CONSTRUCTION OPENS MONDAY

On High School Building at Gervais; Contracts to Salem Firms

GERVAIS, June 20. — All preliminary work is now completed and construction on the $15,000 high school building will be started Monday. The general contract was awarded to Henry G. Carl of Salem; the plastering was sub-let; the plumbing contract goes to T. M. Barr of Salem and J. A. Bernard, Salem, will install the furnace.

The new building will face the highway leading into Gervais and will stand directly in front of the auditorium built three years ago and which is now the school gymnasium. It is the intention of the school board to have the new building ready for the opening of school next September.

Re-elect Harper
Grade school district No. 76 held the annual school election at the school building Monday night. Robert Harper was re-elected a member of the board and G. J. Moisan was re-elected clerk. Ross Cutsforth becomes chairman. John S. Harper is the other member.

The annual election in high school district No. 1 is called for Monday, June 24, and will be held at the school building. One director is to be elected for five years. J. I. Bliven, incumbent, and B. C. Hall of Fairfield are candidates.

Gervais Baby Wins
Gervais has a 100 per cent baby in Bobby Ray, 11-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Banick. Bobby carried off the silver loving cup and gold certificate at a baby health and beauty show conducted by Centralia Temple, Pythian Sisters, at Salem.

Both Director and Clerk Re-elected for Middle Grove

MIDDLE GROVE, June 20. — At the annual school meeting held Monday night at the schoolhouse, Ernest Barker was re-elected as member of the board and Orton Hilficker re-elected as clerk.

Mrs. Gladys Cage, who has spent a month in the Deaconess hospital, returned to her home Tuesday evening. While her condition is improved, she is not entirely out of danger.

The Women's Missionary society was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. B. Klampe Wednesday afternoon with the lesson led by Mrs. W. H. Scharf. Mrs. Klampe served refreshments assisted by Mrs. Anna Hammer. Visitors were Mrs. Mattie Scharf of Santa Monica, Calif., Mrs. Ritchie, Grandma Dow and Miss Nellie Howe.

At the next meeting at the church July 17, a delegate to the annual W. M. S. convention at Jennings Lodge, July 24 to 27, will be chosen.

Fox Valley Elects Women to Director Posts in District

LYONS, June 20. — The Fox Valley school district Monday elected: Director to serve three years, Mrs. Fitzgerald; director to fill vacancy by Mrs. Effie Hobson's resignation, Mabel Downing; clerk, George Gilpell.

The Lyons district re-elected Clyde Lewis for director and Alice Huber for clerk; Ralph McDonald as non-high school director, and a unanimous vote was cast for high school transportation to Mill City.

Mrs. Pearl Kinkaid and her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Fields of Baker, spent Monday visiting friends and relatives here. Melvin Schnackenberg accompanied them.

Central Howell's Non-High Ballots Go for E. Werner

CENTRAL HOWELL, June 20. — W. A. Roth was re-elected as school director and D. A. Steffen was again chosen as clerk at the annual school meeting Monday night. Henry Werner's nomination for clerk was withdrawn at Werner's request. Fifty-two votes were cast in favor of the budget and four against.

Voting for non-high school district director resulted in 54 votes for Ernest Werner, present incumbent, and 27 for A. E. Kuenzi.

Finances of the district were found to be in excellent condition with quite a sum of money on hand and no need for a special levy. The board was authorized to fit up a corner of the basement as a kitchen.

MONTANA FOLKS HERE
WOODBURN, June 17. — Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Massey (Opal Sims) and children, Tommy and Ruth, of Butte, Mont., are spending the summer at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Sims.

John M. (Jack) Guiss, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Guiss, of Woodburn, was a member of the graduating class of the University of Oregon, receiving the degree of bachelor of arts. He plans to enter University of Portland medical school this fall.

WARDS IN REUNION
HUBBARD, June 20. — Mr. and Mrs. Waldo E. Brown, their children, Betty, Boyd and Wallace, and guests, Mrs. Nora Gard Miller, of Portland, and Miss Adele Ringo, of Clarks, attended the Gard family reunion at Beaver Creek Sunday. The meeting was held in Kamrath park, the donation land claim of Mrs. Brown's great, great grandfather, Timothy Gard. Mrs. Brown was elected secretary to the group.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, June 20. — All of the fire hydrants of the city have received a bright new coat of paint with the top glowing in brilliant crimson and the rest shining with clean aluminum.

Only a very few turned out for the June meeting of the West Salem community club but those present enjoyed fine music by Mr. Hutcheons, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming and a splendid reading by Rev. Kimball K. Clark. The group adjourned until the September meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Henningson left early Thursday morning for a few days at Seaside where they will visit at the G. V. Palmrose home for a little while. Mrs. Henningson is a daughter of the coast family and visits home folks every summer.

An alteration permit was granted to Arthur Hathaway to reroof his residence at an estimated cost of $45.

Felicitations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Gruver over the arrival of a daughter, Doris Lorene, at their home June 2.

Jack Boening has bought the Mrs. Josephine Jacobs home on Magnolia court by the city park. Mr. and Mrs. James Jacobs, who have been occupying the residence, are moving to Falls City.

Community Clubs

SILVERTON HILLS, June 20. — Seventy-five members of the Silverton chamber of commerce met to eat here Wednesday night at the entertainment strawberry dinner given by the community club. A short business meeting was held. Of special interest to the Silverton Hills group was the report of Dr. P. A. Loar that the Silver Creek Falls loop would be oiled as soon as the state highway commission had available funds.

George Hubbs explained the new storage refrigeration plant to be built at Silverton. Warren Crabtree reported for the agricultural committee and Roy Davenport, commander of the Legion post, for the Boy Scout troops. This was the last regular meeting of the chamber until the third Wednesday in September.

Following the business the group went to the entertainment hall upstairs where Mrs. C. J. Schlador, chairman of the entertainment committee, was in charge of activities. Songs and character numbers were given by George Crockett family with special emphasis on Alfred Crockett who celebrated his 11th birthday by making his first public appearance in a guitar solo. The quilt was presented to Charlie Mires and strawberries to Mrs. Ernest Starr. Dancing was enjoyed for two hours with music furnished by the Herrigstad triplets, Earl Mires, Rudd Benton and Mrs. Roy Davenport.
