BREWERS SEEK THIRD VICTORY

White Senators Will Fight to Retain Top Place; May Hit Better

GAMES TODAY
Hop Gold at Salem, Olinger field, 2:30 o'clock.
Toledo at Bend.
Eugene at Albany.

Vowing vengeance for two defeats at the hands of Ray Brooks' Hop Gold club the Salem Senators will clash with the Vancouver brewers for the third time on Olinger field at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. For the Senators, the leadership of the league, now held by a mere half game margin, will be at stake. Hop Gold is hoping to use Salem, so far this season held in subjection, as a stepping stone in regaining its lost lead.

Hitting has been the downfall of the Senators in its two previous clashes with the Brooksmen, who jumped on Senator hurlers in both games. In recent games, however, the stickwork of the Senators as well as fielding and pitching has shown a decided upswing.

Wilson Will Hurl
The Senators will depend upon Delmer "Squeak" Wilson, left handed hurler, who blanked Toledo last Sunday with a two-hit performance. If the tall moundman pitches in the same winning fashion that has made him the Senators' number one hurler, the Hop Golds should have a more difficult time getting base hits today. In both the other games Johnny Beck started. In the first game, which the Senators lost 5 to 1, the Brewers bunched their blows off Beck in two innings. In the second game they batted Beck from the box in the second after he had given up five blows, including a double and a home run, for a four-run lead. Wilson, who replaced Beck in the second, held the Hop Golds to one run for the rest of the game, striking out eight batters.

The Hop Golds have been pounding the ball all season. They hit Eugene mercilessly last week for a 10 to 2 victory. With the famed University of Oregon second-short combination of Ray Koch and Joe Gordon in the infield, their fielding is also "tops."

Pitcher Also Hits
"Red" Miller, husky carrot top who throws for the brewers, has been pitching winning ball all season and helps himself out with timely hitting. He got a home run against Eugene last Sunday.

The second place Albany club enters Eugene. At the Alcos, Eugene has been going great guns lately and last Sunday blanked Bend 3 to 0. A victory for Albany, in the event Hop Gold makes it three straight over Salem, would give the Alcos-Oaks the lead.

Key Men of Davis Cup Defense

By BURNLEY

Bunny AUSTIN

THE BIG QUESTION MARK OF THE BRITISH DAVIS CUP DEFENSE!

BRITAIN'S DOUBLES TEAM MAY SAVE THE DAY FOR JOHN BULL BY WINNING THEIR CUP MATCH—THEIR DOUBLES ACE IS THE VETERAN

Pat HUGHES

BRITAIN'S burning question in the coming Davis Cup defense will be the singles play of Bunny Austin, veteran stylist who is actually the key man of England's cup team this year.

Austin met his Wimbledon Waterloo at the hands of young Donald Budge, who trounced the celebrated Britisher with the greatest ease in four sets. Bunny appears to have lost the stamina necessary to carry on to victory in grueling tournament play, but he is a great "money" player and may rise to the occasion in the challenge round matches, as he will not be forced to play through a whole tournament, but instead will be able to point for this particular game.

That the British really have cause for a little plain and fancy "viewing with alarm" can be seen by the fact that their doubles combination of G. P. Hughes and C. P. D. Tuckey were eliminated by Allison and Van Ryn at Wimbledon, and can hardly be counted on for a victory in the cup matches.

Austin's stylish stroking appears to have deteriorated, judging from his play at Wimbledon, and it may be that the veteran British cup star has definitely hit the downward trail. If the bounding Bunny has really lost his old bounce, then it seems as if the old Davis cup and saucer may really be lost to John Bull after all these years.

Of course, the peerless Fred Perry will win his two singles duels, but two out of five matches is not enough to keep the cup. The issue is really squarely up to the redoubtable Austin, and it is very likely that he will flash enough of his old tennis magic to eke out one victory and save the day for the British.

Caustic Carries on

So up and away from a heavy laden dinner table to the ball park where the Senators are playing baseball with ye Hop Golds and hoping mightily that the Senators will win. For, forsooth, a victory over ye Hop Golds would keep yon Salem Senators in the lead of the league, which is much to be desired. And so hurrying away for the ball game starts at 2:30 of the clock at Olinger field.

Pade's and Parker's will be at it again Monday night in a game that should draw a record crowd.

Recovering

Dr. Paul G. Moore examining Clint Brown's eyes.

Clint Brown, Cleveland Indian pitcher, is making rapid recovery from an eye injury suffered when a baseball fan tossed a firecracker in front of his face late in June, according to Dr. Paul G. Moore, shown above, examining the Black Ash, Pa., hurler's eyes. It was feared at first that Brown's baseball days were over and that he was losing the sight of his other eye.

