Miss Detlefs Wed On Sunday To Mr. Turner

An interesting event of Sunday afternoon was the marriage of Miss Alice Detlefs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Detlefs, to Ira D. Turner. The marriage ceremony which was performed by the Rev. W. C. Kanner, took place at the home of the bride's parents, 2065 North Fourth street. Miss Detlefs' only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Viola Morrison and Charles Edison served as best man for the groom.

Garden flowers were used to decorate an improvised altar in the dining room and about the other rooms of the house.

The bride wore a powder-blue crepe dress and her bouquet consisted of sweet peas, roses and baby's breath. Her sister wore a flowered dress of pastel shades and carried a bouquet consisting of sweet peas, roses and orange blossoms. For going away the bride wore a smart blue tailored suit with fur trimmings and accessories to match.

The groom is employed at the Oregon Pulp and Paper company and the bride was formerly employed at F. W. Woolworth and company. Both are graduates of Salem high school.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at 2335 Maple avenue.

An interesting fact concerning their wedding date is the fact that it was also the 29th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

The following attended the marriage ceremony:

Mrs. C. L. Morrison, Mrs. D. S. Turner, Mrs. Delia Morrison, Mrs. Delbert Turner, Miss Reta May Morrison, Miss Bertha Edison, Miss Helen Detlefs, Miss Evelyn Detlefs, Miss Carol Turner, Miss Louise Illert, Miss Helen Newberry, Miss Gladys Youngblood, Miss Loretta Kahler and Miss Catherine Turner. Also Charles Edison, D. S. Turner, Jimmie Schen, Cedric Reaney, Carl Morrison, Sam Hannum, Delbert Turner, Marvin Dickson, Clair Turner, Doyle Carter, and the bride's parents.

Embarking this morning from Seattle on the S. S. Alutian for a vacation cruise to Alaska are Miss Ethel Martin, Miss Gladys Zell and Mrs. Frank B. Ferguson.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
If you're one of those girls (and every girl is!) who looks to clothes to weave the spell of romance, here's a real "find" for you. You'll never know how much feminine appeal a few ruffles can hold till you wear this frock on a date! The shoulder ruffles that hang gracefully from the yoke serve quite adequately for sleeves. The skirt panel with its rising yoke defines the waistline in a soft, feminine manner and quite fittingly ends in a lavish bow. As cool and delectable a frock for dancing and dining as ever you'll see. Choose sheer printed cotton like voile or chiffon. Select a colorful but dainty print.

Pattern 2204 is available in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Chicken Recipes Welcome In Weekly Food Contest

With the advent of cooler days chicken pie will find a warm welcome in most households. If you have a good recipe for chicken pie, or any other chicken concoction send it in to the Round Table, editor before Thursday noon.

Following are more raspberry recipes:

Raspberry Ice Cream
3 pints thin cream
2 quarts raspberries
2 cups sugar
1/2 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Wash and mash berries. Sprinkle with sugar, cover, and let stand 2 or 3 hours. Press through a potato ricer or colander. Add salt. Freeze cream and lemon juice to mush. Add fruit gradually and finish freezing.

Raspberry Cocktail
Raspberries
Pineapple (cubed)
Powdered sugar
Lemon juice
Wash berries, mix with pineapple, sprinkle with sugar and lemon juice. Chill and serve in cocktail glasses.

Raspberry Milk Sherbet
1 cup cooked raspberries
2 cups milk
1/2 cup sugar
Few grains salt
Juice of 1 lemon
1/2 cup vanilla
Force raspberries through a strainer. Add milk, sugar, salt, lemon juice and vanilla. Freeze like any ice cream. Serves 6.
Mrs. L. A. Alexander
Astoria, Ore.

Raspberry Torte
4 eggs
1/2 cup oil
1/2 cup boiling water
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored, and half of the sugar gradually, and beat until it holds its shape; add boiling water, one tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Let cool. Add salt to egg whites, and beat 'til stiff but not dry. Sift flour and measure, sift twice again with remaining sugar. When egg yolk mixture is cool, beat well again, and fold in flour and sugar mixture. Fold in egg whites and vanilla last. Pour into a 9-inch tube pan and bake 1 hour in a slow oven, 310 degrees. Invert in pan until cool. Remove from pan and remove center portion of cake with a fork leaving an inch and a half shell. Fill in bottom hole with cake and break up the rest of cake removed from center and add to torte filling. Fill cake shell with filling and chill several hours. When ready to serve, whip one cup heavy cream until stiff, sweeten and flavor to taste, and spread over top and sides of cake. Decorate with a ring of raspberries and serve on a dark blue plate or place a ruffle of blue crepe paper around edge of service plate.

