

EDUCATORS TO GATHER TODAY

Elementary School Guidance is Theme For Session at Oregon Normal

MONMOUTH, July 12.—An educational conference on Guidance in the Elementary School, sponsored by the committee on counseling service and committee on high school contacts, Oregon state system of higher education, will occur Saturday, at Oregon Normal school.

The program will follow, primarily, a panel discussion, with Dr. Lester Love, junior dean, College of Education, Ohio State college, talking for about 40 minutes, followed by a question and answer period for a more general dissemination of information. The morning program begins at 10 o'clock, with a talk by Doctor Love.

The personnel of the discussion panel: On Discussion Panel Fred Wolfe, president high school principal's association; Dr. Florence Blazier, member of committee on counseling service; Dr. A. S. Jensen, associate professor of psychology, Oregon Normal school; Miss Clara Trotter, supervisor of training schools, Oregon Normal school; M. R. Thompson, superintendent of schools, Sweet Home; F. J. Roubal, principal of Silverton Junior High school; Dale J. Ickes, superintendent of schools, Falls City; Miss Marie Tinker, classroom teacher, Eugene.

Blaze Levels Home Of Clifford Smith In Rosedale Area

ROSEDALE, July 12.—Fire of unknown origin this morning completely destroyed the Clifford Smith three room residence about a half mile west of the school, just off the Liberty road.

News of West Salem

WEST SALEM, July 12.—Dr. A. U. Michelson, Hebrew evangelist, is staying at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Smith of West Salem, while lecturing in this section.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Werner and family left Tuesday for Alberta, Canada, where they will make their home on their ranch. They have spent the winter here. Mrs. Werner is a sister of L. G. Richardson.

Thomas Is Building I. W. Thomas and Ly. Thomas are constructing a modern five room house at the corner of Kingwood avenue and Fifth street. They contemplate the erection of two or three more in the near future.

Mrs. Mary Austin, who has been staying with her daughter, Mrs.

George Wallace, while recovering from an acute appendicitis operation of three weeks ago, has been returned to the hospital for further treatment.

Miss Mary Reb of Detroit, Mich., who has been here for the funeral of her mother and visiting Mrs. S. Pfeiffert, a sister of her mother, left Thursday for her home. She will stop in Twin Falls, Idaho, for a visit with her cousin, Mrs. C. E. Greene, a former resident here.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Richardson motored to Portland one day this week, taking with them Mrs. Flora Richardson, who resides there. The Richardsons have moved into the residence vacated by Mrs. Tonkins and son, who went to Independence.

Junior Post Battles Set August 10-11

WOODBURN, July 12.—The 1935 title series in American Legion Junior baseball will be played in Woodburn August 10 and 11. This was officially agreed upon and a contract drawn up to the effect of a meeting early this week of the state committee in charge of Legion baseball.

The date for the playoff was originally set for August 9 and 10, but was shifted ahead one day so the series could be run off on Saturday and Sunday. This will give the community of Woodburn a better chance of staying out of the red on the venture, it is thought. Each day the first game will start at 1:30, the second game to get under way after the first game is finished.

Nebraskan Joins Others of Family Near Falls City

FALLS CITY, July 12.—D. J. Tripp and three children of Hebron, Neb., arrived here recently to join Mrs. Tripp and the rest of the family who have been living on the T. C. James place for two months.

REUNION PROGRAM TO BE PRACTICED

Plans for Evergreen Third Annual Summer Meet Nearly Ready

WALDO HILLS, July 12.—Miss Minnie Mascher, president of the Evergreen reunion, is asking that all pupils and residents of the district, past or present, meet at the school house Wednesday, July 17, at 8 p. m., to practice songs for the reunion to be held Sunday, July 21.

Plans for the reunion are being finished. A basket dinner will be served at noon in the Silverton park, with Mrs. Miles Ottaway and Mrs. F. D. Knight in charge of the coffee. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Geiser and Mrs. H. E. Roop will do the decorating and Mrs. Will Egan, Mrs. Geiser, Mrs. Knight and Miss Mascher are arranging the program. The Misses Vera and Olive Ottaway are general helpers.

