PEO Tea Today 4 to 6 p. m. At Studio

The delightful studio of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts will be opened to women of the state P. E. O. convention this afternoon for an informal tea following the scenic garden drive. Hours are from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Downstairs pastel bouquets will be used and in the studio upstairs red rambler roses and ocean spray will make a pleasing contrast. Miss Verna Pattison will sing and Professor Roberts will play the organ. Miss Ruth Bedford, pianist, will play several numbers with Prof. Roberts.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. R. J. Hendricks and Mrs. Harold Hughes.

Among those assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. Grover C. Birchett, Mrs. Gordon McGilchrist, Mrs. G. W. Laflar, Mrs. Fred Lange, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. A. E. Robins, Mrs. F. D. Voight and Mrs. A. Tyler Woolpert.

Miss Schneider Wed in Portland

The marriage of Miss Ursula Louise Schneider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Schneider, to Donald Secord McAfee was solemnized June 11 at St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal church, Rev. Richard P. Ayres officiating. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Cecelia Gersfield sang, and Jack Randall sang during the ceremony. Both were accompanied by Mrs. A. W. Stone, who played the wedding march. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was lovely in white satin with white point d'Alencon lace coat and court train with full embroidered edge tulle veil and a coronet tiara of rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of lilies.

Miss Lucile Graman was maid of honor. She wore a becoming yellow with toque and slippers to match and carried a colonial arm bouquet of orchid sweet peas, yellow Tullman roses and snapdragons.

Miss Katherine King, bridesmaid, wore a floor-length sky-blue taffeta gown with a blue velvet ribbon and Maline picture hat and silver slippers, and carried a cascade bouquet of white sweet peas, lilies of the valley and Joanna Hill roses. The flower girl, Barbara, tiny daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo E. Schultz, wore a peach orandy frock with headpiece to match and carried a willow basket of mixed old-fashioned garden flowers.

James Drake was best man and ushers were Jack McKean and Joseph Crews.

A lawn garden reception followed at the bride's home, where the supper table was presided over by Mrs. Hattie Cameron of Salem and Mrs. Iona McKay, assisted by Mrs. Maynard Schneider, Mrs. Eugene Cameron of Salem, Mrs. Helen Crews of Tacoma and Mrs. Edna King, Cutting ices were Mrs. Ozella Truby and Mrs. Edene Hickok. Out-of-town guests for the ceremony were from Yonkers, N. Y., San Francisco, Tacoma and Seattle. After a short wedding trip south Mr. and Mrs. McAfee will reside in Portland. For traveling the bride wore a grey wool ensemble trimmed with gray lynx fur and orandy batiste blouse with accessories to match. Her corsage was of lilies of the valley and orchid.

Artisans Will Sponsor President's Ball

Artisans from Salem, Woodburn and Silverton will hold a president's ball at the Fraternal temple Thursday night in honor of President H. S. Hudson's birthday.

All proceeds from the dance will go to the Al Azar relief fund for needy Artisans. Boots Grant and his orchestra will furnish the music. Miss Doris Hart, Mrs. Lotie Keefe and Al Friksen, Jr., are in charge of decorating. E. A. Robey is general chairman. The public is invited to attend.

National and State Leaders of P. E. O. Sisterhood

The sewing club of the B. and P. W. club will meet for a 6:30 o'clock club supper Friday night with Mrs. Winifred H. Herrick, 296 Richmond. Mrs. Lillian Cadwell is the assisting hostess. Each is requested to bring her own table service.

The Oregon Art Museum association, the Salem Arts league and the public library are sponsoring an art exhibit in the library the last of this week. The paintings are national prize winners by professional artists. The public is invited to come and view them.
