Shaw Hands First Defeat to Stayton Cannerns, Makes Playoff Necessary

WOODBURN, June 24.—The Woodburn Townies blasted the Molalla Buckaroos 6 to 1 here yesterday to win the North Marion pennant of the Mid-Willamette valley league.

Woodburn, playing before an enthusiastic home crowd of over 400, crossed the plate first in the fourth inning, Ramp scoring on Hibbard's error. The Townies added another run to the count in the sixth when Garbarino went around the paths without a hit being made. He took first on balls, stole second, went to third and then home on outfield putouts.

Hunt started off a rally that netted four runs in the eighth when he doubled with two hits, an error, two walks and a sacrifice sending the Townies around the circuit.

Susee lost his chances for a shutout when he populated the bases in the ninth and then walked in Molalla's lone counter.

George Hibbard, Oregon State star, had the best day at the plate, gaining three hits out of four times at bat for Molalla. Susee struck out nine Molalla batters.

Woodburn will play the Salem Knights of Columbus next Sunday and meets Mt. Angel July 4. Games have also been scheduled with Hood River, champion of the Mid-Columbia league, the V & V Coffee Shop team, champion of the Portland Northwest league, and the Colored Giants.

Waterman Quits As Promoter of Portland Fights

PORTLAND, Ore., June 24.—(AP)—Joe Waterman today resigned as matchmaker for the Portland boxing commission which accepted the resignation.

Waterman wired the commission that he was entering business with his brother, Phil Waterman, in Los Angeles.

The board discussed the possibility of selecting a new matchmaker or reverting to the old policy of private promoters. No action will be taken until a special meeting set for Wednesday.

Ethiopia and Italy to War In Yankee Stadium Tonight With Odds on Little Fellow

By EDWARD J. NEIL
NEW YORK, June 24.—(AP)—Little Abyssinia and big Italy—was in the prize ring instead of Africa—is the lure of the Yankee stadium tomorrow night.

In one corner is Bomber Joe Louis, 21 year old negro from Detroit; in the other the monster man, Primo Carnera, making the most desperate stand of his weird career. And in the background, adding to the war-like picture, are a thousand police, fearful of race trouble, and a heavily armed group guarding Louis from dangers no one seems able to visualize.

It's one of the strangest pictures the ring has had in years, the first big money "mixed match" since Harry Wills, the black menace of the Dempsey era, battled Louis Angel Firpo before over a half a million dollars worth of customers in Boyle's Thirty Acres in 1924.

So "hot" was the match tonight that its promoter, Max Jacobs, predicts a gate of $350,000, or more, far surpassing the $200,000 taken in at Jimmy Braddock's conquest of heavyweight champion Max Baer less than two weeks ago.

Louis, with only a year of professional experience, ruled a 6 to 5 favorite. The big betters were avid to play their money at these odds, despite the tremendous physical advantages of the 265 pound Italian. The experts are almost unanimous in picking the negro, a terrific short puncher, to win, probably by an early knockout. Carnera money was scarce, indicating Louis might enter the ring at 9 p. m. (E. S. T.) as high as 2 to 1.

Louis' camp, at Pompton Lakes, N. J., still was jittery over the cleanup nearby of a gang wanted for several high-powered crimes after rumors spread around town that the negro was to be kidnaped.

Carnera added to the mystery by leaving his training quarters at Oswaco Park, near Syracuse, Sunday, arriving here today to hide out in a hotel near the Yankee stadium. If reports of his weight, 265 pounds, are accurate, the Italian is some 15 pounds over the figure he scaled when Max Baer battered him out of the heavyweight championship a year ago.

Greater police precautions than for any fight here in years will be taken. The stadium is close to New York's negro center in Harlem. More than 1000 patrolmen have been assigned to duty in or around the ball park.

SEATTLE GOLF CLUB, June 24.—(AP)—Finishing with an amazing 67, six under par and a new course record for the Seattle Golf club, Don Moe, Portland, former Walker cup player and twice western amateur champion, easily topped medalist honors in the 36-hole qualifying round of the 37th annual Pacific northwest amateur golf tournament today.

Seven birdies on the last 18 gave the young, handsome lawyer a total of 141, five under perfect figures, and a four-stroke margin over the rest of the field of 141, which hailed from all corners of the Pacific coast. He had a 74 on the par 73 course in the morning, trailing H. Chandler Egan, of Medford, Ore., twice national amateur champion and the leader at that time by three strokes.

Moe's 67 was one stroke better than the competitive course record established by Harry Givan. Automatically qualifying because he won the championship last season, Kenny Storey of Spokane, had a miserable 82 on the morning round and failed to turn in a card in the afternoon, spending most of the day practicing for the match play competition which begins tomorrow over the 36-hole course.

Egan, the grand old man of the links who will reach 51 years next August, tied with Clyde Finlay, of Seattle, for second place with 145.

Four days and an hour after Judge S. C. Huber of the U. S. district court in Hawaii mailed a letter, it was delivered to his nephew Irwin Wanes, in Philadelphia via the Clipper ship.

The Associated Oil and Valley Motor teams took the honors in the opening games of the industrial softball league at Olinger field last night. The Oilers defeated the Portland General Electric 25 to 15 and the teamemen bested the Artisans 19 to 5.

The next games will start at 6:15 o'clock Wednesday night between the Capital Street grocers and Jason Lee churchmen, Pay 'n' Takits and Ladd and Bush bankers. The eight teams in the league will play other contests Thursday and Friday nights.

Toledo 6, Bend 1.

The Vancouver Hop Golds jumped on Johnny Beck for five hits and four runs, including two circuit cuts, in slightly less than two innings, Sunday, to win the state league leadership away from a weary Senator club by a 5 to 4 tune.

