Miller and Espin Bombard for Triples in First Inning for Lead

With Miller and Espin socking the apple for three-baggers in the first inning to score two runs—the runs that proved to be the winners—the Salem high baseball team scraped out a 3 to 1 victory over Corvallis high on Olinger field yesterday afternoon. Salem got the jump on "Mush" Torson's team in the first inning. Sherrill put the Corvallis batters down in short order. Salstrom, Salem leadoff hitter, struck out and Steinke drew a pass to first. Miller then put his weight behind the bat for a stinging triple, scoring Steinke. Etzel struck out. Espin connected for the second triple to score Miller. The next Salem batter was out at first to end the extra-base spurge.

Miller got his second extra-base blow in the third to put him in position to score on Leighton's single. Corvallis' one run was also the result of a triple. Daily booming out a three-bagger to shove in Lane. Sam Sherrill had excellent support and only in the sixth were the Corvallis bats able to score. Sherrill struck out five batters. Beavert, Corvallis hurler, held Salem to one hit after the third. Only seven innings were played. Corvallis 4 2 3 Salem 3 7 2 Beavert and Byers; Sherrill and Kelley.

Villain Gets His Deserts In Mat Bout

Bulldog Jackson, grand-daddy of all the means, was outslugged and outgeneralized by Dickie Trout in one of the wildest grappling bouts of the past several weeks, at the armory last night. The Trout-Jackson affair came as the climax of the regular weekly mat card.

Jackson, famous for his punishing holds, grabbed the opening toss when he forced the San Diego sailor to quit to a hammerlock. The Bulldog applied the hammerlock and then stomped on the disabled wrist. The first fall came after both grapplers had been thrown out of the ring several times.

Trout captured the second fall by using a variation of Jackson's trick. Trout stomped on the arm held in a hammerlock while standing on Jackson's throat, shutting off his mind. The second fall came in 5 minutes.

Trout repeated in 6 minutes after both grapplers had used every unorthodox hold known to wrestlers.

Hy Sharmar of Toledo, Ohio, won his semi-final match when he tossed Dorrie Detton of Salt Lake City, out of the ring for the decision fall of the match. Sharmar had taken the first toss and Detton the second. Pulling out of a headlock, Sharmar boosted Detton over the ropes and crashed him to the floor. The Salt Lake City boy was unable to return to the ring.

Caustic Carries on

Why Sandberg wanted double headers revealed at last; his team comes on Friday; golf trophies handsome.

By CAUSTIC
The secret of why Coach Roy Sandberg of College of Puget Sound wanted to make the two game series with Willamette a double-header has long been withheld from a waiting public. Now with the games looming (Friday and Saturday at Olinger field) we will tell all. It is just that double-headers are easy pick-ins for Iron Man Staples and the Puget Sound freshman phenomenon. It seems he can't lose the hard ones. The tougher they are the harder they fall is his motto. He demonstrated it when he won both ends of a double bill against Whitman.

Publicity dope from Tacoma by the Sound, however, says that Staples is out for good. He was spiked badly it seems in the Bellingham Normal series, having broken the rule for pitchers and got on base. This information we pass along, but warn gullible readers of the unscrupulousness of publicity handouts. We will wager that Mr. Iron Man Staples of the nail-chewing Staples will be on the mound for Puget Sound either Friday or Saturday. Spike or no spike, hurlers that win double-headers aren't left at home.

The winners in the Oregon state high school golf tournament which will be played on the Salem course starting Thursday are going to get some snappy looking trophies. About ten teams will participate in the tournament. Eugene with its phenomenal youngster, "Doc" Neer, being a favorite to hang on to its championship. The trophies are on display in the window of Cliff Parker's establishment.

George Erickson, Willamette apple-keeper (pitcher to you) has a unique batting record. In 17 times at bat he has hit only twice. His average is a mere .118. The unique part is that both of his hits were home runs. Manning leads in hitting with a .367.

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 14. — (AP) — The Oregon State college baseball team went on a five-run rampage in the ninth inning to defeat University of Washington 12 to 11 here today.

The win strengthened the Beavers' stand in first place with six victories and only two reverses. It was the fourth consecutive defeat in the state for University of Washington which came here with high hopes and a clean record in the northern division conference race.

OAK POINT, May 14. — Frank Johnson of Hazel Green who owns 100 acres of land in this section, is sowing the field to alsike clover. Johnson has a unique way of sowing the field which is three quarters of a mile long. He is driving his car, with a narrow tied behind and a boy standing on the front bumper of the car sows the clover seed by turning a small hand seeder, that hangs from his shoulder.

Farmers are finishing up their seeding this week and next, and are turning their attention to gardens and small patches to be put out to kale and clover.

Under the supervision of Miss Ethel May Taylor, critic teacher, and Miss Dayton, primary critic teacher, the pupils of the school went to Monmouth Friday by bus, to take part in the Polk county grade school music festival, under the auspices of the Oregon Normal school in the auditorium.

Miss Didrikson's disbarment, paralleling the case of Mary K. Browne in 1926, was precipitated by her entry in the women's southern championship to be played in Louisville next week, following recent victory in the Texas state women's tournament.

With Don Champ of Stayton pitching in fine form and Bill Bevins of Hubbard running into trouble, Stayton took a 2 to 0 lead in the first inning and increased it to 6 to 1 in the sixth. Bevins had retired in favor of Knight in the third.

In the last half of the sixth Hubbard began hitting; scored four runs in that session, tied the score in the seventh and scored three in the eighth. Stayton could score no more after the sixth.

Top Ranking College Ball Teams of Northwest Will Clash; First Game Friday

Two baseball teams that have ample grounds to lay claim to being the best college clubs in the northwest will clash here Friday and Saturday when the Willamette Bearcats meet the Puget Sound Loggers in a two-game series to determine the winner of the western division of the Northwest conference. The winner will play Whitman, champion of the eastern division by virtue of making a sweep of an eight-game series with College of Idaho, in the conference play-off at Walla Walla May 23, 24 and 25.

Both teams have unusual records. Willamette, now on the peak of a seven-game winning streak, has won eight and lost one. The Loggers, until they dropped a game to University of Portland last week, had won nine straight. Against Coast conference competition each has shown superiority. Willamette took two from Oregon State and split with Oregon. The Loggers took one from Washington State and tied and shut out the University of Washington.

With both teams boasting tight fielding, the deciding factor is liable to be in the hurling department. With a staff of five dependable right-handers, Coach Roy Sandberg has the edge. The C. P. S. mound staff includes "Iron Man" Staples, who won both ends of a double header with Whitman; Jess Brooks, negro fullback and pitcher who blanked Washington 5 to 0; Larry Ragan and Otto Smith, a veteran.

Since Linfield was not on the Bearcat schedule this season Willamette will have played less games than the Loggers and can afford to lose neither of the contests, while the Sounders can drop one with safety. Don Burch will pitch one of the games and may be called upon to hurl all or a part of the other. George Erickson has been flashing improved form lately and is in top condition.

While Coach Sandberg thinks his infield combination of Plouf at shortstop and Milroy at second is a little bit of all right, Coach Keene also has a sweet short-second layout in Harriman and Orac.

In a practice game yesterday the Bearcat regulars were humbled 4 to 3 by an all-star scrub aggregation with Burch hurling for the scrubs until relieved by Spec Keene.

Scrubs 4 3 2 Bearcats 3 5 2 Burch, Keene and Moe; Erickson and Mills.
