Today's Games Bend at Salem, Olinger field, 2:30 p. m. Hop Golds at Albany. Toledo at Eugene.

Out of the lava country the Bend Elks will come today to invade Salem for the first time in this Oregon State baseball league season, and will attempt to be one of the three state league teams which will again be tied for first place after today's contests. "Frisco" Edwards' rejuvenated Senators will have something to say about this, however. The bevy of ball-playing Bearcats that make up two-thirds of the Senator nine are ready to take on any aggregation of former Coast leaguers. Edwards will use the same combination that slammed the door in the face of the Albany Alco-Oaks last Sunday.

Johnny Beck is slated to hurl for the Senators with Bill Moye receiving his offerings. The rest of the batting order will include: Manning, first base; Oravec, second; Harriman, shortstop; Beard, third; Nicholson, left field; Aden, center field and Gribble, right field.

Last Sunday the inoculation of Bearcat blood into the Senators gave them the pep they had been lacking before as they hit lustily to set down the strong Alco nine 7 to 0. Ken Manning led off the list of hefty hitters with a home run and a triple while Jimmy Nicholson, Dwight Aden, John Oravec, Bill Moye and Vinnie Harriman all did their part at the plate.

Paul Gehrman, a husky righthander, is expected to do the are created free and equal. Althrowing for the Elks although though it is possible that the

By CAUSTIC Today is a fine time not to go driving about up in northeastern Oregon in a tan sedan. If you are starting out this morning for a little jaunt in the upper right hand corner of this state and are planning on driving your old brindle-colored hack, the advice of this department is to postpone operations for a week or so. Conditions aside from being inclement are downright bad for tan sedans and you might meet up with a jittery state copper who would ruin a perfectly good

The Albany team will run up against Ray Brooks' Hop Golds who have shown signs of making good on early season predictions that they would dominate the State league race. Toledo will play Eugene which has got rid of the handcap of starting without sufficient practice and is apparently going great guns.

Harry Elliott, popular grappling referee, will return to the local tear and tangle arena Tuesday after an absence of several months to take on the terror of Lyons and Sewell; Rowe and the tundras, Bulldog Jackson, in the one-hour main event.

The handsome Elliott is a prime favorite with the fans because he is a clean wrestler and because he looks more or less like some god that the Greeks had a word for. On the opposite side of the emotional zone is Mr. Bulldog Jackson, who incites the hatred of the mob because of his ungentlemanly tactics and because he has a pan that even the Greeks couldn't have a word for. Dillon Powers, Canadian grappler, will feel the call of the wild when he meets up with Rob Roy, Michigan whirlwind, in the semi-final event. Roy received a had gash over an eye last week when he lost to Dorrie Detton, but the wound is well healed.
