Delphians in Last Session for Season

THE Sigma Nu Delphians assembled in the gardens of Mrs. Charles Cole's home on Monday for luncheon and the last meeting until next September. Mrs. W. E. Feldman was a joint hostess.

Large striped umbrellas made a picturesque setting for the small tables on the green lawn. The speaker's table was centered with red peonies.

Mrs. James Heltzel presided as supervisor and topics were given on Italian stories of the Renaissance period.

Mrs. Ray Yocum was an additional guest. Members in attendance were Mrs. Hugh Latham, Mrs. George Rossman, Mrs. George King, Mrs. D. T. Jenks, Mrs. L. L. Dabry, Mrs. R. D. Paris, Mrs. C. E. Roblin, Mrs. G. S. Paxson, Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mrs. W. A. Merritt, Mrs. J. C. Perry, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. James Heltzel, Mrs. L. D. Griffith, Mrs. A. C. Gragg, Mrs. C. H. Glenn, Mrs. Oscar Cutler, Mrs. Dale Newman, Mrs. F. A. Erickson and the hostesses, Mrs. Ray Cole and Mrs. W. E. Feldman.

B & P W Club Happy Over Success

The Salem Business and Professional Women's club is rejoicing over the success of its chorus in the contest held in The Dalles Saturday night, between choruses from The Dalles, Portland, McMinnville, Klamath Falls and Salem.

The Salem chorus won first place for the second time, and will this year be sent to the biennial convention of the national federation, to represent the state federation.

Salem club is also much gratified that Mrs. Winifred Herrick, past president of the local club, was elected state president, Mrs. Faith Kimball Black was made state corresponding secretary, and Miss Helen Louise Crosby was made state delegate to the national biennial convention to be held in Seattle.

Women of the Knight Memorial church will hold a tea meeting in the social room at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Thomas Teeson is chairman.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Make it in percale for a morning frock! Make it in novelty cotton, shantung or pique for a sports frock! And then make it again in silk crepe for an afternoon frock! This pattern will make a charming frock for nearly any summer daytime occasion. Its lines are particularly good for the "not-to-slim" figure. Moreover, it can be run up before the clock moves round. Note both versions of the flattering collar. Pleated sleeves, a kick pleat, and cleverly placed fullness all contribute to the charm. Two or three frocks of this pattern will prove class in your wardrobe.

Pattern 2315 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 4 3/8 yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Celery en Casserole is Suggested For Food Entry

Celery combines well with other vegetables or meat into attractive casserole dishes. If you have a good celery recipe prepared in a casserole, send it to the Round Table editor of The Statesman before Thursday noon, May 23.

Any celery recipe is eligible. A first prize of $1 in cash and two second prizes consisting of recipe boxes complete with filling cards will be awarded Friday morning.

More beet and onion recipes follow:

Stuffed Beets

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 6 beets
- 2 green peppers
- 2 tablespoons bread crumbs
- 1/2 teaspoon onion juice
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Water cross

Select six smooth beets of uniform size and cook in boiling salted water until tender. Peel, remove root end and remove center, leaving shell about half an inch thick. Remove stems and seeds from peppers. Cover peppers with boiling water ten minutes. Dice them with scooped out beet, add butter, bread crumbs and seasonings. Mix and divide into the beet shells. Dot with butter and bake in a moderate oven 20 minutes. Serve garnished with water cross. Serves six people.

Stuffed Onions

- 6 medium sized onions
- 6 tablespoons bread crumbs
- Salt and pepper
- Boiling water to moisten
- 1/2 cup nut meats
- 1 tablespoon butter

Remove outer skins of onions and parboil 10 minutes. Remove inside with fork or spoon. Chop fine. Place chopped centers in a sauce pan and mix with crumbs, nuts, seasoning and 1 tablespoon butter. Moisten with boiling water and cook 5 minutes. A creamy substance should be the result. Refill the shells and sprinkle with buttered crumbs over the top. Brown in the oven.

