DENTAL AD BAN IS UPHELD BY COURT

Word 'Cheap' Forbidden by Law, is Supreme Court Ruling on Appeal

The state supreme court Tuesday affirmed the decree of Circuit Judge Skipworth of Lane county, in a suit brought by S. T. Donohue, Eugene dentist, to enjoin members of the Oregon state dental board from revoking his license to practice dentistry. The lower court held for the dental board.

The suit involved an advertisement printed in a Eugene newspaper, in which Donohue stressed "modern dentistry cheap."

The supreme court held that while Donohue did not advertise any specific prices, as prohibited by the state dental law, the word "cheap" connoted a price below the average charge.

"The legislature was Lot content merely to prohibit advertising fixed on definite prices," the opinion read, "it intended to go further and put a ban on all kinds of advertising relative to prices which would have a tendency to lure the ignorant and credulous.

The opinion was written by Justice Belt.

Chadwick is Freed The court reversed the conviction of Roy E. Chadwick of Portland, who was under two years' penitentiary sentence for larceny by embezzlement of $2000 alleged to be the property of the Western Savings and Loan association. He was tried before Circuit Judge Wood in Harney

The United States citizenship of any who joined the Ethiopian forces would be affected, it was generally believed.

Roy J. Norene, immigration official for the Portland district, said those who joined with allied forces during the world war had to go through repatriation, although not naturalization.

However Chester McCarthy, Portland attorney, pointed out that it was only because of special congressional action that those from the United States who fought with the allied forces were able to regain citizenship through repatriation. "Instructors" With Chinese Force Exception He advised that anyone who might contemplate joining any foreign army should first query the state department of the federal government at Washington, D. C., to learn definitely what the ramifications would be.

However some Oregon aviators who went to the aid of China did "instructors" and thus technically did not join the Chinese army.

Carrying out a more rigorous policy of collections, the state land board filed three mortgage foreclosure actions in circuit court here yesterday. Funds loaned by the board belong to the irredu-cible school fund of the state.

The board asks a decree against Albert R. Meyers and others on a $1000 loan made in 1926 on which interest is allegedly past due from 1932. The property under mortgage contains 160 acres.

The board seeks to foreclose a mortgage for $3500 given in 1925 by Stephen J. Palahniuk and others on a 140-acre farm. Plaintiff asserts interest has not been paid for four years.

In the third suft the board asks judgment against John J. Scheurer and others on an $850 mortgage made in 1927, the mortgage allegedly being past due since 1933. All the loans were made at 6 per cent interest.
