Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
There are a hundred things you'll be doing this summer. Vacationing and week-ending. Such simple things as tramping through the green country, lazing in a canoe, flashing about a tennis court! And you'll like them all better and with more comfort if you have deponair, casual frocks like pattern 2322 to change into! The yoke-sleeve is so cool and brief with its slashed detail; the bodice so charmingly feminine. The four skirt pleats provide for ample freedom and you'll like the diversity of fabric the easy pattern allows! One of darker toned plaid seersucker for instance; another of shantung, and one of a dainty pastel crepe.

Pattern 2322 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coin postage) for the Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

And now... Anne Adams Summer Pattern Book is ready! Between its covers the forty pages of fascinating Fashion Facts. Everyone's problem is solved—the Bride with Troussaint Trouble—Matrons with Wedding Problems—such "dated" Junior Deb—Tiny Tots at Play—and Everyone on Vacation! Not only will you every stitch be a smarter one, but you'll find you've developed a new Smart Point-of-View after digesting the absorbing special features! Send for your copy today! Price of Book 15 cents. Book and Pattern together, 25 cents.

Address order to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to.

Orders customarily are filled within four days from the time received by The Statesman.

Miss Taylor Bride of Mr. Reilly

The marriage of Miss Nina Louise Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Taylor, to Lloyd D. Reilly, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Reilly, was solemnized Saturday night at 8 o'clock in the fireplac room of the Knight Memorial church.

Rev. Howard C. Stover read the service before the lighted fire flanked by huge baskets of syringa. The room was lovely with baskets of pink peonies, yellow and pink roses. Preceding the ceremony James P. Smart sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied on the organ by Donald Allison, who played the wedding march.

The bride wore a powder-blue wool suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of Cecil Brunner roses and pink and white sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Miss Betty Taylor. Mr. Reilly was attended by his brother-in-law, Eugene Kennedy.

A reception followed the simple wedding ceremony. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Eugene Kennedy, Mrs. Rollin Beaver, Mrs. Eugene Grabenhorst, Miss Anna Mae Grabenhorst, and Mrs. John Etter, Mrs. H. E. McWain and Mrs. I. M. Twedt arranged the flowers.

After a short trip to Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. Reilly will be at home at 1716 South High street.

Mrs. Lobdell Speaker for Society

The W. H. M. S. of the First M. E. church will convene Wednesday at 2:15 o'clock in the church parlors. Mrs. George Lewis and her group are arranging the program.

Mrs. F. M. Lobdell, who has spent 20 years among the Manobo Indians, will be the principal speaker. Miss Mildred Cook, graduate of the Deaconess training school of Kansas City, Mo., will tell of her work.

Mrs. Lena Lisle and Mrs. A. B. Evans are planning special music.

Chapter G Meets at Moore Home

Mrs. W. W. Moore will open her home to Chapter G, P. E. O. Sisterhood, Thursday afternoon for a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon. Mrs. Gardner Knapp is the hostess.

The ritual will be exemplified and the topic for discussion will be tapestries. Mrs. A. Schramm and Mrs. W. M. Smith will give short talks.

Buffet Supper at Baxter Home Wednesday

DR. AND MRS. BRUCE BAXTER are setting a precedent this week by inviting the entire senior class to a buffet supper at their home Wednesday night at 5 o'clock. The president's reception scheduled Friday night is a traditional affair but a supper for the seniors is something new.

With weather permitting, the serving tables will be set in the trellis house of the garden. Miss Jessie Wain will mingle with the guests during the supper hour and Miss Jewel Miller will preside at the coffee urn. A string orchestra will play.

Tomato Recipes Invited By Round Table Editor

The use of tomatoes or tomato juice in molded salads adds both color and flavor. Any recipe calling for tomatoes in any form, whether cooked, canned, fresh or the juice is wanted at the Round Table this week.

Three cash prizes are awarded weekly to the best recipes. The contest closes Thursday noon, June 6.

Here are more real ideas:

Baked Veal Cutlets

2 1/2 lbs. veal cutlets
1 cup bread crumbs
1/2 cup flour
1 salt and pepper
2 tablespoons shortening
1 cup milk
pinch soda
6 sweet potatoes, peeled

The cutlets should be cut about 1 1/4 inch thick. Dredge cutlets in flour, dip in 1/2 cup milk, then in bread crumbs, flour, salt and pepper mixed. Melt shortening in skillet and brown the breaded cutlet well on both sides. Place in pan and add the half cup of milk with a pinch of soda. Surround with sweet potatoes. Cover and bake in a slow oven, 275 degrees for 1 1/2 hours. Serves 6.

Mrs. M. Harris, Route 1, Box 223.

Veal Timbales

2 tablespoons butter
1 cup stale bread crumbs
2 1/2 cups milk
4 cups chopped cooked veal
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
8 eggs
salt and pepper

Melt the butter, add the bread crumbs and the milk and cook five minutes, stirring constantly. Add the veal, the chopped parsley and the eggs, beaten slightly. Season with salt and pepper. Fill buttered individual molds 2/3 full and set in a pan of hot water. Cover with buttered paper and bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven, 375 degrees. Serves 12.

Mrs. C. O. Boyce, 1870 Market.

Carolina Meat Pie

1 lb. diced shoulder of veal
2 tablespoons flour
1 small ham hock
2 tablespoons butter or fryings
2 large carrots cut into slices
2 onions, diced
1 quart boiling water or meat stock
1 cup tomatoes
5 potatoes cubed coarsely
salt and pepper

Dredge the diced meat in the flour. Heat the fryings in a heavy skillet and brown the meat slightly. The ham if used should have been parboiled and skinned before dicing. Add the carrots, onions, boiling water and potatoes. Season to taste with salt and pepper, cover and cook slowly until meat is tender. Add the potatoes and continue cooking. The stew should be rich and slightly thickened. Pour into a broad shallow baking pan immediately and cover with a rich pie crust or thin sheet of biscuit dough. Bake in a hot oven 20 to 25 minutes. Serve at once.

Mrs. Ben Thomas, Route 2, Box 322.

Veal Cutlets Supreme

6 veal chops
1 cup bread crumbs
1 small onion or 1 button garlic
1/4 teaspoon celery salt
1 egg
a little pepper
1 cup sweet milk

Make a dressing of the crumbs, onion and celery salt with pepper to taste and moisten with the well beaten egg. Brown the chops in a skillet on both sides. Divide the dressing into 6 parts and form on top of each chop, roll in cracker crumbs and put back in skillet. Add the milk and sprinkle with paprika. Cover and steam for 20 minutes. Garnish with any seasonable cooked vegetable. Serve six.

W. C. O'Neil, 740 D Street.

Woodburn.—Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Hefling, who are moving to Salem in the near future, were given a surprise party at their home on Third street Thursday night. Games and music were enjoyed until a late hour and refreshments served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hanauka, Mr. and Mrs. Max Warring, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Covey, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Van Dehey, Mrs. Theo Nehl, Mrs. Joseph Kust, Jr., Joseph Kust, Jr., Margaret Jackson, Georgia Cole, Dorothy Covey, Carolyn Mathison, Elmer Allyn, Orval Wilson, Ethel Hanauka, Hild Durkin, John Werner, Mrs. Beulah Shields and the honor guests.

The Homemakers' Exchange club is planning a picnic to be held at the Silverton park Friday. Members are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. James Livesay, where cars will be available for transportation of all members and their families who wish to attend.

The Woman's Unitarian Alliance will hold a business session and tea with Mrs. L. C. Marshall, 1775 Saginaw street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. June birthdays will be observed.
