Endless Variety Found in Grape Ideas For Contest

GRAPE preserves, jellies, whips, sherbets, there is no limit to the different kinds of recipes which may be submitted in this week's Round Table contest.

Send in as many as you like. The deadline for the contest is Thursday noon. Cash awards will be announced Friday morning.

More apricot recipes follow:

Dandycoets
1 cup sugar
1 cup shortening
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup sweet milk
1 cup apricot pulp
1 teaspoon lemon extract
1 egg
Cream sugar and shortening and add the well beaten eggs. Add the pulp, milk and flour sifted with soda, baking powder and pinch of salt. Add extract. Drop by small spoonfuls on cookie sheet and bake in a hot oven. Makes about 3 dozen cookies.

Apricot Meringue Tapioca

4 tablespoons quick tapioca
1/2 cup apricot pulp
2 cups milk
2 egg yolks
1/2 teaspoon lemon rind
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 halves canned or fresh apricots
1/2 cup sugar
2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar

Cook tapioca in milk in top of double boiler. Add egg yolks and sugar, beaten together with salt. When thickened add lemon rind and juice. Turn into greased baking dish. Cover with drained apricots. Beat egg whites until foamy, add sugar, two tablespoons at a time, beating after each addition until thoroughly blended. Then beat until mixture will stand in peaks. Pipe lightly in apricot halves and between them. Bake in a slow oven, 325 degrees.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. May and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dickinson spent the week on the Trask river camping and fishing. They plan a trip in the near future to Breitenbush Hot Springs.

Laura Wheeler Daffodil Quilt

DAFFODIL PATTERN 1030

Spring has come and gone and with it the daffodils—those lovely yellow flowers that poets have immortalized. But you can still capture their beauty in this choice quilt for, in it, the flower has been faithfully reproduced. The block is an easy one to piece. It may look like a crazy quilt at first but you will soon find that the simple groups of patches take the form of a daffodil. One block alone would almost make a handsome pillow.

Pattern 1030 comes to you with complete, simple instructions for cutting, sewing and finishing, together with yardage chart, diagram of quilt to help arrange the blocks for single and double bed size, and a diagram of block which serves as a guide for placing the patches and suggests contrasting materials.

Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern alone would almost make a handsome pillow.

Smart Breakfast Held For Bride-Elect

The marriage of Miss Marie Jorgensen and Dr. Henry Morris will take place tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium at Hazel Green park.

Miss Jorgensen has been one of the season's most popular bride-elects. Sunday the home of Miss Anna Miles was the scene of a beautifully arranged breakfast with Miss Pansy Neiswander and Miss Lois Miles assisting hostesses.

The small tables were decorated with pastel bouquets and nosegays were at each place. The honor guest's favor was a miniature bridal shower bouquet.

Covers were laid for Miss Jorgensen, Miss Minnie Miller, Miss Catherine Carthew, Mrs. Mary K. Miles, Mrs. Ora McKenzie, Mrs. Bessie Barrett, Mrs. Mayme Evans, Mrs. Lois Cutler, Mrs. Linda Bland, and the hostesses, Miss Anna Miles, Miss Pansy Neiswander and Miss Lois Miles.

The Pringle Pleasant Point social club will hold its annual picnic Sunday, August 4th at Hager's grove.

Miss Grace Bailey is spending two weeks in Shelby, Mont., visiting with relatives.

HAS PECULIAR MISHAP PLEASANTDALE, July 30.

George Foster, 60, farmer of this locality is recovering, at his home under the care of a trained nurse, from injuries sustained Monday while loading wood. He caught his foot on a limb throwing his full weight onto a small stump with sufficient force to bruise his liver.

JENSENS ON VISIT BRUSH CREEK, July 30.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Jensen, old-time friends of L. H. Meyer in Iowa, were dinner guests Monday at the Meyer home. The Jensens now reside in California. They visited at Brush Creek 11 years ago also.

In the Valley Social Realm

Mt. Angel—A beautiful mid-summer wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's Catholic church, Tuesday, July 30, at 8 o'clock when Miss Alphonsine Hemshorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hemshorn, became the bride of Andrew Lelek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lelek. The wedding ceremony and the nuptial high mass were read by Rev. Hippolyte Calmus before a large number of relatives and friends.

The church was effectively decorated with large baskets of hydrangeas, snapdragons, garden flowers and greens. St. Mary's church choir sang accompanied by Miss Helen Keber who also played the wedding march.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white satin with court train and fashioned on princess lines with trimming of Alen-gance and small satin-covered buttons. Her full length tulle veil, over which fell a gracefully arranged shoulder veil, was caught about the head with a soft braid made of the same material. She carried a shower bouquet of white Talsman roses and bouvardia.