Big ball game calls scribe from dinner table; Pade and Parker billed for Monday; Moody hardening up.

Two of the largest crowds of the season turned out Wednesday and Thursday of last week to see Wait's trim Parker's and get trimmed by Pade's. Monday's game is important. A victory for Parker's would put Pade's back on the same footing with Parker's and Wait's.

The brand of softball played in Portland will be visible here Tuesday night at 8:15 when the Portland Woolen Mills team comes here to play Kay Woolen Mill on Sweetland field.

Incidentally this is the next to the last week of the regular softball season. There are only five more nights of schedule play. So if you are one of those very few persons who have been thinking of coming out to a softball game and haven't yet got around to it, now is the time.

We see by the papers where Don Sugar of Japan defeated Bulldog Jackson of New York on a San Francisco wrestling card. Sugar, who was a fullback for Salem high about three years ago, is scheduled to appear at the armory within the next few weeks. His lengthy Mexican and southwest tour was very satisfactory and will be followed by a junket to Honolulu.

Glen Moody, former Salem high tackle who showed lots of promise with the O. S. C. Hooks last year, has been toughening up handling concrete on a road crew. Glen's big paws are getting as hard and horny as cowhide and shouldn't slide off slippery molasses this fall.

Tickets for the American Legion junior baseball tournament at Woodburn August 10-11 are on sale at Cliff Parker's. The little city to the north is showing lots of courage in taking on the meet and needs every ounce of support it can get.

TENNIS MEET SET
PORTLAND, July 27.—(AP)—The 1935 Pacific northwest Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament will be held here August 16 and 17. It was announced tonight. Raquet wielders about three years ago, is scheduled to appear at the armory within the next few weeks. His lengthy Mexican and southwest tour was very satisfactory and will be followed by a junket to Honolulu.

SCHMELING TALKS SELF OUT OF BOUT

NEW YORK, July 27.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, the temperamental Teuton, broke his silence today and talked himself right out of the American heavyweight picture.

He demanded such a fancy figure to come to New York to fight either Max Baer or the sensational Joe Louis, that Jimmy Johnston and Mike Jacobs, rival metropolitan promoters, threw up their hands and said they guessed they'd have to try to struggle along without the German financier.

All Herr Schmeling wanted was a flat guarantee of $150,000 (free of taxes) deposited in an Amsterdam bank in advance of the fight; 35 per cent of the gate (also free of taxes) and $5000 for training expenses.

Joe Jacobs, Max's manager, put on the hot spot by the German's dawdling around, was aghast when he read his warrior's cable.

"I am convinced he's been giving us all the old run-around, including me, who put him in the championship."

The Stroke of a Champion

Lenore Kight of Homestead, Pa., sets a new American record of 5:31.4 to win the 440-yard free style swim at the national women's championship meet at New York. The previous day Miss Kight set a new world record for the mile.

ROYALTY WILL MEET TILLMAN

Lord Landsdowne Again on Tuesday Armory Card; Red Devil Billed

Lord Landsdowne, Duke of Barrington, wearer of the purple bathrobe, will doff his monocle Tuesday night to take on Larry Tillman, Vancouver flaxen-locked mat flash, in the main event of the American Legion's weekly wrestling get together at the armory.

The Lord, who two weeks ago humbled Rob Roy in the armory arena, gave Salem fans a treat with his unrivaled showmanship plus unusual grappling adroitness and is expected to repeat in his set-to with the Vancouver ace Tuesday.

Tillman, as popular a torso-twister as ever fell through the ropes, knows plenty about the wrestling game himself and will give the titled tilter a match that will be jolly well wrestled, bah jove.

Red Devil Returns
The Red Devil who got himself very unpopular last week when he tangled with Pug Ryan, will try his tricks on Rob Roy in the 45 minute event. The Red Devil, who enters the ring with a scarlet mask and a brilliant red cloak, is a clever wrestler despite his self-effacing habit of wearing a mask.

Dieckie Trout, San Diego seafarer, will mix with Ray Lamphier, uncouth Salt Lake gentleman, in the 30 minute opener which starts at 8:30 o'clock.

ONE HIT ENABLES FIREMEN TO WIN

DALLAS, July 27.—The unexpected happened Friday night and the rejuvenated Fireman sprang another surprise by defeating the Mill 1-0 in what proved to be one of the best games dished up in the city league this season. As a result definite possession of the top rung in the league ladder is still in doubt and will be until the Firemen and the Mill meet again to play off a protested game which was won by the former 4-2. The date of the replay has not been set.

