STAYTON, July 6. - Jack Smith, 18, died in the Stayton directors were authorized to erect her daughter, Mrs. Glenn Alderhospital Wednesday night, from a structure, the cost of which man, of Spring Valley, formerly inflammation of the kidneys. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of the Coon Hollow district, northeast of Stayton. The father, who has been employed in Idaho, has been notified and funeral arrangements await his arrival here.

Ivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herd was doubly disappointed on the Fourth. It was his 15th birthday and he was obliged to forego celebrations on account of a severe attack of mumps.

A committee has been appointed by Mayor George A. Smith to investigate the cost of shingling and painting the city hall. The building is badly in need of this improvement.

Nick Welter, the barber, has purchased the Smith property in the rear of the Jordan home on Fifth street. It has been occupied by Tony Michel and family. Harry Humphreys and family left Wednesday for Seattle to spend the Fourth with the Joe Pounds family. Harvey Walker, jr., has been visiting at the home in Walling grove on the Abiqua. of his father in Stayton. He lives at Silver Star, Montana.
