

Romantic Melodrama and Mystery Make Good Theatre Bills

"G MEN" FEATURED AT ELSINORE NOW

Department of Justice and Its War on Crime Made Into Thrilling Film

The way of the United States government against the master criminals of the nation has been made into a thrilling drama by First National Pictures, and with James Cagney in the stellar role, will open at the Elsinore theatre today.

Those fearless secret service men whose exploits in rounding up the arch desperadoes of the country have been told in newspaper headlines for the past year are called "G Men," and "G Men" is the title of the screen's first dramatization of their battles with public enemies.

The picture follows the career of one of these "G Men" from the time he joined the federal service, through his training period, through machine gun battles with gangsters to a thrilling climax in which he finally rounds up, and exterminates, a gang of murderous kidnapers.

The all star cast is headed by Cagney and Margaret Lindsay and includes Ann Dvorak, Robert Armstrong, Barton MacLane, William Harrigan, Lloyd Nolan and Russell Hopton.

"MR. DYNAMITE" IS CAPITOL FEATURE

An author who believes his characters must be real and human if they are to be appreciated by his readers, is Dashiell Hammett, who wrote the original story of "Mr. Dynamite," coming today to the Capitol theatre.

Hammett is also the author of "The Thin Man," which proved to be one of the most successful motion pictures last year. The reason, again, was obvious. The characters in that story stood out as human beings, who at all times acted like real people.

The same is true of "Mr. Dynamite," which stars Edmund Lowe. It was Hammett's intention to depict a detective who can solve a murder mystery without indulging in any eerie bits of business, falling corpses and mysterious doors opening and shutting.

Supporting Lowe in the cast of "Mr. Dynamite" are Jean Dixon, Esther Ralston, Victor Varconi, Verna Hillie, Robert Gleckler and Bradley Page.

HOLLYWOOD SHOWS AMERICAN CLASSIC

One of the most famous heroines of classical American literature is "Hannah," pretty and pathetic little bond girl in "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," Edward Eggleston's great novel of Indiana backwoods life in the 19th century, which comes to the Hollywood theatre today.

Consequently, when Monogram Pictures decided to bring this famous book to the screen, the role of "Hannah" was much sought after by Hollywood screen stars, but it was blue-eyed, blonde Charlotte Henry who was finally chosen for the coveted honor.

The picture, previewed last week, has captured the atmosphere of the rural Indiana com-

James Cagney in New Role

James Cagney sides with the law in "G Men" at the Elsinore. With him is Margaret Lindsay.

Scene from "Mr. Dynamite" starring Edmund Lowe and written by the author of "The Thin Man." Now at the Capitol.

Norman Foster as the Hoosier schoolmaster defies his pursuers in the picture by that name, taken from the book by Edward Eggleston. Charlotte Henry appears opposite Foster at the Hollywood today.

munity and contains many scenes such as the spelling bee which will stir fond memories for those who have attended such functions.

Norman Foster is sincere and likable as the schoolmaster-soldier and others in the cast include Dorothy Libaire, Sarah Padden, Otis Harlan, Russell Simpson, William V. Wong, Fred Kohler, Jr., Tommy Bupp, Wallace Reid, Jr., George Hayes and Jose Bernard.

TRIBUTE FOR MOTHERS INDEPENDENCE, May 11.—A special Mother's day service will be held in honor of Mother's day Sunday at the M. E. church.

There will be quartet numbers and selections from the junior choir. Flowers will be presented to all mothers present.

Delta Theta Phi Elects Officers

The Salem branch of Delta Theta Phi, national law fraternity, yesterday announced election results as follows:

Ray Rhoten, dean; Ray McKey, tribune; Arlo Cornell, vice-dean; Carroll Addison, master of roll; Chris Schneider, master of ritual; Max Taggart, master of exchequer.

The chapter was host recently to Joe Bergerson, national chancellor, who came here from Washington, D. C., on an official inspection visit.

