HICKS-MAULDING REUNION SLATED

Descendants Pioneers Will Gather Sunday at Silverton

ABIQUA, Aug. 2 - The reunion of Hicks and Maulding families to be held at Silverton Sunday, recalls to old settlers here much of the early history of the community. In the clan are the McLaughlins for whom the Mc-Laughlin school here is named.

Henry McLaughlin was born in Indiana in 1822 and was married in 1840 to Mary Ann Taylor, born in 1823. In 1866 the group made the trip from Iowa to Oregon by ox team and purchased 69 acres along the Abiqua from the donation land claim of John Francis school site where McLaughlin vene Friday night, August 9. school now stands.

McLaughlin died at the farm on November 3, 1874 and his widow passed away March 9, 1907.

Children Listed Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin's children were Oliver P., married Isabella Maulding: Narcissa Belle. married Andrew McCracken and Andrew Culbertson: Sarah Ann, married a Mr. Sutton; Mary Catherine married Opp Culbertson: Emma not married; Ida, married George Elliott; Louisa, married James Brown; Phillip, Amanda and Margaret died in infancy.

The Hicks group came into the family when Catherine Ann Taylor, a sister of Mrs. McLaughlin. married Frisby Hicks. Their children were Philip, Pitt, Charles, Harry and Mary. Mary Hicks married John Maulding. Two of the Hicks men married Morley women, members of another still older pioneer family. These were Uttley of Brush College gave a Philip, who married Nettie Morley and John, who married Effie Morley.

On Maulding Side Sisters and brothers of Isabella Maulding McLaughlin (Mrs. Oliver McLaughlin) who came to Oregon were Kellian Tyler Maulding, Labal Maulding, John Maulding, besides Isabella, Kelian Tyler Maulding-later known as Uncle Jimmy-married Martha Johnson and their children are C. A. Maulding, Cora B. Matlock, Margaret Ivy, Jesse Maulding, John lawn. H. Maulding, Clyde Maulding and Pearl Klumpp, all well known names in the Willamette valley.

Labal married Sarah Kenworthy and their children were Niellie and Elizabeth Maulding, Rhoda and Sadie Barkhurst, Eugene and Milton Maulding. The reunion to be held at Silverton Sunday will include a large ere, many from lem, from Silverton, the Silverton Hills and other surrounding com-
