BUTTER PRICE CUT EQUALIZES MARKET

PORTLAND, June 20.—(AP)—Cutting of butter prices on the produce exchange for the late session was not a surprise for the reason that leaders of the trade have felt for some time that prevailing figures were a trifle too high and out of line with supply and demand.

Produce exchange differential between extras and standards was maintained at 1½c lb. despite the normal showing of ½ to 1c. This appeared due to the scarcity of top quality while there was an abundance of other scores. Price cut in effect were 1c lb. for extras and standards and ½c for others.

Butterfat showed its normal cut along with butter.

Market for eggs was showing a generally steady tone and without price change for the day within the local territory. Prices appeared rather erratic at Seattle.

Local poultry prices were down again in spots with buyers generally inclined to force values to the extreme low and as quickly as possible. Plenty of orders to absorb broilers were reported.

While all last week there was a depressed tone for spring lambs in the country killed meat trade, a gradual cleanup of the burdensome surplus was reflected. There is now a call for fresh stock.

General cleaning up of country killed calf receipts was indicated here with maintenance of values reported. Hogs were fully steady. Beef was still draggy in spots.

While there was again plenty of home grown peas for all needs here, many retailers were encouraging the bringing in of Seattle stock which keeps values here to a low mark.

AT CLAN REUNION

OAK POINT, June 20. — Mr. and Mrs. Orley Brown and three children were members in attendance at the Daugherty - Purvine clan annual picnic held Sunday at Silverton park. Mrs. Brown was elected secretary-treasurer.

Shares Drop, Strengthen

CLOUDBURST NEWS AIDS GRAIN PRICE

CHICAGO, June 20.—(AP)—Stimulated by Kansas and Oklahoma reports of cloudbursts in wheat harvest areas, the grain markets all scored price advances late today, overcoming earlier sharp setbacks.

Predictions were current that as a result of crop damage to winter wheat, the United States 1935 total wheat yield will be less than was indicated by June 1 estimates. Talk was also heard that owing to excessive rains, the leading corn states would suffer a considerable reduction of corn acreage.

Despite establishing today new low price records for the season, wheat closed firm at the same as yesterday's finish to 1 cent higher, July 80⅝-½, corn ⅛-⅝ up, July 81⅞-82, oats ⅜-¾ advanced, and provisions varying from 15 cents decline to 5 cents gain.

Closing quotations:

Wheat: June, 80⅝; July, 80⅝-½; Sept., 80¾-81; Dec., 83⅝-½.

Corn: July, 81⅞-82; Sept., 76-⅝-½; Dec., 63⅜-½.

Oats: July, 35⅜; Sept., 33-33-⅛; Dec., 34¾-⅞.

Gardeners' and Ranchers' Mart

PORTLAND, Ore., June 20.—(AP)—First loganberries of the northwest season appeared on the early gardeners' and ranchers' market Wednesday morning and sold for $1.50 per crate. The same price was held on Thursday morning.

Although the strawberries were more plentiful, they continued to show an unusual spread of prices, and quality. New Oregons sold from $1.35 to $1.65 per crate, Etterberg 80s sold from $1 to $1.20, and Gold Dollars ranged around $1.15.

Asparagus which has been ranging from $1.65 to $1.75 for 2½ dozen moved upward to $1.85 and the turnover at this new high was unusually rapid.

Raspberries moved downward to $1.90 a crate for good quality berries, and the poorer stock could be had for much less.

The supply of apples was unusually light, the demand slow, and the market firm at $1.25 for Rome jumble packed. All other varieties of apples have been sold out for the season.

The market for cherries weakened somewhat this morning with Dukes selling for 4 cents per pound and some pie cherries going at 4½ cents per pound.

U. S. No. 1 cauliflower sold from 65 cents to $1 per crate according to the quality.

QUIET RECOVERY IS UNDER WAY AT END

NEW YORK, June 20.—(AP)—The stock market had to absorb considerable selling in the early hours today but a quiet recovery was under way before the close which partially erased early losses in many issues.

Despite the morning selling wave the turnover in the stock exchange was considerably smaller than in the previous session, dropping below the million-share mark at 994,020 shares. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks ended .3 of a point lower at 43.7.

Declining tendencies in the stock list, while fairly general, were better resisted in some sections, notably the utilities, tobaccos and many of the oils, while some of the weaker spots were found in the high priced favorites of recent sessions such as American Can, Allied Chemical, Columbian Carbon, Ingersoll Rand, Eastman, Hazelatlas, Owens Illinois and Union Pacific, where losses ranged from 1 to around 3 points.

Leading motor shares and those of accessory companies were generally soft despite the prediction made at the Detroit meeting of the Automobile Manufacturers association that the current year would see the best auto outrun since 1929.
