Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Doesn't she look poised and debonair, this smartly attired person who has chosen pattern 2369 for her first fall frock? Topping a straight center panel is a round-neck yoke, which contains back and points downward to a trim waist. You'll love the two-way neckline worn open, or closed under a contrasting bow; the softly puffed sleeves which on an elastic band can be adjusted to any length; and inverted pleats, back and front. If your wardrobe leans to brown, have a yellow dress in one of the new woolly-weave cottons, and tuck a brown bow under your chin. Equally smart in black satin.

Pattern 2369 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 3 3/4 yards 23 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.
Send fifteen cents (15c) in coin or stamps (coin preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and zip number. Be sure to state size.

Crochet This Lovely Chair Back

CROCHETED CHAIR BACK SET PATTERN 1024

Variety is the spice of life and you'll find it in this lovely chair set. It will add individuality to your living room for it is indeed distinctive. Done in the simplest of filet crochet, the lace stitch effectively sets off the roses. It is a fascinating bit of needlework so get on your crochet hook and get to work on it. You can use the chair back on your davenport, too—it will be most effective.

Pattern 1024 comes to you with directions for making the set shown; illustrations of it and of all stitches used; material requirements.

Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to The Statesman, Needlecraft Dept.

Institute Group Back; 50 Attend From This City

About 50 young people from the three Methodist churches of Salem returned last weekend from the Epworth League Institute held at Falls City August 3rd to 10th.
Rev. D. C. Poindexter and Mrs. J. B. Ulrich accompanied the group of 20 from Leslie church. Mr. Poindexter reported that approximately 400 students were registered at the institute which conducted daily devotional services, classes and recreation. Twenty ministers and university professors from the Willamette valley made up the faculty.

Drunken Driving Penalty 30 Days

Ernest Richard Pickens, 19, of Brooks was fined $100 and handed a 30-day jail sentence yesterday when he pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Miller Hayden to driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Complaint against Pickens was made by John Koepke Sunday after Pickens' car crashed into the machine driven by Koepke on the Pacific highway north of town.

DAIRY CO-OP WILL PICNIC ON SUNDAY

The fourth annual picnic of the Dairy Cooperative association will be held at Jantzen Beach park Sunday, with a large number of members from the Salem milk shed expected to attend. All members and their friends are invited.

The morning program, featuring a softball game, will open at 10:30 o'clock and luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock.

Speakers on the program from 12:30 to 1:30 o'clock will include Louis Minoogie, president of the association, who will extend the welcome; Dr. Robert Prior, dairy and livestock supervisor, department of agriculture for the state of Washington, who will speak of "What Milk Control has Meant to Washington Dairymen"; and Solon T. White, director of agriculture for Oregon.

Races and another baseball game will follow the program.

Camping Party Has Brief Stay At Breitenbush

A camping party composed of Dean Roy Lockenour, Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolf and Robinson Spencer returned Monday from a brief stay at Breitenbush lake. The party explored scenic spots in the vicinity and some went into Jefferson park. They report the mountain meadows gay with flowers in the wake of retreating snowbanks.

Prof. Oliver joined the Obsidians in the climb of Mt. Jefferson Sunday. He left Breitenbush lake camp Saturday evening 11:30, reached the park about 11, set around the campfire until the party started at four, scaled the mountain, and returned to the lake camp—a 24-hour stretch of strenuous mountaineering without sleep.

Sunshine Blues

ALONG about this time of the year we begin to get sun-conscious. Last winter, remember, we longed for weather like this—honestly believed a real sunburn would be a thing of beauty and a joy forever! Now we're looking forward to the season when the thermometer will go down and down.

Strange? Not at all! One of our basic characteristics is desire for change. And your newspaper is dedicated to the daily satisfaction of this human need. Each day it is as new as that day's sunrise. Each day it is full of surprising things.

And nothing in it is newer in appeal or in opportunity than the advertisements. They are filled with facts about all the things you want today and will be wanting tomorrow. Always changing, to keep up with your own eternal desire for change, the advertisements in this newspaper are guide posts to happier living. Read them regularly—they offer opportunities you should not miss.
