Benefit August 15 In Restoration Of House

THE first of a series of large benefits to be given throughout the state this fall and winter for the restoration of the old home of Dr. John McLoughlin at Oregon City is scheduled for August 15, Thursday, at Fircone, the country home of Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary.

The general public is invited to the tea. Tickets will be dispensed in Salem by a local committee headed by Mrs. Richard Stolz but may also be obtained at the door. A sale of homemade goodies will be held in conjunction with the tea to raise funds for the restoration.

Chairmen Named

Salem committee chairman appointed yesterday by Mrs. John Y. Richardson of Portland, general chairman of the benefit and of the restoration committee, were Miss Priscilla Fry, food; Miss Josephine McGilchrist, serving; Mrs. Stolz, tickets; Mrs. Homer Goulet and Mrs. U. G. Shipley, tea tables; and Mrs. George White, reception.

A group of 20 Spinsters will assist with the serving. The same number of women heading the state association, will preside at the urns.

Among those in the receiving line will be Mrs. McNary, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. C. S. Jackson, Mrs. Joseph T. Peters, Mrs. John G. Abele and Mrs. A. E. Rockey, all of Portland, and Mrs. Joseph E. Hedges, Mrs. C. D. Haynes, Mrs. Herman Grossman and Mrs. Raymond Caufield, all of Oregon City.

Meeting Yesterday

Forty patriotic and pioneer organizations in Oregon are cooperating in giving the benefit.

A committee meeting was called yesterday by Mrs. Richardson at the Marion hotel. Those attending were Miss Margaret Corey, Miss Jeanne Wilson, Miss Ruthita Hoffnell, Miss Josephine McGilchrist, Miss Priscilla Fry, Miss Margaret Heltzel, Miss Margaret Burdette and Miss Henriette White from the Spinsters, and Mrs. William House, Mrs. James B. Montgomery, and John G. Abele and Mrs. Richardson of Portland, Mrs. McNary, Mrs. Walter Stolz, Mrs. Richard Stolz, Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. Homer Goulet.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

If you've known the comfort of a wrap-around house frock, you know you simply can't have too many of them. And if you "overtip" the scales, you'll be delighted to find a frock which puts its accent on slenderizing lines. Don't you love the dainty ruffling which outlines the wide, decorative scallops of the bodice, and the jaunty way the sash nips in your waist. Get the pattern today, and make it up in a cool voile or one of the serviceable cottons like percale or broadcloth, with white organdy ruffle — and don't forget the buttons! Long sleeves are included in the pattern.

Pattern 2366 is available in sizes 16, 18, 20, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 takes 3⅞ yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Anne Adams Summer Pattern Book should be in every home! Its 40 fascinating pages are full of Fashion Facts every woman want to know! Everyone's problem is solved . . . . the Bride with Trousseau Troubles . . . the Matron with Weighty Problems . . . the much "dated" Deb . . . . Tiny Tots at play . . . Vacation Planners! Consult its fashion pages for a smarter wardrobe! Read its absorbing special articles for a smarter point of view! Send for your copy today! Price of book 15 cents. In the Valley Social Realm

Scio.—Sylvia Bartu, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartu, jr., became the bride of Carol Crenshaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Crenshaw, at a beautiful ceremony in the garden at the home of the bride's parents in Scio at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Yunker played Mendelssohn's wedding march from "Midsummer Night's Dream" and Veloris Crenshaw, sister of the groom, sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a tip-toe length gown of white organdy and a tiara of blue hydrangea. She carried an arm bouquet of mixed flowers. Audrie Bartu, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore peach organdy and carried an arm bouquet. Lloyd Crenshaw acted as best man for his brother. Rev. V. L. Loucks of the Scio Baptist church read the ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

An informal reception followed the bride's cutting of the large wedding cake. Both Mr. and Mrs. Crenshaw were born in Oregon and reared in the Scio locality. He is a 1931 graduate of Scio high school and Mrs. Crenshaw was graduated in 1934. They will make their home at Westfir.

Mrs. Joe Haller and Miss Georgia Whitney were hostesses at a shower for the bride Friday at the Bartu home.

All Sorts Peach Recipes Wanted at Round Table

Only one more day remains in which to enter peach recipes in the weekly Round Table contest. Three cash prizes await the best contribution so it is worth the while of every good cook to scan her recipe files and select one or two entries.

The recipes sent or brought in to The Statesman office may call for fresh, preserved or dried peaches. The contest closes tomorrow, Thursday noon.

Grape recipes follow:

Grape Sherbet

1 pint grape juice
1 cup sugar
1 quart milk

Warm grape juice and in it dissolve sugar. Mix thoroughly with ice cold milk and freeze at once. This makes a lilac colored sherbet.

Ellen Robins,
571 N. Church.

• • •

Vintage Pie

1 quart stemmed blue grapes
¾ to 1 cup sugar
1½ tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 tablespoon instant tapioca or 1 tablespoon cornstarch

Slip grapes out skins. Save skins. Cook pulp until seeds loosen. Press pulp through coarse sieve to remove seeds. Mix pulp, skins and all ingredients. Let stand five minutes. Pour into 9-inch pie plate with flaky pie crust. Cut remaining pastry into strips and lay criss-cross over the top of the fruit filling. Lay a long strip of pastry around the edge and crimp down with a fork. Bake in a hot oven 10 minutes. Lower heat to moderate and bake 20 minutes longer. Chill. Serve with whipped cream.

