

County Wide Picnic of Christian Endeavor is Friday

TURNER SITE IS SELECTED

Supper Will Be Served at 7 o'Clock With Bonfire Service After

LABISH CENTER, Aug. 7.—Arrangements have been completed for the county-wide picnic for members and friends of Christian Endeavor which will be held Friday afternoon and evening, August 9, on the Christian church camp grounds at Turner. Softball and water sports are scheduled for the afternoon in charge of Phil Barrett of Salem and Dale Crabtree of Dayton.

The picnic supper will be served at 7 o'clock and the closing bonfire service will be in charge of the "two Howards"—Howard Cole and Howard Roberts. All coming are requested to bring well filled baskets and table service.

OH Million Dollar Road The county road oiling crew has been working on the Labish million dollar highway since Monday morning. Operations were begun at the end of the pavement one mile east of Brooks, extending past the local schoolhouse a short distance. When completed, it will mean another objective of the community club reached, as that organization has been active for many years in securing road improvement for the district. A vast amount of produce is marketed over the road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Aker left last Thursday on a short vacation trip which will be spent in Yellowstone park. The O. G. McClaughry family and Mrs. McClaughry's mother returned Sunday from a five weeks' trip throughout the southwest.

AUMSVILLE FOLKS AT MASONIC FETE

AUMSVILLE, Aug. 7.—A number of Aumsville people were in attendance at the Masonic and Eastern Star picnic dinner held at Turner Sunday. Those going from here were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colvin, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Peterson and small grandson, Miss Alice Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lewis of Santa Clara, Calif., were here to attend the picnic.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Highberger entertained at dinner at their home Sunday, honoring her mother, Mrs. Margaret Hilderschem, of Spokane.

Elwin Cheffings fell on the curb in Salem Saturday night, and broke two bones in his arm. He is having to carry the injured member in a cast.

Water Carnival is Feature Today of League's Institute

FALLS CITY, Aug. 7.—The 1935 Epworth League Institute got off to a good start Saturday night after a few words of greeting by Dean Johnson and introduction of members of the faculty. Recreational Director Terry and Reed organized the young people into four Indian tribes. Competition will be keen between the tribes in all the sports.

Thursday afternoon a water carnival will be staged. It will consist of one hour of clowning and stunting in the water.

The C. Mode home was completely destroyed by fire about 3 o'clock Saturday morning. No one was at home as the family was vacationing at the coast.

Idella Dickerson Dies at Molalla Following Stroke

MOLALLA, Aug. 7.—Idella Thornton Dickerson, 77, a resident of Molalla for over 20 years, died Monday night at her home near here. She suffered a paralytic stroke Friday. She was born in Jonesville, Mich., April 29, 1858. She came west in 1889, where she lived in Oregon City, Beaver Creek, Maple Lane and Molalla.

She was married in 1890 to W. O. Dickerson, who survives her. She also leaves two daughters, Mrs. B. O. Cole and Miss Birdie Dickerson, both of Molalla. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and of the Molalla grange.

YOUTHS ON OUTING

HUBBARD, Aug. 7.—A group of young people from Hubbard are enjoying a three day outing at Pat's Acres, near Barlow. Mrs. Marie Claypool is their chaperone. The group includes Miss Beatrice Claypool, Miss Marion McKenzie, Mrs. Janice Ryan and son, Jimmie, Miss Iris Moomaw and Miss Marjorie Friend.

