CONTRACT AWARDED STAYTON PLUMBER

STAYTON, July 27.—The contract for installing a new heating plant for the Stayton grade school was let at a special meeting of the board of directors this week, the contract going to Jacob Spaniol, local plumber, at $1532.26. The heat will be generated at the high school heating plant and will be carried to the grade school by pipes. It is claimed that plenty of heat can be furnished both buildings by this method.

Mrs. Grace Nelbert, Stayton postmaster, attended the state convention of postmasters at Coquille this week. Mrs. Sallie Killian assisted in the postoffice during her absence, and her sister, Mrs. Maude Smith, came from Estacada to stay with her mother, Mrs. Hannah Elder.

The annual picnic of Stayton Post No. 53, American Legion, is to be held Sunday, August 4, at Wilson park on Thomas creek. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas of Bell, Calif., were Stayton visitors this week. They formerly resided here.

Mrs. Esther Clanton and two daughters of San Diego, Calif., are here visiting her mother, Mrs. Rose Willing and sister, Mrs. W. B. Allis. Miss Eleanor Willing and niece, Miss May Willing, of Long Beach, Calif., and Leo Willing of Live Oak, Calif., are expected here the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sussauer and son of Portland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sim Etzel this week. Mrs. Sussauer is a sister of Mrs. Etzel. While here a picnic party was given in their honor.

A reception was given the new Methodist pastor, Rev. Ralph Kleen, and wife, by his parishioners Friday night. A goodly number were present. Mrs. Kleen comes here from Brownsville.

Mrs. E. M. Rieger of Coon Hollow has been quite ill for several days. Her husband was recently taken to the Veterans' hospital in Portland.

Patients at the Stayton hospital this week were Luke Dillard, thumb mangled in wood saw; Verle Philipp, mashed toe; Roy Dorothy of Detroit, cut with saw; Robert Peterson, Woodburn mail carrier, broken arm.

William Van Handel, who lost an arm and was otherwise injured by a saw last Friday, is reported doing nicely at the Stayton hospital.

A list of exhibits to be shown at the West Stayton Harvest Festival is being published in the local newspaper and the complete list will be issued soon in pamphlet form at that printing plant for general distribution. A number of new articles for exhibition are listed this year. The festival dates are September 14-15.