Beet Soup

- 1 bunch small young beets
- 2 egg yolks, beaten
- 1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
- Salt
- Sweet or sour cream

Wash with a vegetable brush the firm leaves and beets. Put all through the food chopper. Simmer gently for 1/4 hour in about 1 pint of water to 1 bunch of beets. Add egg yolks gradually to beets, spoonful at a time so as to avoid curdling. Add salt and lemon juice. Spices such as cloves may be dipped in to give more flavor if desired. This is delicious served either hot or cold with either sweet or sour cream. The cream lends an attractive coloring.

Beet Relish

- 1 cup chopped, cold cooked beets
- 2 tablespoons cream
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 teaspoons powdered sugar
- Salt to taste

Mix ingredients in order given. Canned beets may be used and bottled horseradish if of strong flavor and well drained. Serves three generously.

Mrs. C. A. Stuart

Vegetable Salad

- 1 cup Refoged string beans
- 1 cup finely sliced cucumbers
- 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
- 1/2 cup French dressing

Mix all the ingredients and serve on a lettuce leaf. If ordinary string beans are used, slice them in strips.

Miss Heenan Married Monday Morning

Miss Mary Heenan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Heenan, was married to Karl Barr, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Barr, at a nuptial mass yesterday morning in St. Joseph's Catholic church at 6 o'clock.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was garbed in a navy blue suit trimmed with blue fox. She wore a blue hat and accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Madette Heenan was maid of honor for her sister. She was also dressed in blue with a corsage of Cecil Brunner roses and sweet peas. Henry Barr was best man.

A breakfast followed the ceremony at the Marion hotel. After a wedding trip to San Francisco, the couple will reside in Salem. They will be at home after June 15 at 274 N. 20th street.

Mrs. Barr is a graduate of Sacred Heart academy. Mr. Barr is a graduate of Notre Dame university and is now in business here.

The Thimble club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold a benefit card party this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lottie Townsend, 240 D street, 2 o'clock. Both bridge and 500 will be played.

Miss Winifred McGill, formerly of Willamette university, is in the city for a short visit. She is a house guest of Mrs. De Autremont at 1130 Chemeketa.

Miss Dorothy Ann Gordon spent the weekend in Portland.

Those invited from the capital city are Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Paul Wallis, Mrs. Russell Callin, Mrs. Frank Speaks, Mrs. Homer Goulet, Mrs. Henry Meyers, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. Frank Snedecor and Mrs. George A. White.

Cap and Gown Asks Public to Social

Cap and Gown, senior women's honorary of Willamette university, will sponsor an ice cream social at Chresto Cottage on the campus Tuesday from 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon to 8:30 p. m. in the evening. It is an annual benefit for Chresto Cottage.

Guests will be served at small tables which will be set up in Chresto and on the lawn near the cottage. The public and all friends of the University are invited to attend.

Cap and Gown honored Dean Kate Jameson and the Mortar Board women of Oregon State college with a luncheon at the Jennie Lind Thursday noon. The guests, Dean Jameson, dean of women at O. S. C., Miss Mary Whitelaw, Miss Betty Steel, and Miss Gertrude Van Wanning, motored to Salem to attend the formal Cap and Gown pledge service in chapel at which Dean Jameson was the guest speaker.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Dean Olive Dahl, Miss Nova Hedlin, Mrs. Harriet Burdette, Miss Selma Katahane, Miss Edith Sidwell and Miss Clara Wright.

W.R.C. Has Luncheon on Saturday

The Argo hotel was the scene of a luncheon Saturday afternoon given by the Woman's Relief corps for department officers. Red peonies graced the tables.

A short program followed at Miller's hall which was prettily decorated with baskets of snowballs and roses.

Honored guests at the luncheon included Comrade Gideon Stolz, Mrs. Ellenore M. Zeller of Portland, Mrs. Georgia Hagerup of Astoria, Mrs. Minnie T. Horseman, Mrs. Lenna Sweetland, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Olsen, Mrs. Beatrice Little, all of Portland, and Mrs. Bessie Aldridge of Oregon City.