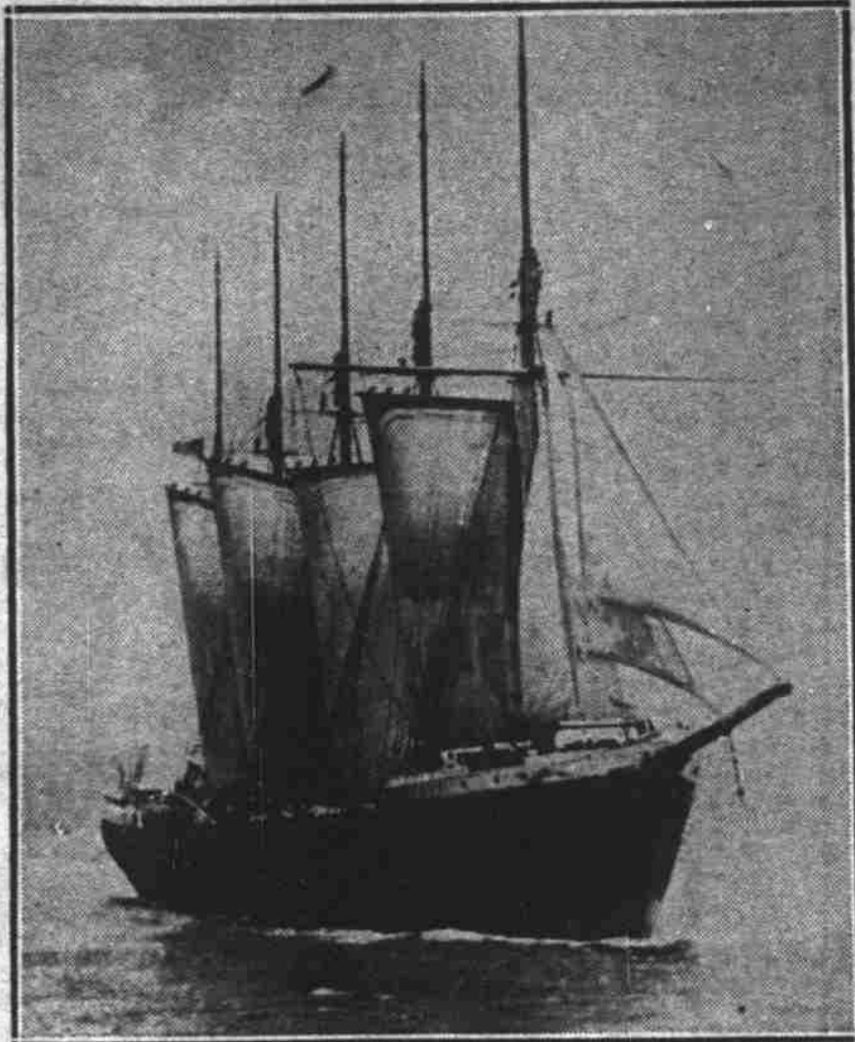

HILBORNS IN TOWN

HAYESVILLE, Aug. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hiborn, who have been living on the Batdorf place, have moved to Salem and the place is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. F. Chapman, parents of Mrs. Berns Christofferson.

GROUP TO SPRINGS

FRATTON, Aug. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Coblitz from Washington, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Powell, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Coblitz, Mr. and Mrs. Powell and Henry and Lydia Powell motored to Breitenbush.

Still Sails on Her Pacific Run

The good ship Vigilant, slow but picturesque, is one of the few commercial sailing vessels that still ply their course between the mainland and Hawaii. From her home port of Bellingham, Wash., the Vigilant regularly sails between Puget Sound and Honolulu, laden with lumber on the outbound voyage and returning with 200 tons in rock.—International Illustrated News Photo.

REUNION SLATED OF VETERANS OF 1898

WOODBURN, Aug. 7.—The 13th annual reunion of the second Oregon volunteer infantry, veterans of the Spanish-American war, will be held in Laurelhurst park, Portland, Sunday, August 11.

Rev. Francis H. Ball of Trinity Episcopal church will be the principal speaker. It is hoped that Congressman James W. Mott will be present to give an address. The program will begin with mess call at 1 o'clock. Music will be furnished throughout the afternoon by the 162nd infantry band. Comrade Rev. Willard Elkins will lead the opening invocation, prayer and benediction. Colonel Percy Willis will give the address of welcome. Comrade Richard Deich will read the names of those who have answered the last roll call

Ray Maling Buys Balance Berries at 3 Cents Pound

WOODBURN, Aug. 7.—The Woodburn Fruit Growers' Cooperative association has disposed of the balance of its evergreen blackberry tonnage to the Ray-Maling cannery company of Woodburn at 3 cents a pound, field run as to size. Two hundred tons were sold to Libby McNeil and Libby at the same price last week.

The sale Tuesday cleaned up the entire tonnage in this locality. Delivery started Monday with 10 tons being received.

EDGAR LONG GETS PORTLAND CHURCH

Paper Mill Picnic at Hazel Green Draws 800 Attendants

HAZEL GREEN, Aug. 7.—Rev. Edgar Long and Mrs. Long and daughters, Misses Lois and Jean, and Miss Ethel Walsh were guests Monday of Mrs. Long's sister, Mrs. Robert Massie and brother Alexander Sharp, Mr. Long and wife, who is also a minister, are returning to Medford for annual conference and camp meeting of Free Methodist church at Beaverton. They were assigned to Lents, Portland, having served Medford four years, the time limit of their denomination. Doris Massie returned from Portland with Mrs. Long.

