STATE FLAX CROP EXTREMELY SHORT

The flax crop planted by the state will probably not run more than five per cent of normal, state penitentiary officials announced yesterday. The percentage of flax pulled to the total plantings will make the poorest showing in the history of the crop in the valley.

Some short flax will be cut and some, where the fibre is too short for any use, will be threshed for seed and no attempt made to use the fibre.

Twenty-six hundred acres were put out this spring, one of the largest plantings in the state's history. Twenty-five dollars a ton for the pulled flax was offered growers.

The penitentiary will ret its 1935 crop next spring and will then have to use the 1936 crop for the remainder of its summer operations.

Governor's Pay Decision Looms

Decision by Judge L. G. Lewelling on the case brought by Ed Jory to determine whether Governor Martin may constitutionally receive more than $1500 annually, will be handed down here this week, the judge announced Saturday. While he has court throughout the week at Albany, he is anxious to have the case disposed of. All briefs on the case and all arguments are in. Rodney Alden, Woodburn editor, represents Jory; Ralph Moody, deputy attorney general, represents the state.

SHARES GAIN BACK PART FRIDAY LOSS

NEW YORK, July 20.—(AP)—Although shares chugged uphill a little in moderate trading on the New York stock exchange today, they did not recover Friday's decline in full.

By some it was thought the purchase of equities had been inspired by the more than seasonal production of automobiles for the week ended today. Cram's estimated output at 83,255 units compared with 83,450 in the preceding week and 65,829 in the corresponding week a year ago.

Increased output of small cigarettes was seen in some brokerage houses as a trade weather vane. The bureau of internal revenue reported June production at 12,119,688,167, an upturn of 74,625,344 over the total for that month last year.

In terms of the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, the market moved ahead .1 of a point to 45.6. Trading was a little less active than Friday at 429,500 shares.

Although a number of specialty preferred stocks picked up 1 to 2 or more points, most of the market's industrial pace-setters contented themselves with gains of fractions.

Included in the latter group were American Tobacco "B" at 97, Bethlehem Steel at 32½, Chrysler at 54⅛, General Electric at 27⅝, General Motors at 36⅝, U. S. Steel at 39 and Woolworth at 62¾.

SPREAD OF BLACK RUST LIFTS PRICE

CHICAGO, July 20.—(AP)—Suggestions that black rust is now threatening 50 per cent damage to spring wheat in the Dakotas and Minnesota gave wheat values notable strength today.

Black rust advices from the northwest were the most alarming yet this season, but scarcity of sellers rather than unusual increase of speculative demand characterized the Chicago wheat market. Grain authorities said a race is on between maturity of the spring wheat crop and devastation from rust, with the rust so prevalent that it can be seen in the field for a distance of 10 rods.

Wheat closed firm at about the days top level, 1⅛-1½ cents a bushel higher than yesterday's finish, September 85¾-⅞, corn unchanged to ⅜ up, September 75⅝-¾, oats also unchanged to ⅜ up, and provisions unchanged to 5 cents down.

Closing quotations:
Wheat: July 85⅛, September 85¾-⅞, December 86⅝-¾.
Corn: July 83½, September 75⅝-¾, December 64¼-⅜.
Oats: July 33⅝-¾, September 31⅛-¼, December 33.

Gardeners' and Ranchers' Mart

PORTLAND, July 20.—(AP)—Another morning of selling fast and "get what you may" was in progress at today's Ranchers' and Gardeners' market.

Supplies in most lines were limited and the demand was great for most of the products. There was great demand for youngberries. Cherries have nearly vanished from the market and what few are left were selling 5c per pound.

Lettuce was a little higher, selling for $1.15-1.25 for Seattle, and 80-90c for local. Cucumbers came down, going for 60c on the fancy and 45c for the choice.

Tomatoes from upper Columbia were at the market and are about the first local tomatoes on the market. They sold for $1.50 for a 20-pound box.

Apricots and peaches looked especially good and although there was no raise in the price they sold very rapidly.

Western Prime Wools Lead in Recent Trading

BOSTON, July 20.—(AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—Business in wool on the Boston market during the past week has been predominately on prime wools with most of the trade in western grown lines although a limited amount was on fleeces of fine Ohio Delaine and was quoted unchanged at 30-31c in the grease and a few sales were closed at the low side of the range.

Strictly combing staple of the other grades of Ohio and similar fleeces were quoted at 30-31c in the grease for 58s, 60s, ½ blood and 48s, 50s, ¼ blood while 56s, ⅜ blood was quoted at 31-32c.

OFFER OF STORAGE EGGS UPSETS MART

PORTLAND, July 20.—(AP)—There remained a quiet tone in the local butter trade without any too much activity suggested over the coast generally. Butterfat however was firmly priced.

With cold storage eggs being offered by speculators who are taking full advantage of the law which allows their sale along with newly laid eggs, there was a badly mixed tone and quality in the trade.

Demand for live poultry remained firm but there continued a lack of price change practically through the list. Some demand was showing for turkeys but this was by no means keen.

Weaker tone was showing for local potatoes despite the higher values forced at Yakima and efforts of local distributors to obtain more money for the latter. Local stock was better than outside stuff too.

There was a general scramble for remaining stocks of apricots with The Dalles chiefly sought because of its far superior quality as a rule. Offerings were far below actual advance orders.