While Salem was being lowered a notch by the beer barons Toledo Bend six runs to one and stepped up into a tie for second with the Senators. Albany had little trouble with Eugene and went home with a 13 to 4 victory.

The beer barons were merciless with Beck and blasted him from the box in the second inning after making their fourth run. The first two tallies came when Joe Gordon, University of Oregon shortstop sensation, stepped to the plate to slam out a home run that never stopped rolling until it hit the fence on the far side of the Olinger tennis courts. Gordon chased Ray Koch in ahead of him.

Bill Beard overthrew first as the second inning opened to put Bishop on base and then Red Miller, Hop Gold hurler, blasted the second home run of the game far over Dwight "Elmer" Aden's head. Beck allowed two singles before he was yanked and presented Merle Wilson with the situation of two men on and two out. Wilson used speedball strategy, walking Gordon to load the bases. Johnson popped out to Manning to end the threat.

Wilson hurled good ball the rest of the game and pulled himself out of several tight pinches. The Senators chalked up two runs in the third when Harriman and Aden both singled and rambled home on Manning's hit.

The final Hop Gold tally came in the sixth when Koch got to first on a single, was advanced to third by Gordon's hit and an error on Harriman and came home on an infield putout.

The Senators threatened to tie the score in the ninth and made the count more even as Bill Moe hit for the circuit with Nicholson scoring ahead of him.

McShain, Newcomer From South, and Harry Elliott In Main Event at Armory

"BEAUTY and the beast in one handy package" is the title of the grapple drama which will be staged as the main event of tonight's American Legion wrestling show at the armory with Handsome Dan McShain, rarin' to rattle Adonis from Hollywood, matched with Beau Brummell Harry Elliott. McShain, making his first mat appearance here, belies his handsome profile by the unhandsoome tricks he pulls on the mat. Rated in the south as one of the most dangerous mangle in the trade, McShain is a cave-man from start to finish.

He is a mean grappler but is no mean wrestler as is evidenced by his holding the Pacific coast middleweight championship belt. Harry Elliott, present king of the mountain in the local arena, has successfully defended his main event spot for the past three weeks against such gorillas as Bulldog Jackson and Dishface Powers. Elliott prefers clean grappling but is always ready for a bit of give and take—mostly give.

PAPER TEAM IS OUT OF GELLAR

And Pade's All Alone Again At Top After Softball Contests Monday

The Papermakers waved a fond farewell to their erstwhile cellar partners, The Eagles, last night as they dropped the red, white and blue team 6 to 5 in the first extra inning game of the softball season and departed for higher climes.

Ellis, Papermaker outfielder, rambled in for the winning run in the tenth when Haskins caught a left field foul. He had singled to get on and was advanced to third by Lewis' two-bagger.

Shakespeare lived in the era of Queen Elizabeth and never played softball for the Eagles but the latter were acting the dramatist's comedy of errors in the first four innings and it lost them the ball game. They made seven bobbles in the first five innings. Two runs were scored on errors and Ellis of the Papermakers went all the way around the paths on errors.

The Eagles tightened up in the last portion of the game and succeeded in tying up the score in the seventh when Humphries was batted in by Grimes. The Eagles scored first in the opening inning when Ray Busick clouted out a home run to score a run ahead of him. They added two more in the sixth.

Lewis scored for the Papermakers in the second on Smith's hit and they added two each in the bobby third and fourth with only one hit in the two innings.

Pade's stepped back to their old familiar place at the top of the league when he bowled over Master Broad 9 to 1 in the nightcap. Caustic Carries on

The Senators were apparently taking a cue Sunday from Dwight "Elmer" Aden who appeared very, very weary. The nonchalant lad from Wilsonville whom the fans are coming to know only as Elmer, was so tired that at every interval (those frequent periods when "Frisco" Edwards and Ray Brooks, Hop Gold pilot, would engage in heated tete a tete with Umpire Kaly) in the game he would stretch himself at full length on the newly mown center field turf and dreamily await fielders.

Gordon Williams, who played football at Willamette as a freshman and then went back to the sunnier climes of his native California, has been in town the past few days and says he will be at Willamette when the pikings begin floating through the air next fall. Gordy will be one of the outstanding candidates for the quarterback position left vacant by the graduation of Edward Frantz. Williams leaves a bullet-like pass and should provide the aerial threat that Willamette lacked but that he needs much last year. He did plenty of quarterbacking when he was a freshman.

"Frisco" Edwards is ready to appear for the umpiring jobs at softball games garbed in armor—or at least in a chest protector. He was hit — and from the way he hopped around every time, apparently painfully—no fewer than six times last night by balls that the catchers missed. And if you believe a softball is true to its moniker just get in the way of one sometime.

MAG SMITH IS HOT AS TOURNEY OPENS

MUIRFIELD, Scotland, June 24.—(AP)—MacDonald Smith, who by his own admission grows better with age, shot one of the greatest rounds of his long career—a six-under-par 66—to lead a field of upwards of 250 at the halfway point today in the 36-hole qualifying competition of the British Open golf championship.

The final 18-hole trial round will be played tomorrow. Thereafter the competition will be limited to 100 low scores and ties for the 72-hole championship proper which will start Wednesday over the Muirfield course where Walter Hagen won his last major title in 1929.

Apparently finding fresh inspiration in the fact that he was paired with the rugged Al Padgham, a Briton and second betting choice, the 45-year-old Carnoustie-born Scot who makes his headquarters in Glendale, Calif., played the long and windy Gullane course as it was never played before. There was no previous official record for the course but local experts could not recall anybody ever having played the lengthened layout within two strokes of Smith's mark. He fashioned his performance from an outgoing 34 and an incoming 32.