Hibbards to Meet Mrs. Lena Hibbard of Los Angeles, and her daughter, Mrs. Will Egan, Mrs. Geiser, Mrs. Knight and Miss Mascher are arranging the program.

Star Pitcher Injured While Working in Hay

SILVERTON, July 12.—Lyle Specht, star pitcher for the Arisan softball team, ran a pitchfork through his right hand while putting in the last load of hay Tuesday night. Specht was attended by a doctor and is in hopes he may be in the July 15 playoff.

Queen and Court Feted at Dinner By Business Men

MT. ANGEL, July 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Richard and children Robert and Clifford, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Clouse, who have been visiting here for sometime at the home of Irwin Clouse and Leo Schwab, returned to their home in Beilfield, N. D.

Queen Georgianna and her royal court, Princesses Mary Louise LeDoux, Beatrice Marx and Madeline Persyn, and Knights Frank Hetwer, Dr. A. F. Scherbaum, O. L. Withers and Paul Schwab were guests of honor at the dance given by the business men's club at the open air dance pavilion Wednesday night. Ed Lais' dance orchestra furnished the music and Agnes Walker and Walter Smith of Mt. Angel and Bob Pitney from Sheridan gave vocal solos.

Rickreall Women Will Hold Picnic At Corvallis Home

Mrs. Sarah Burch, Mrs. E. A. Stenson and Mrs. H. A. Dempsey were hostesses for the July meeting of the Ladies' aid at Mrs. Dempsey's home. Twenty-five members were present. Sunday, July 21, was the date set to picnic at the Farm Home near Corvallis. The aid is making 10 pairs of pillow cases to give the Home that day.

Charles Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murray have moved into the Almon Hill residence. Mr. and Mrs. Whitaker of Dallas have moved into the house vacated by the Murrys and Lake.

LATE SALES OF FOX PELTS SAID STRONG

Breeders to Hold Picnic at Crowe on July 21, With Biers

LIBERTY, July 12.—The Salem unit of the Oregon Fox Breeders' association met at the W. Olden home here Wednesday evening. Reports read indicated that late sales of fox pelts were very strong and going at even better prices than the fall sales. From a market standpoint and also present condition of the animals things look good for the coming season.

The annual summer school session for the association will be held in the Salem chamber of commerce rooms some time in August. Fox leaders will be present to lecture at the school. These men will represent the industry from the territory west of Denver.

To Picnic July 21 The association voted to hold an all day picnic at the H. A. Bier place at Crowe, July 21. The group will meet at the Glasser home in Jefferson and go as a caravan.

Mrs. Olden served dainty refreshments to the 30 guests present.

CLUB TO MEET

WEST STAYTON, July 12.—Townsend club of West Stayton will hold its regular meeting Monday, at the West Stayton school house, 8 p. m. Fred J. Toozee of Salem will be the principal speaker. The public is invited.

Nicholas Kurths On Motor Jaunt Across Country

LABISH CENTER, July 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Kurth left Wednesday morning by auto on an extensive vacation trip which will take them across the continent and along the eastern seaboard.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kurth (Edna Frewing) are receiving felicitations on the birth of a son, their first child, July 6. The young man, who weighed over eight pounds, has been named Neil Kermit.

Robert DeGross of Nyssa arrived Sunday at the Clyde Leedy home where he is the guest of his aunt and uncle. Leslie Klampe will return home with him for a short visit.

CALIFORNIANS HERE

LIBERTY, July 12.—Mrs. David Engerbrecht (Elizabeth Schmidt) and small daughter, of Stirling City, Calif., arrived Thursday to spend several days at the home of Mrs. K. Schmidt.

REBEKAHS INSTALL NEW SET OFFICERS

MOLALLA, July 12.—At an installation of officers Tuesday evening, the following new officers of Oak Rebekah lodge were seated:

Noble grand, Gertrude Stuve; vice grand, Olive Boehmke; secretary, Beulah Wright; treasurer, Lois Adams; warden, Mae Somerville; conductor, Theresa Nicholson; right supporter to the noble grand, Nellie Henriksen; left supporter to the noble grand, Alma Damm; chaplain, Rova Comer; musician, Margaret Stors; inside guardian, Esther Horton; outside guardian, Hazel Nicholson; right supporter to the vice grand, Gladys Corbin; and left supporter to the vice grand, Cella Hibbard.

