

CLUBS INVITED TO SCHOOL ON COOKING

Church Questionnaire Aims To Learn Needs of Community

HAZEL GREEN, June 5.—The Nemo and Sunshine Sewing clubs are invited to join the Hayesville Women's club in a cooking school at the Hayesville schoolhouse Thursday at 1:30 o'clock.

The Sunday school will present a children's day program June 9 at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Ross Miles is chairman of committee. The Otterbein Guild will meet at the W. W. Rutherford home, Misses Edna and Daisy hostesses, Sunday afternoon, June 9, at 2:30 o'clock for the quarterly business and love offering meeting. The church is circulating a questionnaire that the work may be reorganized to meet the need of the community more effectively.

Mayor H. Mathys, a retired army officer, and Mrs. Mathys and grandchildren of Vancouver, Wash., were Sunday guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Wortman. Mr. Wortman is former pastor of the church.

Emil Lundstrom of Cumberland, Wis., will be a summer guest at the Julius Slatum home. Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Wormoth of Los Angeles arrived late Friday to visit his mother, Jennie Wormoth, who has been seriously ill at home of her son-in-law, A. L. Van Cleave. Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave were hosts to a family dinner Sunday honoring the Wormoths.

Rev. J. Hashimoto, pastor of Salem Japanese church, is attending the Methodist conference at Los Angeles. Mr. Hashimoto occupies a cottage near James Yada.

Coast Mennonites to Gather for 15th Annual Conference

WOODBURN, June 5.—About 800 Mennonites are expected to gather at the Church of God camp grounds near Woodburn June 10 for the 15th annual Mennonite conference of the Pacific coast district. Hopewell church will act as hosts for the visitors. There will be delegates from as far east as Dakota and from California. The session will continue for four days.

Mrs. L. A. Beckman and children, Robert, Muriel and Joan, left Saturday for Eugene where they will make their home. Mrs. Beckman will continue her studies in music at the university and will give private lessons.

The garden club will meet at the home of Mrs. Mary Whitman Sunday evening, June 11. Sidney Johnson of the Smith-Hinches department of the Woodburn high school faculty will speak on soils and preparation for planting.

Voters Favor $3000 Loan To Build School Addition

HAYESVILLE, June 5.—At a meeting in the schoolhouse Monday night, June 3, the residents voted a 1 m o s t unanimously to grant the school board authority to borrow a sum of money not to exceed $3000 with which to build and equip a room to be added to the school.

The school has been overcrowded for several years and the school board is hopeful of having the new room complete before school opens in the fall.

Monday night, June 17, there will be a school meeting at the schoolhouse to elect a clerk and one director.

Mrs. Elizabeth Siddell returned Friday from a three weeks' motor trip to Ames, Iowa. She reported seeing more rain during her trip than she had seen in Oregon for some time before leaving.

There was much worry over the strawberry crop in this district as a great many patches were observed to have wormy berries. The worm is a white one similar to a cut worm and lies under the stem, sometimes burrowing through the berry.

Some of the berries were rejected at the canneries but the later pickings seem to be almost free from worms.

Two daughters from McMinnville were weekend guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. deLespinasse.

EN ROUTE TO COLORADO SILVERTON, June 5.—Thelma Henderson, who was graduated in May from the Silvertown senior high school, left Wednesday for Portland where she will make a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Melissa Goldberg, and then go on to Denver, Colo., to visit a sister, brother and her father.
