Collars in Crochet are Flattering

CROCHETED NECKWEAR PATTERN 929

What is softer and more flattering than a lacy crocheted collar? Take your choice, for here are three very different styles. The frilly one with a cascading jabot is lovely in cotton. The round one is very smart in petit boucle, though it also looks lovely in colored string. The third can be worn as shown or around the other way, when it becomes a sailor collar. This, too, is lovely in cotton. So make last summer's dress look like new with this neckwear!

Pattern 929 comes to you with detailed directions for making the collars as shown; illustrations of them and of all stitches used; material requirements. Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to The Oregon Statesman Needlecraft Dept.

Silverton — In compliment to Miss Estora Ricks, bride-elect of Hal Moe of Corvallis, Mrs. R. E. Kleinsorge asked in a small group of friends for dessert Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. The table was lovely with its lace cloth and crystal service.

Veal Recipe Contest Ends Day Later, Friday Noon

Send your favorite veal recipe to the Round Table editor today because tomorrow you will be too busy with Memorial day observance and the contest closes Friday noon. An extra day is allowed this week to take care of the holiday.

Remember that any type of recipe is welcome just so it calls for veal or tells how to prepare the meat in an appetizing way for the table.

Celery tastes mighty good these warm days and there are some novel ways to prepare it: Celery-Macaroni Salad 8 cups cooked macaroni 4 pimientos or 10 cent can, chopped fine 3 hard-boiled eggs, cut in small cubes 1/2 cup chopped stuffed olives 1 teaspoon salt Dash of black pepper 1 cup chopped celery 1/2 cup mayonnaise or more Boil macaroni in salted water until thoroughly done. Drain and rinse and drain well. Cool and put in a big mixing bowl. Add celery, olives, pimientos, salt and pepper. Mix with the mayonnaise. Add eggs last so they won't crumble. Serve on lettuce leaf or any way desired. More eggs may be used. Mrs. Ferdinand Boyer Route 1, Box 223 onion, parsley and butter into a saucepan. Add 1/2 cup water and let cook slowly under cover until dry, stirring often to prevent scorching. Add water and potato, sliced thin. Salt to taste and let boil rapidly until vegetables are well done and broken up. Remove the parsley, rub the remainder through a colander. Add the cracker crumbs, rolled fine, and boil up once. Add hot cream or milk. Strain again, salt to taste and serve hot. Four generous servings. Mrs. J. M. Wagner 183 S. 18th

Celery and Ham 2 stalks celery 1 cup cream 4 slices cooked ham Seasonings Wash and cut in pieces the celery and cut the cooked ham in pieces. Boil celery in salted water 15 minutes and bring cream to a boil while celery is cooking. Drain off water from celery. Put celery, ham, cream and seasonings in a baking dish. Bake in a hot oven about 6 minutes and serve. Mrs. Monte Harris Route 1, Box 223

BUTZER IS ACCUSER AND ALSO ACCUSED

A St. Paul man, Henry Butzer, found himself both private prosecutor and accused as result of an episode at his place of business Sunday.

Butzer signed a complaint charging Alphone Van Damme of riotous and disorderly conduct, reported here to be due to too much beer. And allegedly for selling alcoholic liquor to a person under 21, one Arthur Van Damme, Butzer was arrested. Arthur and Alphone are brothers.

On the disorderly conduct charge, young Van Damme admitted guilt and on recommendation of the district attorney the case was continued 30 days for passing sentence, with the defendant released on his own recognizance. Butzer denied the selling charge, and will have trial June 5 at 1:30 o'clock, pending which time he was allowed to go on his own recognizance.

Pete Sullivan's Pardon Revoked; New Case Cause

Governor Martin Tuesday revoked a conditional pardon granted to Pete Sullivan on February 9, 1934, after he had served part of a life term in the state penitentiary for first degree murder in Klamath county.

Sullivan was received at the penitentiary on February 9, 1925. He was arrested recently at Burns on a robbery charge. Officials said he would be returned to the penitentiary.