The bride's sister, Miss Eugenia Hemshorn, was maid of honor. Frank Tomminger, of Molalla, acted as best man for his cousin.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served for the bridal party and a few close friends at the home of the bride. A beautifully decorated wedding cake with a garland of flowers and greens flanked by two pink tapers was the only table decoration. Miss Catherine Tomminger presided at the bride's table and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Catherine Daniel of Portland and Miss Roslyn Tomminger of Molalla.

After a short wedding trip along the Oregon and California coast, Mr. and Mrs. Lelek will make their home in Mt. Angel where Mr. Lelek is at present engaged in growing hops. For traveling the bride wore a soft rose crepe ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of sweet peas and roses.

Mrs. Lelek is a graduate of Oregon State college and for the past few years has been interested in the field of pharmacy.

SILETZ LOG RATE ORDER IS UPHELD

Spaulding Company as Well As Utility Commission Winner in Court

An order of the state utility commission, reducing the rates on logs shipped from Olson, on the Valley and Siletz railroad, to Minona, on a branch line of the Southern Pacific company, was upheld by the state supreme court in an opinion handed down Tuesday.

The predominant opinion was written by Justice Bailey with Justice Rossman dissenting. Approximately 80 typewritten pages were covered in the opinion.

On December 13, 1932, the Spaulding Logging company filed complaint with the utility commissioner in which it was alleged that the joint rate of $3.90 per thousand feet, board measure, on logs shipped between Olson and Winona were unreasonable and unjust. Both the Southern Pacific and Valley and Siletz railroads were named as defendants.

Rate First Set $18
After an extensive hearing the commissioner, on May 17, 1933, issued an order fixing a rate of $18 per carload in 15 carload lots and $3 per 1000 feet in any quantity.

The order was attacked by the railroads in the Marion county circuit court with the result that the testimony taken at the hearing was referred to the utility commissioner.

The commissioner subsequently issued a supplemental order fixing the rate at $20 per carload, applicable to all shipments.

This order was sustained by Judge Lewelling of the Marion county circuit court and the railroads later appealed to the supreme court.

The Spaulding Logging company alleged that the high freight rate on logs made it impossible for the concern to compete with operators more fortunately located.

Used Sewing Machine for Group Asked

Varied are the calls for assistance which come to the Red Cross headquarters here. Yesterday the state tuberculosis hospital in need of a sewing machine for a sewing project being carried on by the patients able to do such work, applied to the Red Cross for aid in finding a used sewing machine, of any vintage or kind, just so it will sew.

The Red Cross is passing the request on to some housewife who might have a machine she would donate to this cause, in which event notify Mrs. Olive Doak Byant, the executive secretary, at 5911. The Red Cross will arrange for delivery of the machine to the patients.

At the present time, the tuberculosis patients' sewing project is being carried on with aid of but one sewing machine.

STATE DEMOCRATIC PICNIC SCHEDULED

Nearly 15,000 democrats and their families are expected to attend the state democratic picnic to be held at Blue Lake park Sunday, August 1, according to B. S. Martin who has been appointed chairman here for the picnic. He will name a committee of 10 or 15 assistants within the next day or two.

Governor Martin will be guest of honor at the picnic and other prominent party leaders from all parts of the state will take part in the program. A parade of all nations before the governor's stand will be a special feature, with folklore, dances and stunts to be given by the international group. A dance will be held at night.

Coffee will be furnished but all attending are asked to bring well-filled baskets. Prizes will be awarded to the largest delegation in attendance. Blue Lake park is eight miles east of Portland on the Columbia River highway, just north of Fairview.

AUTOMOBILE LOAN INTEREST LIMITED

10 Per Cent a Year is Top Figure, Supreme Court Ruling Declares

The practice of small loan companies, making loans of $300 or less on automobiles at interest rate of three per cent per month, was declared unlawful by the state supreme court in an opinion handed down Tuesday. Four of the seven members of the court concurred in the predominating opinion.

The court held that loans of $300 and less on motor vehicles cannot be made by small loan firms unless such firms also are licensed under the state motor vehicle finance act. In any event the interest rate shall not exceed 10 per cent per year.

The opinion was written in a suit brought by C. J. Ford against William H. Bates to foreclose a mechanics' lien for labor and materials upon an automobile upon which a loan of $125 had been made by a loan company. Judge Stapleton of the Multnomah county circuit court held for the plaintiff and defendant appealed to the supreme court.

Justice Bailey wrote the predominating opinion in which he reversed the lower court. Chief Justice Campbell and Justice Kelly concurred with Justice Fossman writing specially concurring opinion. Justice Bell wrote the dissenting opinion with Justices Rand and Belt concurring.