Torte Filling
1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 1/2 cups raspberries
2 eggs
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon gelatin, dissolved in 3 tablespoons of cold water
Small pieces of cake
Mix sugar, flour, and salt, and dissolve in milk to which slightly beaten eggs have been added. Cook over hot water for 25 minutes, stirring constantly until thick, afterwards occasionally. Remove from heat and add gelatin, stirring until the gelatin is thoroughly melted. Cool. Fold in vanilla, berries and bits of cake, and pour into cake shell and let harden. This is twelve servings.

Avenue Tennis Club Has Reunion

The Avenue Tennis club celebrated its 46th anniversary Sunday at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Albert up the Santiam.

The club court at the time of its organization was located on Willson avenue opposite the house now occupied by Mrs. T. B. Kay. The club was founded June 26, 1889, with a membership of 55. Dinner was served out of doors to the members and friends assembled for the ninth annual reunion.

Covers were placed for O. J. Wilson, Clarence S. Hamilton, Mrs. Mae Boise Lauterman, J. Frank Hughes, George C. Brown, Mrs. Kate Dalrymple Griffith, Mrs. Jessie Dalrymple Albert, Joseph H. Albert, all of Salem, Gertrude Halverson Sroat, Paul Sroat, John Krause, Kate Dearborn Morgan, all of Portland. Others present were Mrs. O. J. Wilson, Mrs. Clarence S. Hamilton, Mrs. John Krause, John Lauterman, Mrs. J. Frank Hughes, E. S. Shelley Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Krause of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding of Dallas.

Woodburn — A wedding of interest to many friends was solemnized Saturday night when Miss Ethel Wigle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wigle of Silverton, was married to Kelly J. Stanard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Stanard. The ceremony was read at 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mary Andrews in Silverton by Rev. Bonith of Portland, an old friend of both the bride and groom. The bride wore a navy blue flat crepe suit with white accessories and corsage of sweet peas and lavender stock.

Miss Grace Wigle, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. William R. Stanard acted as best man for his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanard left immediately on a short wedding trip. After July 1 they will be at home to their friends at 511 Fourth street, Woodburn.

Silverton — Mrs. E. G. Morrison and Mrs. Edson Comstock were joint hostesses Friday afternoon at the Morrison home with members of the Royal Guard of the Methodist church as guests. Seventeen were present. Working on quilts filled the afternoon. The group will meet with Mrs. Albert Grinde in July.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Nickerbocker (Dr. Ellen Shank) left Sunday for their home in Oakland, Calif. They will visit en route with relatives in Albany with Mrs. Nickerbocker's father, E. R. Shank, in Eugene, and with a sister, Mrs. Herbert Wheeler, in Eureka, Calif.

Oakdale — Mrs. Ben Kustrica, recent bride, was the inspiration of a shower held at the home of Mrs. N. Guy of Dallas one afternoon last week. Mrs. Kustrica received many beautiful gifts. There were 32 guests.

There will be a silver tea, and circle at the Truth Center, 420 State street, at 2 o'clock Wednesday.

Mrs. S. C. Dyer was the guest of Mrs. Ida Gray at her home on Council Crest last week.

Davis, chairman, and Henry Mathieson, representing the fruit packing company.

JEWES PAY HONOR TO BRITTON ROSS

An unusual recognition of the work of Dr. Britton Ross, pastor of the First Baptist church, came as a surprise during the Sunday night service when a group of local Jews presented Dr. Ross a letter introducing him to and recommending him to members of the Hebrew race everywhere as a friend of the Jews. The Jews, members of B'Nai B'rith of the Willamette valley, attended in a body and presented the letter at conclusion of the services.

Dr. and Mrs. Ross will leave July 1 for the British Isles, where, on invitation, he will present a series of lectures. They hope to visit the Holy Land before returning to Salem in the fall. Dr. Ross was in the Holy Land just 12 years ago.

Independence — The Needlecraft society of the Calvary Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. Gladys Collins and Mrs. Faye Lindley Thursday at the Collins' ranch across the river.

POLK CUTOFF ROAD PROGRESS IS MADE

Rapid progress is being made on the grading of the Wallace bridge cutoff road to the Lincoln and Tillamook county bridges, Salem citizens who were at the coast this weekend, reported Monday. Theodore Arens, who has the contract, expects the new grade work to be done between Buell and the Wallace bridge within the next 45 days. His contract also calls for the placing of an "oil mat" surfacing on the road by September 30. He has already surfaced the road this side of Buell.

Between Buell and the Wallace bridge, a distance of 3.9 miles, a considerable amount of new road has been laid. The cutoff road comes into the regular Tillamook road over a new concrete bridge nearly one-half mile down the Yamhill river from the present Wallace bridge, a covered, wooden structure.