Mrs. Laura Pardun,
743 Union.

• • •

Fresh Grape Pie

In the cool of the morning bake a pie shell or individual shells. When ready to serve dessert, fill the pie shells with fresh seedless grapes and cover with sweetened whipped cream. If the fruit is kept in the refrigerator during the day this makes an exceptionally cool and refreshing dessert without any last minute work. Serves six.

Carol Clark,
1625 N. Winter.

• • •

Grape Conserve

5 lbs. Concord grapes
5 lbs. sugar
2 lbs. seeded raisins
5 oranges

Remove skins from grapes and boil pulp until seeds are loosened. Then remove seeds by putting through colander. Add the skins of the grapes, pulp of 5 oranges and skins of 3, chopped fine and parboiled. Then add raisins and boil 15 minutes. Add the sugar and boil 30 minutes or until jellied. Put up same as a marmalade.

Dallas Wedding Has Social Interest

Dallas.—One of the important events of the season was the marriage Saturday night of Miss Margaret Staats, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Staats of Dallas, and Van Crider of Monmouth, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Crider, also of Dallas. The ceremony was solemnized at the Presbyterian church in Dallas with the Rev. Alfred Williams officiating.

To the strains of soft music the white tapers of the tall candelabra were lighted by Miss Myra Starbuck and Miss Helen Mills. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Virginia Wilson at the piano and Miss Irene Soehren accompanied her on the violin. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was of lustrous white satin, made en train and she wore a full length cap veil. Her bridal bouquet was of bouvardia, lilies-of-the-valley and roses. Miss Mary Staats, as maid of honor for her sister, wore a tip-toe length gown of pink organdie and carried Talisman roses.

Bridesmaids in Blue

The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Minnich of Dallas, and Miss Iris Phillips of Portland, cousin of the bride. They wore similar gowns of turquoise blue lace, with close fitting hats to match and carried pink sweet peas. Vivian Richardson as flower girl wore white organdie and Jerry Grubbe as ring bearer wore a suit of white satin.

Phillip Staats, brother of the bride, attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Glen Halliday, V. O. White, M. Carter of Monmouth, and Clark Van Orsdel of Dallas.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the 200 guests in the church parlors. Bruce McIntosh sang several numbers accompanied by Mrs. Wilson. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Charlotte Rix, a cousin of the bride. Presiding at the coffee urns were Mrs. Harry Belt of Salem, and Mrs. Riley Craven of Dallas. Ices were cut by Mrs. E. K. Piaseck of Salem, and Mrs. Scott Lougary of Dallas. The bride's cake was cut by her aunt, Mrs. Leonard Shaw, of Walla Walla, Wash.

The bride is a graduate of the Monmouth Normal school and has been a member of the Dallas teaching staff for two years. The groom graduated from Oregon State college and is in business in Monmouth. Following a two weeks' trip to San Francisco the young couple will be at home in Monmouth after September 1. For going away the bride wore an ensemble of wood violet wool with white accessories

Stomach Sufferers!

Don't Let Avoidable Disorders Rob You of the Joy of Living

"I have suffered for years with heartburn and sour stomach; was much distressed; everything I ate disagreed with me; could get no relief until I tried Williams S. L. K. Formula. One bottle has done wonders and gave me great relief," says Mrs. May Kopp of Ottumwa, Iowa.

So it goes. Many have thus praised Williams S.L.K. Formula, a doctor's prescription recommended for atonic dyspepsia, indigestion with gas and pains, sick headache, constipation, loss of weight or appetite, and general weakness. For by combining the actions of a stomachic, laxative, and tonic, Williams S.L.K. Formula has proved very effective in obtaining relief from such conditions.

OLDER GIRLS NOW AT CAMP SANTALY

Third Week is Under Way; Ceremony Winds Up Second Period

By HELEN RALPH

CAMP SANTALY, Aug. 6—The third week of camp with the older girls holding the reins is successfully on its way. There is a full camp with 52 enrolled. Fifteen girls are here from the Silverton girl reserves this week. Camp mother for this week is Mrs. S. A. Gay, leader of the Silverton girl reserves.

The girls are divided into study groups with leaders as follows: Dramatics, Lorene Tompkins; swimming, Helen Ralph; knitting and crocheting, Julia Johnson, Eleanor Trindle, and Mrs. Gallaher; nature lore, Ruth Reasor; block printing, Gwen Gallaher and our music leader, Louise Findley.

Ceremony Beautiful

Last week's campers left with a feeling of impressive beauty received from the lovely ceremony presented Saturday night. The ceremony typified the Spirit of the Santiam in connection with Father Time and the benefits we as campers receive in health, strength and beauty. The ceremony closed with a processional through the woods and over the covered bridge, each girl bearing candle which she had lighted from the Spirit of Fire.

The girls then gathered around the campfire and sang their closing song and taps with a feeling of both happiness and sadness as they realized the week was over.