Gin Prosperity Club Scheme of High School Lads

Whether it's gin or milk that Salem high school students like best is a bit obscured but both were mentioned in a burlesque on the chain letter fad which some student with a bump of humor has tacked on the school bulletin board. Labeled "Prosperity Club" in true chain letter style, it lists names and addresses of five students and then announces, "This is a chain letter." Instructions follow:

"Send one pint of gin to the top name and put your name on the bottom."
"You will receive 15,682 pints of gin soon. Make four copies and give to the liquor store."
"Don't break chain or we break your neck."
"Is this worth a pint of milk?"

Second Vote on Albert Prize is Needed at W.U.
Willamette university students voted yesterday on the annual Albert prize, yell king and song queen. Results of voting call for a re-vote between Keith Jones and William McKinney for the Albert prize.

Anna May Unrath, sophomore, was elected song queen for the next school year, and William Hansen yell king.

The Albert prize, amounting to $25, is given annually to the student who in the mind of the faculty and student body has made the greatest progress during the current school year in studies and character.

Brush Creek—L. H. Meyer and daughter, Miss Althea Meyer, motored to Hubbard Sunday to be present at a no-host birthday dinner honoring Alvin Williams and uncle of Miss Meyer. Others present at the dinner included Mrs. Williams, Mrs. P. S. Moberg and Corinne Moberg of Scotts Mills and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Williams of Detroit.

Turner—Mrs. Emily Van Santen entertained the crossday night informally for a group of friends: Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Townsend and Mrs. Warren of Salem, Miss Ruth Clark of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Stewart, Miss Clarissa Clark, Miss Helen Peetz, William Bradford and C. T. White.

Misses Betty and Peggy assisted their mother in serving.

SUCCESSFUL YOUTH REMAINS GRATEFUL

"Benefactress" is Visited by Northrup; Aided to Attend Willamette

The story of a mountain boy who has climbed in a few years to success in his chosen work was revealed here yesterday by the woman whom the young man himself calls his "first benefactress."

When Allen Northrup, reared in the mountains in Washington, first came here in the fall of 1927 to enter Willamette university, he was so inexperienced that this woman hesitated to let him have a job as janitor at her home.

Northrup's mother actually came and pleaded that he be allowed to work—for without working, college was an impossibility. And so, though he didn't even know how to turn on gas or electricity, he got the job. And quickly proved his worth, doing more than the job required.

"I remember once when he got up at 4 a. m. to spread some crushed rock for me before he went to do an odd job elsewhere," recalls the woman.

Allen worked and carried on his studies at Willamette, and after some months of janitor service, he got a job working at the Blue Bird until 2 a. m. It was not only many months later that Mrs. Winnie Pettyjohn, in whose home he worked as janitor in exchange for a basement apartment, discovered that the meals she often invited him to consisted about all his food in his early days at the university.

His stay at Willamette was marred by a tragedy which claimed the lives of his parents. A boy, taken into the Hellison, Wash., home by the parents, planted dynamite under their home and in the explosion, both father and mother were killed.

Northrup did not finish Willamette, but from here entered Washington State college at Pullman, so those interested in him here lost touch with him.

Sunday, a well-dressed young man alighted from a shining limousine in front of the Pettyjohn home. It was Allen Northrup, stopping enroute north. His wife and baby and a maid were traveling with him. He now owns, he told Mrs. Pettyjohn, his own cat and dog hospital in San Francisco.

Incidentally, his marriage was the culmination of a romance started on the campus here.

Columbine Gardens to Be Open
The Columbine gardens of Miss M. S. Creighton, at Jonesmere Farm, will be open to the public Saturday and Sunday, May 25 and 26, from two to eight p. m.

Jonesmere Farm is located in Mission Bottom, ten miles north of Salem, on the cross road between Waconda on the Champeog highway, and the Wheatland Ferry road.

Daughters of Union Veterans will meet Friday night in the office of Mrs. Myra Shank at 8 o'clock. A no-host supper will follow. There will be an apron show for Barbara Fritchle tent.

Chadwick chapter, O.E.S., is inviting all past matrons and past patrons in the city to its meeting tonight in the Masonic temple where they will be honored guests.

Ennis Pupils to Offer Program
Friday night at 8:00 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A., the pupils of Miss Clara Eness, instructor of music at Willamette university will present a musical program. This is the regular Friday night program sponsored by the Y. M. C. A. The public is invited, and there is no charge.
