 116th Anniversary

DAYTON, April 30. — Seventy-five members of Yamhill lodge No. 28 and Nantux lodge No. 83 of Dayton attended observance of the 116th anniversary of founding of the Odd Fellows at the Dayton I.O.O.F. hall Friday night. Ten people from the Dayton Prater community club gave the program consisting of music, song and readings. Refreshments followed.

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY
DAYTON, April 30. — Honoring S. C. Dixon on his 72nd birthday anniversary, which was Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Launer entertained at their home Sunday with a family dinner. Sixteen people attended.

Granger's News Column

MACLEAY, April 30. — A large crowd of grangers and invited friends attended the Saturday night social at the grange hall. The program included piano number, Mrs. Lloyd Kien; reading, H. E. Martin; piano, Viola Tooker; skit, "Love's Errand," Jean Lauderback and Ruth Simmons; music by members of Courtier orchestra which also played for dancing.

See Hill's Film
DAYTON, April 30. — About 100 people attended the regular monthly social meeting of the Webfoot grange at the hall Saturday night. C. E. Wilson, manager of the Salem chamber of commerce, spoke briefly. Dr. D. B. Hill gave three moving picture reels, a health demonstration, scenes from Yellowstone National park and a comic for the children. Lunches were sold and dancing followed.

ROBERTS, April 30. — The grange met Friday night with a number of visitors from the Sidney and Liberty granges. The Roberts grange will meet the third Saturday of each month.
