'IN CALIENTE' AT ELSINORE THEATRE

Colorful Musical With Big List of Stars; Capitol Has Lively Comedy

"In Caliente," First National's latest musical, opens at the Elsinore theatre today. Its all star cast is headed by Dolores Del Rio, Pat O'Brien, Leo Carrillo and Edward Everett Horton.

Scores of beautiful Hollywood chorus girls appear in numbers created and directed by Busby Berkeley, who staged the big hits in "Gold Diggers of 1935," "Wonder Bar," "42nd Street," and a score of other film musicals.

Two famous song writing teams, Warren and Dubin and Dixon and Wrubel, wrote the songs for the Berkeley production numbers. They include "Machacha," "Lady in Red" and the title song, "In Caliente."

Phil Regan, the radio cop, sings the "Machacha," which features Dolores in a dance review, and "To Call You My Own," a ballad. Winifred Shaw sings the "Lady in Red" and "In Caliente." Others in the cast include the famous DeMarco, who does some specialty dancing and "The Canova Family," radio's Hill Billies of the south.

"Don't Bet on Blondes" Comes to Capitol

Warren William, Guy Kibbee and Claire Dodd, supported by a big cast of film favorites will open in the new Warner Bros. hit comedy, "Don't Bet on Blondes," at the Capitol theatre today.

The story is based on the exploits of a big time gambler who reforms and enters the insurance business, where he underwrites every risk brought to him.

Warren William, starred in many society dramas and detective pictures, portrays the insurance man. It is his first light comedy screen role in some time. Guy Kibbee enacts a ruthless scamp supported by his daughter, Claire Dodd, against whose marriage he takes out a $50,000 policy.

What is said to be one of the strangest and most exciting film records of adventure in uncharted places is scheduled for every showing here. This is "Savage Gold," second feature at the Capitol. It is an authentic record of an expedition made by Commander George M. Dyott into the Xingu country of South America, that wild region inhabited by head-hunting savages that lies between the Xingu and Araguay rivers in Brazil.

'AIR HAWKS' TODAY AT GRAND THEATRE

Ralph Bellamy, Wiley Post In Cast; State Offers Newspaper Picture

"Air Hawks," Columbia's thrilling air romance, is the new film at the Grand theatre. Ralph Bellamy, Wiley Post and Tala Birell head the cast with Douglass Dumbrille, Victor Kilian and Billie Seward supporting.

Bellamy has a strong masculine poise as the head of an air transport company while Miss Birell is in the employ of his enemies who are seeking to put him out of business by a campaign of sabotage against his planes which results in the cracking up of three of them and the death of two pilots.

Bellamy gives an excellent performance and Miss Birell has never appeared more exotic or glamorous. Dumbrille, unquestionably the screen's most famous villain since "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," has a real "heavy" role. Kilian, a newcomer from Broadway, makes a comedy success of his first motion picture portrayal. Billie Seward is young, appealing and beautiful and does fine work in all her scenes.

"Headline Woman" Is at State Theatre

"Stop the presses—I've got a scoop!" That is to be the theme-song at the State theatre for two days starting today. And as a theme-song it keys Mascot's "The Headline Woman," heralded as the fastest and most ingenious yarn evolved in Hollywood in years.

Roger Pryor, ace reporter, involves the press of a big city in a feud with the police, who refuse to issue any news. On his own hook, Pryor brisks leads his fellow newshounds into a murder mystery and even more briskly leads a beautiful girl out, it is said.

The girl is lovely Heather Angel, teamed with Pryor for the first time. Also featured are Jack La Rue, favorite screen villain, round Ford Sterling playing an uproariously comic cop; Franklyn Pangborn, Syd Saylor, Russell Hopton, Theodore von Eltz, Wheeler Oakman, Wade Boteler, Conway Tearle, Jack Mulhall, Lillian Miles and numerous other stars.
