5-RUN RALLY IN 9TH TELLS TALE

Salem in Lead From First; Furukawa Yields but 4 Hits Till Ninth

Staging a five run rally in the ninth inning the Woodburn junior league team defeated the Salem juniors 7 to 6 on Olinger field yesterday afternoon in the second game of the Marion county play-off.

The Salem Jays were in the lead from the first inning with scores in the first, second and fourth. The game was apparently on ice when four singles in the eighth produced three runs for Salem but the Woodburn bats plus Salem errors effectively melted the ice in the next frame.

Miles started it out when he got on base on an outfield error. Knight walked and then Lee tripped to right to bring in the men on base. The next batter struck out and then Arland hit to left for a double. Syster struck out, Gant walked and then Bonney and Arland both scored on another outfield error to end the merry-go-round performance.

Max Furukawa did a good job of chucking for the Salem team with only four hits against him until the fatal ninth. In the ninth he issued two walks and gave two hits.

Salem's three run rally in the eighth came on singles by Skopli, Stone, Williams and Furukawa. The Salem batters gained ten safe blows off Knight, Woodburn pitcher. Knight struck out eight batters and Furukawa seven.

Salem's infield of Williams, first; Gentzkow, second; Keidatz, short, and Stone, third, performed effectively and turned in an errorless record.

Dizzy Told To Change His Tactics

PITTSBURGH, June 5.—(AP)—Frankie Frisch, manager of the world champion St. Louis Cardinals, tonight dismissed as "so much popoff" the tirade of Dizzy Dean against his teammates as an outgrowth of the row on the Cardinal bench during yesterday's game with the Pirates.

At the same time Frisch served notice on his star pitcher that he must change his tactics and concentrate on playing baseball or suffer the consequences. "Dean is lucky he didn't get a stiff fine as a result of the way he acted," said Frisch. "Yesterday was the climax. He wasn't doing his best out there in the box and he knows it. He has twice in previous games with the Pirates disobeyed my instructions and pitched wrong to Arky Vaughan, with the result we lost both games. He seems to think he can throw the ball past the good hitters, just because he's Dizzy Dean. That's not baseball and he can't play that way for me."

"We've got a great bunch of hustlers on this club and when Dean says some of them are jealous of him or not giving him the right support, he's just letting off so much hot air. "Dizzy can pop off all he likes just so he goes in there whenever I want him to pitch and does his job right."

Mrs. A. Rowe Struck Down Crossing Street

SILVERTON, June 5.—Mrs. A. Rowe, an elderly pedestrian, was knocked down and received minor injuries last night when Helen Elton, turning her car from South Water street to cross the Main street bridge, ran into her. Mrs. Rowe suffered bruises, cuts on her legs and neck, and was ordered to bed for a day or so. The driver of the car reported she was blinded by the sun and did not see Mrs. Rowe.

Aga Khan's Horse Wins at Epsom

EPSON JOWNS, England, June 5.—(AP)—Coming from behind in the final quarter like a truly great champion, the Aga Khan's unbeaten Bahram took the measure of 15 of the English turf's ranking three year olds in the 166th running of the derby over Epsom's rolling rain-soaked downs today. The heavily backed Bahram, quoted at 5 to 4, stepped across the finish line at the end of the mile and a half two lengths clear of the 50 to 1 shot, Sir Abe Bailey's Robin Goodfellow. Another half length to the rear came Lord Astor's Field Trial, followed by Theft, also flying the green and brown silks of the Aga Khan. ## Northwest, National Open Tournaments Will Start Today

YAKIMA, Wash., June 5.—(AP)—About 40 of the leading professional and amateur golfers of Washington, Oregon and British Columbia will officially open the 1935 tournament season here tomorrow when they begin firing for the Pacific northwest open championship.

It was a small field but classy. All of the finest shotmakers of the district with the exception of Harry Givan and Scotty Campbell, Seattle amateurs, and Ted Longworth, Portland pro, were on hand today, putting in their final practice licks under a sweltering sun of 95 degrees.

The amateurs, however, still were strongly supported with Eddie Hogan, Portland ace, defend-

BOWERMAN CHOSEN AS MEDFORD COACH

MEDFORD, June 5.—(AP)—Medford high school called one of its own products home when Bill Bowerman, football and track coach of Franklin high school of Portland, was named head coach of Medford high.

E. H. Hedrick, school superintendent, tonight announced the selection of Bowerman to replace Darwin Burgher who resigned recently to take another coaching position.

While at Medford high Bowerman was an all-around athlete and in college was a luminary both in football and in middle distance running.

Upon graduation from University of Oregon Bowerman went directly to Franklin high where he has coached a year.

Filling of the Medford coaching position takes care of all the vacancies this year in larger schools of the state. An unusual amount of shifting occurred this spring.

NEW YORK, June 5.—(AP)—Cherokee Bob Johnson, the Athletics clouting king, belted his 13th home run of the season when it counted for most today and as a result the seventh-place Athletics defeated the league-leading Yankees 9 to 7.

Johnson, the big league leader in home run hitting, produced today's wallop in the fourth inning just after Vito Tamulis, Yankee southpaw, had retired from the hill in favor of Fordham Johnny Murphy, leaving the bases filled. The blow provided a climax for a five-run rally and gave the little Lithuanian his first defeat of the season after five triumphs.

Auto Racers to Buzz Round Rose Bowl on Sunday

The sensational events that featured Bobbie Rowe's auto racing meet Decoration day will probably be repeated Sunday at the Portland promoter stages another of his 1935 series at the Speed Bowl track. More accidents than had been witnessed at any previous meet this season were sprinkled throughout the program as the dare-devil drivers battled for points toward the northwest championship and only some spectacular work by the pilots prevented serious injury.

A full list of entries from Washington, Oregon and California, including the pilots in last week's accidents, will again be on hand for the program, Rowe has announced, and time trials start at 1 p. m.
