Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Fresh and sweet as summer flowers is this attractive afternoon frock. And it's heartening to know that any clever girl can run it up as a bright morning's work. The cost will prove trifling and the results will distinguish you in any circle! Notice how the youthful yoke and front panel are all-of-a-piece. Sleeves are merely a flare over the shoulder. And the sash ties in the back in a graceful bow. There are warm summer days ahead — both at home and on your vacation trip — when you'll crave just such a cool frock as this. We suggest a sheer cotton, voile or chiffon print.

Pattern 2310 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 18 takes 2 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

And now... Anne Adams Summer Patterns Book is ready! Between these covers lie forty pages of fascinating Fashion Facts. Everyone's problem is solved—the Bride with "Trousseau Troubles"—"Mutton" with "Weighty Problems"—"dated" "Junie Debs"—"Tiny Tots at Play"—and Everyone on "Fascinating" Not only will your every stitch be a smarter one, but you'll find you've developed new Smart To-do's! Write after digesting the absorbing special features! Send for your copy today! Price of book fifteen cents. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

QUEEN IS CROWNED AT HUBBARD FETE

HUBBARD, May 11.—The annual May day fete was held Friday at Hubbard high school. Miss Marian McKennie, queen, was crowned by Manton Carl, president of the student body.

She was attended by the Misses Leona Hopkins, Jessie Ingalls, Bessie Ingalls and Gwyneth Scholz. Flower girls were Inez Grimm and Janice Lee McKee; trainbearers, Walter Bradford and Walter Wilmes; crown bearer, Wilfred Wilmes; heralds, Harold Ott and Norman Langellers. The coronation march was played by members of the Hubbard band.

Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Cornell arranged the general order of the day, and the themes for dances, Mrs. Cornell, Mrs. Fry, and Miss Galley supervised the dances, assisted by the teachers of the rooms. Miss Elliot and Miss Friend had charge of the queen's court. The theme of the dances illustrated the time of May Day from the dawn until darkness.

Following the program Mr. Willson had charge of races for the grade school. A basket dinner was served in the play shed under the direction of Mrs. Orle Boje, Mrs. Harold Sargent, Miss Galley and Miss Elliott. Hubbard high school baseball team won from the Colton high team in the afternoon. And the high school second team defeated the grade school team.

Jake Hershberger has sold his place in East Hubbard to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Boyd.

Due to the fact that spring activities are making increased demands upon the members, the Monday club has discontinued its meetings for the present.

An Attractive Jiffy-Knit Cape

A jiffy-knit cape—made in a short time—the last word in smartness—indispensable for comfort at beach or lake, or when motoring! This one is done in a soft wool in bands of plain knitting (on the large needles, of course) alternated with lacy stripes in just every color. Use up any scraps for these stripes—variety of color is the smart thing for sports accessories! The top of the cape is finished in tabs through which a multi-colored knitted rope is drawn. The looseness of the knitting makes the cape soft and yet a small thing to pack up.

Pattern 977 comes to you with detailed directions for making the cape shown; illustrations of it and of all stitches used; material requirements, and color suggestions.

Send 10c in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to The Statesman, Needlecraft Dept.

MAY FESTIVITIES HELD AT STAYTON

STAYTON, May 14.—The annual grade school May day festivities held Friday night in the gym were most colorful. The large stage had been decorated to represent a boat, and the rest of the decorations in the room carried out the idea. Patty Meahen was crowned queen by the grade school principal, V. N. Phelps. Her attendants were Betty Ann Goodie, Doris Crabtree, La Verne Darby, Barbara Waters, Bette Korinek and Marian Follis.

The program consisted of a "Gob and Goblin" sailor drill by the third and fourth grades, directed by Mrs. Aurora Humphreys; "Baby Sailor" drill by 25 of the primary boys, directed by Miss Edna Foy; sailor drill directed by Miss Phyllis Thurston. There were two May poles, one wound by a group of pirates and their women and the other by sailor boys and girls.

A chorus composed of pupils of the upper grades sang three pleasing numbers. An exceptionally large crowd attended.