ROMANTIC COMEDY SHOWING AT GRAND

At the Grand theatre today will be Columbia's "Let's Live Tonight," co-starring those two continental favorites, Lillian Harvey and Tullio Carminati. The film is a romantic comedy-drama by Bradley King, with Gene Markey adapted to the screen.

It tells the story of an eager young American girl, summering in Monte Carlo, who falls in love with a man she believes to be a poor but honest gigolo.

A rather poignant theme develops when she discovers that he is a wealthy, debonair man-of-the-world preferring to love often but not too strongly. Disheartened, she encourages a younger and more romantic suitor, only to find that he is the brother of her desired Don Juan.

Lillian Harvey is the girl seeking romance on the Riviera. It is, by her own admission, the finest role she has had to date. Tullio Carminati, of course, is the suave and polished lover, with Hugh Williams as the younger brother.

DALLAS CLUB MEETS

PIONEER, May 11.—The Dallas community club met at the home of Mrs. Clyde Robbins on Thursday afternoon for the semi-monthly business meeting and social. This club will be assistant host with the Oakdale and Ellendale club for the county picnic of the Federation of Woman's clubs in June in Dallas.

The Call Board . . .

GRAND Today — Lillian Harvey in "Let's Live Tonight." Wednesday—Double feature, "In Spite of Danger" with Wallace Ford and "I'll Love You Always" with Nancy Carroll. Saturday—Shirley Temple in "Our Little Girl."

ELSINORE Today—"G Men" with James Cagney. Thursday — William Powell in "Star of Midnight."

CAPITOL Today — Dashiell Hammett's "Mr. Dynamite" with Edmund Lowe. Tuesday — Double bill, Sinclair Lewis' "Babbitt" with Guy Kibbee and Joe E. Brown in "Elmer the Great."

Thursday—Jackie Cooper in "Dinky" and Tim McCoy in "The Westerner."

STATE Today—"The Lives of a Bengal Lancer" with Gary Cooper. Thursday — Double bill, "Lady by Choice" with May Robson and Spencer Tracy in "Looking for Trouble."

Saturday — Zane Grey's "Rocky Mountain Mystery."

HOLLYWOOD Today—"The Hoosier Schoolmaster" with Norman Foster. Wednesday—Ann Harding in "Biography of a Bachelor Girl."

Friday—Double bill, "Under Pressure" with Lowe and McLaglen and "Terror of the Plains" with Tom Tyler.

Continental Stars at Grand

Lillian Harvey and Tullio Carminati have won a host of fans in the United States and are together in the current hit at the Grand, "Let's Live Tonight."

Gary Cooper is tempted but not convinced by Kathleen Burke in "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," action picture at the State.

"LIVES OF BENGAL LANCER" AT STATE

The picked fighters of India's most war-like tribes are the men who form the ranks of England's famous Bengal Lancers, the redoubtable cavalry organization, whose exploits and adventures are dramatized in Paramount's great adventure spectacle, "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," which is now at the State theatre.

For the physical equipment of the biggest outdoor spectacle since the advent of talking pictures, Paramount's "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," over four thousand uniforms, two thousand horses and thousands of rifles were employed.

The picture, which features Gary Cooper, Franchot Tone, Richard Cromwell and Sir Guy

Standing, was four years in preparation for the screen and employed twenty thousand people in its production.

Six separate outdoor locations serve as the background for "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," including the Khyber Pass in India.

"Our George" to Speak on Monday

George L. Baker, former mayor of Portland is to speak to the Salem chamber of commerce here tomorrow noon. His address will be concerned with the necessity for using Oregon products — a campaign he is carrying on throughout the state—and also with the Housing show which Portland is sponsoring late this month. Ex-Mayor Baker has recently appeared before a number of chambers of commerce throughout the state.

