Alcuin Heibel, Those playing were Mrs. R. E. O. S. B. officiating. The church Mything, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, and altar sanctuary were decorated with massive ferns and greens with pink rambler roses.

Miss Helen Keber presided at the organ for the processional wedding march and during the 'Kind Jesu" high mass sung by the St. Mary's choir. At the offertory Jack Dooney of Portland sang the "Ave Maria", accompanied by William McLeod and "Mother at Thy Feet" immediately following the services.

The bride was gowned in an ankle length dress of heavy white satin made on Princess lines with long sleeves puffed above the elbow. Orange blossoms fastened her finger tip length tulle veil in cap effect. She carried a small arm bouquet of white sweet peas and cream rosebuds.

Mrs. A. P. Miller was her sister's only attendant. John Schallberger acted as best man for Mr. Schmaltz.