Mrs. J. Matleys and grand children of Vancouver, Wash., were guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Workman at the parsonage, 909 at Mill Picnic, Sunday. Sunday was a busy day at the park. There were 800 present at the Paper Mill picnic. The Swedge community and a state picnic were also well attended.

Mrs. Tony Kasper and children, Carolyn and Irwin, Mrs. W. Williamson and children, Doris Zielinski and Alois, Mrs. Nina Yarnen and children, Marjorie and Bettie, and Mrs. Yarnen's sisters, Miss Hoyt have returned from a vacation at Netarts and Oceanside.

Lowly String Bean in Heavy Demand by Rickey Wives

RICKEY, Aug. 7.—The lowly string bean has come into its own and from all appearances will be king of vegetables this winter in this community. Ordinarily the string bean is used as a filler when a large amount of food is needed but this year if a Rickey husband serves string beans that came from her "very own garden" it will be considerable of a delicacy.

The bean vines bloomed profusely but the greater part of the blossoms dropped off in many gardens and only a few beans matured. Several housewives report only a "mess" or two of string beans this year. Those who are

Fox Terrier Born Minus Tail Though Other 4 Have One

DAYTON, Aug. 7.—One fox terrier male in a litter of five pups on the C. J. Cousins farm was born Monday without a tail. It is otherwise normal and thriving. Last February the same mother gave birth to two pups without tails in a litter of four. The mother's and sire's tails were docked when they were pups.

fortunate enough to have string beans are considering themselves lucky and are planning on canning them as far as possible. Cause of the beans not maturing has not been determined.

Varied Improvements Noted at Hazel Green

HAZEL GREEN, Aug. 7.—Max Woods has painted his house including the roof. George Morris, on the farm formerly owned by Edgar Johnson, has shingled his dwelling. N. P. Williamson has a new roof and now is painting his barn. The house on the Ralph Van Cleave farm has a new roof. The Watts family live there now. Ben Clemens is installing a new boiler in his sawmill.

LOAD OF HAY GOES UP IN BIG BLAZE

Peterson Family of Suver Moves to New Home on Highway

SUVER, Aug. 7.—A load of hay in the barnyard at the Ralph Kester farm, accidentally caught fire and burned up. The wagon and a few fence posts were also ruined.

The I. N. Peterson family moved from Suver the first of this week into their new home on the Monmouth-Corvallis highway opposite Fickenger's service station. Mrs. Arheheart III.

Mrs. I. G. Arheheart, who has been quite ill for sometime, was taken to the Salem hospital the first of the week and underwent a major operation. She is reported still in a dangerous condition.

Yvonne Kerr and grandmother, Mrs. Brown, drove to Airle Sunday to visit Earl Brown and his son, Norman, who suffered a rather serious accident Saturday at the sawmill when a steel cable broke. Norman had three pieces of steel removed from his eye but the physician says the sight was not injured.

Grangers' News

TALBOT, Aug. 7.—The social night at the Ankeny grange hall Saturday brought out a large crowd. Dancing and visiting were enjoyed until a late hour. Supper was served by the women at midnight.

BRUSH COLLEGE, Aug. 7.—Forty-eight members were present at the outdoor meeting of the Brush College grange held in the community grove Friday night. At 7 o'clock a club supper preceded a short business session conducted by Mrs. W. D. Henry, grange master. The next meeting will be held in the Brush College schoolhouse September 13 instead of the usual date.

All 4-H club members of the district were urged to take exhibits to the Polk county fair.

VICTOR POINT, Aug. 7.—The regular meeting of the Union Hill Home Economics club will be held at the W. F. Krens home Wednesday, August 14. Instead of the Hubbard home as formerly announced, Mrs. Hubbard will assist the hostess.

American automobile tires are becoming popular in Turkey.

108 MILES ON 4 GALLONS OF GAS

That's an average of 27 miles to the gallon. I drove from Salem to Portland and return at about 50 to 55 miles per hour. I would not have believed it if I had not done it myself in that Little Standard Six 4-door.