DANCE RECITAL IS MUCH APPRECIATED

DALLAS, May 11.—The presentation of pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Craven in a dance recital at the Majestic theatre, Friday evening, reminded one of turning the leaves of a fairy tale book. All the well remembered characters were depicted in dance and song with appropriate costuming. Introductory music was furnished by the Melsinger studio and Bruce McIntosh sang two solos between the scenes, one "Baby's Boots a Silver Moon," and the other "Toyland." Joseph Hartley played the pipe organ accompaniment.

Familiar scenes on the playground were depicted in the first scene, boys on the slide, girls with a ball, a jumping rope tap dance, the frisky cat song by the two ground squabble, the rocking horse and lollypops. The number that caused the greatest merriment was the old dobbie dance number, with Anne Craven as the head and Allan Inglis the rear of the spotted horse, to the tune of "The Old Gray Mare."

In the second scene the king and queen, Eugene McCarter and Beverly Osuna sat upon their throne and watched the court appear in various dance numbers. Some of the characters were: Wooden soldier, Richard Ralston; Red Riding Hood, Joanne Ely; Humpty Dumpty, Barbara Kracher; Cinderella, June Dunn; butterfly, Vivian Richardson; Raggedy Ann, Patsy Erickson; Cupid, Nancy Farrar; Alice in Wonderland, Anne Craven; Robin Hood, Norma Watson; balloon dance, Suzanne Hamilton. Even the king deserted his throne long enough to dance for the queen.

Attractive were the old fashioned dolls portrayed by Marjory and Vivian Ward, ten year old twin sisters. The final number was a solo tap dance by Rally Ralston as Minnie Mouse with chorus ensemble.

Statesman Pays Accident Victim

A draft for $21.43 was handed yesterday to A. A. Engelbart, 248 Lefelle street, by Gus Hixson, circulation manager of The Statesman. Engelbart, painfully injured when struck by an automobile, March 25, was insured under a $1 policy issued through The Statesman. Hixson said yesterday that $6387 had been paid out by the paper since it first issued automobile accident insurance policies.

Held Over TODAY and Tonight

by Popular Demand See Salem From the Air by Day and Night See the Capitol Ruins!

FLY Today & Tonight 11 A. M. to 11 P. M.

15 Mile Excursion Flights $1

$50,000 FORD Trimotor

All Metal Airliner $6000 Open Sport Ship Here Also Come Early to Avoid the Crowds

Salem Airport

ELSINORE Starts TODAY

—First Story of Uncle Sam's War on Crime! How His Secret Agents Ended America's Reign of Terrorism!—Greatest Manhunt in History filmed!

MEN

JAMES CAGNEY ANN DVORAK • MARGARET LINDSAY ROBERT ARMSTRONG—In Huge Cast

HOLLYWOOD Today, Monday and Tuesday - 15c
MATINEE EACH DAY AT 2 P. M.
One of the World's Famous Classics Now Comes to Life on the Screen!!
The Hoosier Schoolmaster
FIRST SHOWING SALEM
NORMAN FOSTER CHARLOTTE HENRY
Added: Shirley Temple in "Pardon My Pups"

STATE THEATRE STARTS TODAY at 12:45 p.m.
Year's Mightiest Thrill Show!
It's Tremendous!
The Lives of a BENGAL LANCER
with GARY COOPER FRANCHOT TONE RICHARD CROMWELL SIR GUY STANDING
E Aubrey Smith Monte Blue and Kathleen Burke
Don't Miss It!
Liberty Magazine gave it 4 Stars and said, "You can believe anything the ads say about this picture."
"It's movies at their best."

CAPITOL STARTS TODAY
HIS Wise-Cracks PACK INTO ... That's why they called him "MR. DYNAMITE!"
Carl Laemmle Presents Edmund LOWE
A Universal Picture with JEAN DIXON • ESTHER RALSTON VICTOR VARCONI • MATT McHUGH
Now Showing in "Hollywood Style" Program Shows

No sped halfway round the world to find the "one woman" in love with his brother!
Lillian HARVEY
Tullio CARMINATI
in "LET'S LIVE TONIGHT"
SALEM'S GRAND