As A Last Resort He Tried Williams S. L. K. Formula

Unable to Work for Weeks, Sleep Impossible, Indigestion, Nervousness and Weakness Made Life Miserable; Now Feels Fine

"There is nothing like Williams S.L.K. Formula," says Mr. John Gage, garage man at Highland, Kansas. "For years I had nervous headaches and acute attacks of indigestion. I did not dare eat many foods because they bloated me so much that for weeks I would be unable to work. I was told that I had an ulcerated stomach and gall stones. "A good night's sleep was impossible. I was as miserable as I could be, for the medicines I took did me little or no good. I began taking Williams S.L.K. Formula as a last resort. After a few doses of this medicine I was relieved of my former misery and pain; I improved until I enjoyed good health again. Two years have passed since I took a course of this medicine, and I am still enjoying the best of health."

Williams S.L.K. Formula is based on a doctor's prescription for stomach, liver and kidney disorders, associated with constipation, sour or gassy stomach, distress after eating, sick headache, neuralgia, rheumatic pain, neuritis, biliousness, dyspepsia, heartburn, general weakness and loss of vitality. If you suffer, don't wait. Go to Perry's Drug Store today and get your bottle of Williams S.L.K. Formula. The druggist will tell you how good it is.

CELEBRATION PLANS STARTED BY LEGION

Bassett Chairman; All-Day Attractions at Low Cost Proposed

This year's July 4 celebration, which Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, will sponsor, will be similar to that of last year with day long attractions for all members of the family at low prices, the post's celebration commission announced yesterday.

Following the resignation of Jerrold Owen as chairman, R. H. Bassett has been stepped up to the chairmanship. O. E. "Mose" Palmer to the vice-chairmanship; Carl D. Gabrielson and Ray J. Stumbo added to the membership. Bassett will serve one year, Palmer two, Gabrielson three and Stumbo four.

Committee chairmen under Bassett are: concessions, Cliff Parker; auxiliary liaison, Herman Brown; first aid, Dr. G. E. Prime; Boy Scouts, Arthur Johnson.

Under Palmer: grounds and police, Claude McKenney; fireworks, Les Wadsworth; lighting, Glen Seely.

Under Gabrielson: finance, Harry Holt; sports, H. V. Collins. Under Stumbo: advertising and publicity, J. T. Delaney; music and entertainment, Hans Hofstetter.

The commission has made tentative plans to repeat the afternoon amateur boxing show conducted successfully last year. Children's sports will take place in the morning, patriotic exercises at 11 a. m., a vaudeville show, fireworks and possibly a dance at night.

The fireworks display this year will have more set pieces and fewer rockets, which can not be seen from the grandstand, the commission has been assured. Negotiations are under way to secure the fairgrounds for the celebration.

The commission has been called to meet in Gabrielson's office, state office building, at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night.

Cold Pack Berry Code Will Await Decision on Code

At a meeting Monday in Portland of the strawberry marketing agreement control board, called to consider naming a price on strawberries for cold pack, it was concluded it was inadvisable to set any price on cold pack strawberries until the situation in Oregon and Washington is clarified from a legal standpoint and on a uniform basis. In Washington the 1933 law was declared unconstitutional and legal action has been instituted against the 1935 law.

J. W. Baxter of Salem, of the code committee, says a joint meeting will be held with canners and processors in Seattle Thursday, May 16, at which time an effort will be made to come to an understanding. He will get a report from that meeting after it is finished.

ESTATE OF PAULUS IS PROBATED HERE

An estate of an estimated value of $42,000 was left by the late Christopher Paulus, 83, according to preliminary papers filed here yesterday when his will was admitted to probate. Fred H. Paulus and Otto K. Paulus are named as joint executors of the will, to serve without bond.

The Paulus building on Court street is willed to the widow, together with a life interest in the home property and $2000 in cash.

The Paulus building on State street is willed to the six sons of the deceased, share and share alike. A $1000 special bequest is made to Otto K. Paulus.

The will provides that any debts owed among the brothers, one to the other, are to be settled against their respective interests in the inheritance and that the property cannot be sold except in its entirety.

The Paulus property on Court street has been occupied by Doughton & Sherwin and the Elliott Drygoods store. The property on State street is occupied by the Wagner confectionery and lunch room.

Nominations for Albert Prize at Willamette Made

Three students were nominated by the faculty of Willamette university yesterday for the Albert prize. This prize award of $25 goes each year to the student having a record for faithful study and scholarship not below the average, who during the school year, has made the greatest progress toward the ideal in character, service and wholesome influence. These are William McKinley of Wasco, Keith Jones of Salem, and "Bronc" Williams of Ilwaco.

The student body will hold a special election two weeks before commencement and vote upon the three nominees.

GRADUATION ATTIRE LACKING FOR SOME

A dozen Salem high school girls are facing commencement exercises with little hope of securing dresses suitable for their appearance in the role of graduating seniors, according to Mrs. Crissa Lama, director of the SERA sewing room at county relief headquarters, 357 North High street. She said that this number of girls, members of unemployed families, had been reported to her in the hope that clothing might be obtained for them.

"Anyone having any dresses or any material suitable for dresses for these girls would make them very happy by letting them have them," Mrs. Lama said. "Our sewing crew can repair or remodel them and give these girls a chance to attend commencement exercises along with the other seniors."

Clothing of all kinds is badly needed for relief families. Persons having any articles or even dress scraps that may be used for dress trimmings to give, may telephone 7138, relief headquarters, and the bundles will be called for.