Geibert and Wagner pitched beautiful ball Friday with the former St. Mary's football star yielding one lone hit. Wagner was touched for six bingles but he tightened up in the pinches and with effortless support he held on to his slim margin. The lone tally came when Gilbert walked Jay Pleasant, speedy outfielder loaned for the game by the Merchants. Pleasant stole second and came home on a passed ball.

Moe to Direct Silvertown's Entry in State Tournament Here; Lineup Much Revised

SILVERTOWN, July 27.—Harlan Moe, who can't enter the actual play because he fractured his arm some weeks ago, was elected manager of Silvertown's all-star softball team, at a meeting held Friday night at the Eagle's hall and attended by over 100 interested fans. The all star team is to be known as the Silvertown Artisans, winning team of the eight in the Silvertown softball league. R. J. Baldwin was made general business manager; Chet Johnson, captain.

Five vacancies were created on the all-star team during the past week and new members selected by the eight team managers to fill them. Vacancies were Harlan Moe, Jake Werle and Orville Schwab because of physical inabilities; Don Burch because of hard ball practice; Adrian May, who plays with the Mt. Angel team.

Will Play Today
The all-star lineup as it now stands is catchers, John Pettie, C.C.C. and Douglas Brady, S.F.T.; pitchers, Harvey Kaser, B. C., Earl Chalfan, S.F.T., Sammy Steinbock, V.F.W.; first base, Wayne Scott, F.O.E.; second base, Chet Johnson, F.O.E.; third base, John Hallman, C.C.C.; shortstop, Artisan Schwab, S.F.T.; utility infielders, Oscar Specht and Weldon Hatterberg, both Artisans; outfielders, Robert Moe, B.C., Howard Whittan, C.C.C., Speed Scarleta, C.C.C., and Lyle Specht, Artisans.

The all-star Silvertown team will be seen in action for the first time Sunday afternoon at the Eagles' picnic at Hazel Green when the team will meet Pade's of Salem.

Dr. A. E. Wrightman presided at the meeting Friday night. A rising vote of thanks was given to R. J. Baldwin whose efforts have put the softball league across at Silvertown this summer.

Pade-Parker Classic is Set For Monday With More Thrillers Later This Week

hoping to make the count two love over their ancient rivals. Parker's strengthened last week with the addition of Paul Peper at short. Bill Sutton had been a handy youngster in the field but was slipping low in the batting average department and Parker's needed a little more hitting strength.

Eagles Threaten
Kay Mill will meet the vastly improved Eagles, who still kick the ball around nevertheless, in the second game Monday. The Weavers are a surprising team that spurts out to beat the hard ones and nearly always has difficulty with the easy ones. The Eagles beat Kay Mill in the first half, thereby taking away from them a championship that was already theirs and which they won anyway after a playoff.

Thursday night offers a pair of thrillers with Parker's meeting Kay's in the first game and Pade's taking on Hogg Bros. in the second. The Brewers are dangerous at any time and will be the second high hurdle of the week for Pade's.
Wait's, with Parker's still in the running for the second half title, will face the in-and-outer Master Bread nine in the night-cap Wednesday and the Eagles on Friday. Wait's registered a 10-to-0 whitewashing over the Bakers last half.

The game that children cry for and softball fans go crazy over will be the first item on this week's softball bill of fare with Parker's meeting Pade's in the first game of the week Monday night.

"Crooshial" is the word that describes that game which will decide whether Pade's goes undefeated on their way to another city championship or whether they will be in a three-way tie for the lead with Parker's and Wait's. The Parker club has already turned back the pill-pounding Pade's this season and are

Discovery Wins With Huge Load

CHICAGO, July 27.—(AP)—They haven't found an anchor heavy enough yet to sink the old globe trotter, Discovery.

In the $10,000-added Arlington handicap today they loaded him down with the crushing impost of 135 pounds, but he carried it like a champion to soundly whip his field and smash the track record for the mile and a quarter, hung up by Omaha just a week ago.

TIGERS ADD TO LEAD ON YANKS

Wallop Indians as Senator Crew Surprises Again; A's Win Marathon

DETROIT, July 27.—(AP)—Detroit's Tigers maintained their victory pace to wallop the Cleveland Indians, 6 to 2, today and boosted their American League lead to 2 1/2 games over the Yankees, who lost to the Washington Senators.

Tommy Bridges pitched shut-out ball until the ninth inning, when Hale and Berger scored for the tribe. The Indians found Bridges for nine hits, several of them scratch bingles. It was Bridges' 14th victory of the season.
The victory was the Tigers' tenth consecutive win over the Indians.

NEW YORK, July 27.—(AP)—The uprising Washington Senators upped the Yankees for the second time today, 8 to 7, and drove them deeper into second place as a late five-run rally, organized by Lou Gehrig's 17th home run of the season, failed to offset the wildness of the New York pitchers.
