A. C. BURK,

CHICAGO, July 16 .- (AP)-Wheat futures prices here today paralleled the rise and fall of values in the Liverpool market. An early gain of about a cent a bushel was erased by orderly liquidation after mid-session, with profit taking sales conspicuous

The late decline was in the face of a firm cash market and generally bullish crop news. The budget of rust reports from the spring wheat belt on both sides of the Canadian border was large and there was increasing talk of damage possibilities.

The net result of a day of rather erratic price fluctuations was a % cent loss to % cent gain at the close, with September wheat 82 %-%. Corn, however, displayed independent strength, finish-%-1% higher, September 75 %-76. Oats closed unchanged to 1/8 off, rye unchanged to . 5/8 off and barley unchanged to % down. Closing quotations: Wheat: July 82-82 1/8, September 82 1/8-1/8. December 83 1/4-1/8. Corn: July 84 %-1/2, September 75 %-76, December 63 %-64. Oats: July 33%, September 31 1/2. December 33 1/4.