"The principle involved in this case overshadows the specific details at issue," Justice Bailey wrote.

Bailey pointed out that the 1931 legislature passed an act which classified three types of small loans which were considered together in reaching a conclusion. These were the small loan act, the motor vehicle finance act and the pawnbrokers' law. They were all signed by the governor on the same day.

"It is contended by appellant that the small loan act is authority for one licensed under that act to engage in the business of making loans of not to exceed $300 on motor vehicles, without specific compliance with the motor vehicle finance act," the opinion continued. "We cannot agree with this interpretation. The motor vehicle finance act refers only to loans on motor vehicles while the small loan act is general in its application.

"The legislature in enacting this entire system of regulating small loans, thought it advisable to segregate the classes of business on which a rate greater than 10 per cent would be permitted.

"There is nothing contained in the small loan act which expressly permits the loaning of money secured by mortgage on motor vehicles, whereas the motor vehicle finance act expressly prohibits the loaning of money secured by such mortgage for a greater rate of interest than 10 per cent per annum, unless the lender is licensed under that act."

Road Change at School Entrance Asked at Court

Two road petitions were filed with the county court yesterday. One, signed by Hazel B. Morris and a long list of others, asks for a change in the road entrance to Illihs school, south of Salem on grounds that the present entrance is dangerous to the pupils, it is impossible to get to the schoolhouse in the winter, and the new entrance would be cheaper to construct than to repair the old one.

The second petition requests that the hill on the Fern Ridge road above Mehama be widened, as at the present time one-way traffic is necessary and a blind curve is conducive to accidents. Charles W. Warner heads the petitioners for this project, located in district No. 33.

USE BIG TANKS TO DODGE FUELS TAX

Trucks and buses, equipped with huge fuel tanks, are depriving the state of Oregon of a large amount of money in gasoline and distillate tax, state officials declared Tuesday.

The highway and utilities departments principally are concerned with the operation of diesel trucks, in interstate traffic, which avoid payment of the state fuels tax by filling their tanks just outside the Oregon boundaries.

Officials said they also had discovered that many buses are in excess of eight feet wide, which is the maximum width authorized by law. These violations were said to be due to tires protruding beyond the body of the vehicle.

Several of these complaints were referred to the state highway department which has authority to grant permits in special cases for the movement of oversized trucks and buses. Highway department officials said they would not tolerate willful evasion of the motor vehicle laws by these operators.

By filling their tanks in California instead of in Oregon many bus and truck operators are able to save as much as two cents a gallon in tax.

Hart Fined $100, Gets 30 Days as Drunken Driver

Jury sitting yesterday afternoon in the drunken driving trial of Roland Leyland Hart, heard in justice court, found Hart guilty, whereupon Judge Hayden assessed a $100 fine and 30-day jail sentence.

Hart, through his attorney, Brazier Small, immediately appealed the case to circuit court, and pending disposition in the higher court is at liberty under $250 cash bail.

RECRUITING PARTY COMING HERE SOON

The United States army in a planned recruiting campaign will send a group of officers and men on a four-months tour through Oregon, including visits to Salem and other Willamette valley cities, Sergeant Lee B. Mable, recruiting officer, announced yesterday.

Those whom Major H. D. Bagall, recruiting officer for the Portland army district, plans to send through this section of the state include Lieutenant George L. Van Way, of the Seventh Infantry, leader of the party; Sergeant Jesse Phillips, and Sergeant Russell H. McDowell.

The war department foreign service quota, effective tomorrow, is infantry, 25; coast artillery, 15; field artillery, 15; engineers, 5; chemical warfare service, 5.

20 Years of Rheumatic Suffering Gone

Relieved After She Tried Williams R.U.X. Compound

Mrs. Ivan Yarrus, Belknap, Iowa, writes about her remarkable improvement: "I suffered 20 years from rheumatic, neuralgic, and neuritis pains. Had taken all kinds of medicines, doctored without results. As time went on was getting worse. I had such pains in my back, shoulders, neck, arms and hands that I couldn't rest at night. Couldn't raise my arms to comb my hair. Felt like life wasn't worth living. I saw an ad about Williams R.U.X. Compound and got a bottle. After two doses the pain began to leave. Have taken this medicine now for a little over two weeks and feel like living again. I also take Williams S. L. K. Formula which helps relieve the cause. Cannot praise this medicine enough."

Thousands praise Williams R. U. X. Compound for relief of rheumatic pain, neuralgia, and neuritis, and Williams S. L. K. Formula for disorders of stomach, liver, and kidneys.

If you suffer, don't delay. See your druggist at the Perry Drug Store. You risk nothing if not satisfied, and to talk to him may save you years of suffering.
