EASTERN VISITORS AT HOWELL HOMES

Case of German Measles Puts in Appearance at Nafziger's

CENTRAL HOWELL, July 11.—Eveline Nafziger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nafziger, is ill with German measles.

Mr. Moorhead, a brother of Mrs. A. A. Nafziger, motored from his home in Chicago and is spending a few weeks with the Nafziger family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Bach, parents of Mrs. J. S. Kaufman, who motored here from their home in Illinois, intending to take the northern route. Mrs. Kaufman, Carolyn, John and Shirley went with them planning to spend the rest of the summer visiting relatives and friends in Illinois and neighboring states.

Car Kills Cow
P. A. Wood lost a valuable cow the night of July 4. The cows chose that night to escape from the fences and into the road where a passing motorist ran into the cow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Herr are the parent of an 8 1/2-pound son born July 8 at a Salem maternity home. The baby has been named Loren Eldon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Janz and son, Lyle, arrived at the home of Mrs. A. E. Janz Tuesday afternoon. They started from Detroit, Mich., about a week ago.

Construction Has Started on Union School at Gervais

GERVAIS, July 11.—Construction was begun of the new high school building Monday morning when ground was broken and the forms placed for the concrete foundation. There are 12 men employed at present—seven local men, the contractor, architect and two carpenters from Salem and a PWA man from Portland.

It is hoped to have the building ready for the opening of school in September.

STUDNICK TO OPEN PRODUCE BUSINESS

Final Rites Held at Solo for Truman Luckenbach; Fosters Here

SCIO, July 11.—Jess Edwards, farmer three miles south of Scio, suffered a painful injury to his right hand Saturday morning when the member became entangled in a hay fork. The forefinger on the hand had to be amputated at the first joint, and other fingers were badly mangled.

F. B. Studnick, who operated a cream station in Scio a number of years ago, will again open a farm produce station this week in the building west of the Wesley grocery. Studnick has decided to locate permanently in Scio, after carrying on a business in Oregon points and in California.

Funeral services for Truman Phillip Luckenbach, about 60, who died July 2, were held at the Scio Baptist church Monday afternoon, with interment at Franklin Butte cemetery. Deceased was born in Pennsylvania, moved to Albion, Nebraska, when he was a small boy. He was united in marriage to Inez Farrow in 1900, and in 1911 the family moved to Scio where he has since resided. Survivors are two sons, Henry of Sherwood, and Leonard of Fort Douglas, Utah; daughter, Mrs. Luella Boedigher of near Scio; two brothers, and three sisters.

George Foster and family of Ridgeville, Missouri, arrived Monday at the John Meritt, sr., home. Mrs. Foster is a niece of Mrs. Meritt. The Fosters plan to locate in the Willamette valley. Mr. and Mrs. Lane Sudell, formerly of Albany, have moved to the Rodgers mountain vicinity near Scio, where he has employment.

Frank Faris, jr., yanked a 11 good sized trout out of Thomas creek above Jordan in an hour Sunday.
