MASKED MAN HOLDS UP RANSOM'S STORE

SCIO, June 20.—About 9:15 Tuesday night a masked man held up J. W. Ransom in his store at Shelburn, three miles north of Scio, and secured about $10, which he forced Ransom at the point of a revolver to deliver to him from the till. The man, about 40, appeared to be an amateur at the business, Ransom states. The fellow is believed to have been seen at different times on the railroad in the vicinity of Shelburn.

Charles Houston of Prineville exhibited six young coyotes in Scio Tuesday. He excavated the little animals from dens in eastern Oregon. Clyde Rodgers has one of the coyotes and will train his hounds to trail it. Mr. Houston stated that one of the animals was at liberty a week on his place at Prineville and did not attempt to leave.

J. F. Wesely, clerk of school district No. 95, reported at the annual meeting Monday that on June 17 the district owed only $3,539.41, as compared with $13,422.40 at the annual meeting June 18, 1934. Z. E. Sims was elected school director succeeding P. W. Schunk and J. F. Wesely re-elected clerk.

Mrs. Alice Bilyeu, widow of Jake Bilyeu, was buried at Franklin Butte cemetery Wednesday afternoon beside the grave of her husband, who died several years ago. The Bilyeus lived for many years at The Dalles. The deceased was formerly Alice Sumpter and a resident of Crabtree. Her sister, Mrs. Dave Crabtree, survives.

OLD GOLDEN COFFEE

You know of course, coffee to be good must be fresh . . . is perhaps no higher quality coffee than some other brands. The reason it always seems better is because Old Golden is always fresh. And that, too, is why you can drink all the Old Golden you like and it won't hurt you one bit. Old Golden sells for a little less per pound than other high grades because you're not paying 6c for a useless tin.