Installing officers were Bertha Dicken, district deputy grand president, and Faye Worley, district deputy grand marshal. Mrs. Dicken was appointed social chairman for the next six months.

By CLIFF STERRETT

POLLY AND HER PALS

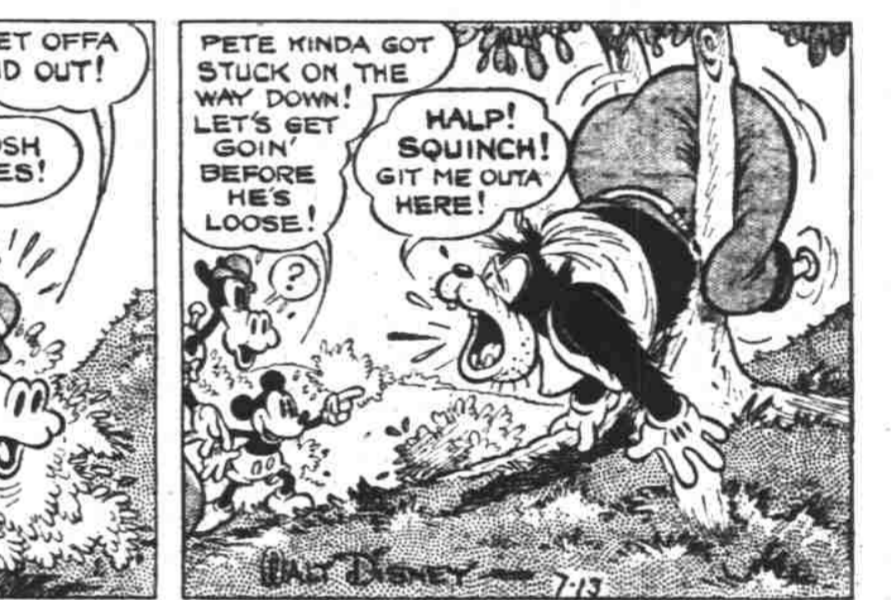

A Longer Stretch of "Sun"

MICKY MOUSE

In the Shade of the Ol' Apple Tree

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

Grid for a crossword puzzle with numbers 1 through 42 indicating starting positions for words.

- Horizontal: 1-metallic element, 9-worry, 15-renew, 16-leopard-like cat, 17-counter-feiter, 18-inner coat of the eye, 19-silent, 20-back of the neck, 21-Roman bronze coin, 22-Anglo-Saxon pony, 23-river in Armenia, 25-Chinese measure, 26-Morindin dye, 27-apportion, 28-pieces of baked clay, 30-ventilate, 32-fortified work, 33-fiddle, 35-fabulous sea-nymph, 37-overhand sewing, 39-one who disfigures, 43-to intend, 45-ten years, 46-heron-like bird, 48-mischievous child.
- Vertical: 1-Jewish month, 2-resembling a Madagascar monkey, 3-the animal kingdom, 4-small child, 5-founder of the Russian empire, 6-dating from birth, 7-imaginary island, 8-nothing but hourly, 9-high cards, 11-to steep, 12-formed in a row, 13-instrumental composition, 14-island at entrance of New York harbor, 24-section, 26-barren, 27-threatened, 29-to strike, 31-exists, 32-allude, 34-emmet, 36-anarchist, 38-voluble, 40-keel-shaped, 41-teacher, 42-those who fail to follow suit, 44-printer's measure, 46-metal tips of scabbards, 47-gully, 48-macaws, 50-animal's fur, 53-to anoint, 55-ancient race of India, 58-separate article, 59-clothed, 60-girl's name, 62-wine-vessel, 65-negative vote.

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

Now Showing—"Feathering His Nest"

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Excuse Our Dust

Excuse Our Dust

TOOTS AND CASPER

Pleasant Dreams

Pleasant Dreams

Can it be that a new star is about to shine in the movie heavens?